Preface

THE scheme of this work involves the exact reproduction of the text of the American newspapers, other than their reprints of foreign intelligence in the English journals, from the first attempted American newspaper in the year 1690, of which only a single number was issued, down through the Provincial Period closing with the year 1783. The first series, of which this is volume one, is to cover the Massachusetts press, for in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay American journalism had its beginning, and here alone was continued with a single newspaper through a decade and a half, or till 1719. Except in the provinces of Pennsylvania and New York, and there only in the cities of Philadelphia and New York, journalism was not planted elsewhere till after the first quarter of a century had passed. The news of the Massachusetts press, however, was by no means confined to that province. The field of the Massachusetts periodicals was all the English colonies in America, and in their columns was reported not only the news of the other colonies but that of the West Indies, Nova Scotia, and Newfoundland, so far as news gathering facilities were effective in those primitive days.

Beginning with the eighteenth century the early newspapers contained much Americana not elsewhere to be found in reports of local happenings, in official documents and other papers, and in personal items relating to the daily lives of the people and to the activities of the communities then developing. Because of the incompleteness or entire absence of other records, the material in these periodicals, scant as it is, is of inestimable value to the historian, the genealogist, the student, the lawyer, the judge, the conveyancer, serving as it does to illuminate much that otherwise would remain obscure, and furnishing vital data concerning both public and private affairs of this formative period of American history.

It is a cause for profound but unavailing regret that old town and church records have to a considerable extent disappeared, and that so many documents and papers of historical value were destroyed or carried away during and at the close of the Revolution. Much, too, of the material of this nature that has been preserved is fragmentary. Where town records—minutes of town meetings, of selectmen, of churches, and of other community proceedings—were kept they are often now far from complete. The same is true of the records of probate courts, of the registers of deeds, of vital statistics. The valuable publications of the town records and other contemporary documents by the city registrar of Boston, and the volumes of Massachusetts Vital Records by the New England Historic Genealogical Society, provided for by its Robert Henry Eddy Fund and annual appropriations by the Commonwealth for the purchase of a stated number of copies, particularly disclose this condition in Massachusetts; and it is the condition to an even greater extent in the other colonies. Many of these omissions the early provincial newspapers supply, and they will be found in this compilation. In fact, the material in the newspapers here reproduced constitutes to a very considerable extent our only contemporaneous record of American happenings, especially in the earlier years of the Provincial Period, save what is derived from public documents and private papers. The desire to rescue this material from the obscurity into which it has fallen and to render it accessible has been the guiding motive of this Digest.

While all that is comprised in this volume and those that will follow notably supplements other records and meets deficiencies in them it also includes much matter of a distinctive character and not heretofore collected, bearing upon a variety of subjects: as port statistics, public proceedings; importations; postal service; events, local and colonial; residence, business pursuits, and ventures of the people; passenger arrivals and departures; real estate transactions; property holdings; wills; court and administrative affairs; legislative acts. In the special field of literature much is discoverable in these columns that will engage the attention of the investigator into literary usages, the origin of words, terms, and phrases which have worked their way into the common language. To what extent all this will add to the sum of our information regarding the period surveyed the pages that follow must speak for themselves.

The imperative need and the usefulness of such a compilation as is furnished in this Digest will be recognized when it is understood that the issues of such early periodicals as have been preserved are scattered in many libraries in different parts of the country. No single library has a complete set of any of them. He who would examine every existing number would be compelled to resort to institutions in widely separated cities, as Boston, Cambridge, Worcester, Hartford, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Madison, Wisconsin. In some instances the only known copies are in private or proprietary libraries not freely open to the public. Thus they are always difficult of consultation, and not infrequently are practically inaccessible save to privileged investigators. Moreover, many are in a frail and perishable condition, and their custodians are already seriously considering the wisdom of withdrawing them entirely from general use. The danger of loss by fire is also ever present.

In its entirety AN HISTORICAL DIGEST OF THE PROVINCIAL PRESS will be a complete compilation of or an index to all the provincial newspapers included in this review. It is intended that the work shall largely obviate the necessity of consulting the originals save, perhaps, in exceptional instances by scholars, and place this material once for all in compact form, wholly available for the widest private and public use.

It is believed that the methods adopted in this reprinting will commend themselves by reason of their simplicity, directness, and completeness. As will be seen, the items reproduced have been arranged in chronological order under the names of the newspapers from which they have been taken, with dates of issue and reference to the libraries in which copies of those particular issues are now preserved. All the personal items, reports of events and historical documents that have never been reprinted, and that constitute the bulk of the data, are given entire. In the work as a whole documents and historical papers that have been already reprinted in accessible collections of historical and antiquarian societies or in standard works of history will not always be reproduced in full, but will be briefly abstracted and reference made to those publications wherein they can be consulted. In the present volume, however, few such instances occur. While the foreign news reprinted or summarized from the English newspapers has been excluded as outside the scope of this work devoted exclusively to Americana, its character has been indicated in the editorial head-notes to the transcripts of successive issues of the newspapers and in occasional brief references in the text. Whatever in this mass of foreign intelligence relates in any way to American affairs has, however, been scrupulously transcribed.

To reproduce the originals with absolute textual fidelity has been the constant aim of the editors. Working on these predetermined lines all the vagaries of spelling, capitalization, italicization, punctuation, abbreviations, and so on, have been carefully preserved. So undeviating has been the adherence to this rule that even obvious typographical errors of the colonial printers have been transferred to these pages. At the outset the extent to which editorial revision or correction of the original text might be carried came up for long and serious consideration. One conclusion only could be arrived at and that was that the ultimate historical worth of a work of this character must rest primarily and firmly upon an exact adherence to the text. This course has been pursued with less reluctance in view of the fact that there has been found little confusion or incorrectness in the text that will not be readily comprehensible to the competent reader. Here and there suggestive readings have been added in brackets and further explanations and corrections have been made in foot-notes.

That despite the utmost care and watchfulness errors may exist in the completed work may be frankly admitted. Such seems to be the fate of all printed books, and it may well be true of a work involving such and so many typographical and other perplexities as this. It is however the earnest hope of the editors that if errors are found they will be few and unimportant. A careful final reading of the printed pages in connection with the arduous task of making the elaborate personal and analytical Index has happily revealed little of consequence that had previously escaped observation.

Several special features of historical and bibliographical character precede the transcript of the newspapers on the opening pages of this volume. These come naturally in place as introductory to and explanatory of the text which follows. Their presence does not call for particular comment. The list of periodicals of the Provincial Period, the list of authorities on the subject, and the list of libraries will, it is safe to say, be found useful guides. An acquaintance with the broadside of 1689, the first attempted newspaper, and the Campbell manuscript news letters, seems to be essential to an adequate understanding of the conditions precedent to the founding of the first established newspaper and the influence which affected that beginning and marked its early career.

The editors are indebted to a number of valued friends who may be properly termed historical experts for practical suggestions and valuable aids in the prosecution of their work; and their thanks are especially due to the librarians of the Massachusetts Historical Society, the New York Historical Society, the Boston Athenæum, the American Antiquarian Society, the libraries of Harvard and Yale Colleges, the Library of Congress, and other institutions, for courtesies received.

The Present State of the

New-English Affairs.

This is published to prevent False Reports

An Extract of a Letter from Mr. Mather, To the Governor, Dated Sept. 3. 1689 from Deal in Kent.

THe House of Commons Ordered a Bill to be drawn up for the Restoration of Charters to all Corporations. Some Enemies of New-England did bestir themselves on that Occasion. But it has pleased God to succeed Endeavours and Solicitations here so far, as that N. E. is particularly mentioned in the Bill.

It has been read twice, and after that referred into a Committee for Emendations. What concerns N. E. had passed without any great opposition. The Bill has been in part read the third Time, and the Charters of N. Eng. then also passed without Objection. Only some Additional Clauses respecting Corporations here, caused Debates; so that the Bill is not as yet Enacted.

In the latter end of June, a Vessel from Mayne here arrived here, which brought your Declaration of April 18. with an account of the Revolution in New-England. The week after I went to Uxbridge Court, and had the favour to wait on His Majesty's agent told me. That he did accept of, and

The people of New-England having made a thorough Revolution, and secured the publick Criminals. On Thursday last, the Reverend and Learned Mr. Mather, President of the College, and Minister of Boston, waited on the King; and in a most Excellent Speech laid before His Majesty, the State of that People; saying, That they were sober, and Industrious, and fit for Martial Service; and all with their Lives and Interests were at His Majesties Command, to render the same unto His Majesty: That they desired nothing but His Majesties Acceptance of what they had done, and His Protection; and that if His Majesty pleased to encourage and Commission them, He might easily be Emperour of America. His Majesty assured him, that He was pleased with what was done for Him, and for themselves in the Revolution; and that their Detestations and Relin-

On July 4. The King laid unto me, That He did kindly Accept of what was done in Boston. And that His Subjects in New-England should have their Ancient Rights and Priviledges Restored and Confirmed unto them. Yea, He told me, That if it were in his power to cause it to be done it should be done, and bade me rest assured of it.

The Charter-Ess is not finished, because some Additional Clauses respecting Corporations here in England caused a Debate; and the Parliament is for some weeks Adjourned.

Besides the Letter from the Kings Majesty, whereof we have notice as above; there is now arrived, an Order from His Majesty to the Government, bearing Date, July 30. 1689.

Requiring, That Sir Edmund Andros, Edward Randolph, and others, that have been seized by the people of Boston, and that he at his Receipt of this Command, Detained there, under Confinement, he sent an Board the said Ship, bound to England, to acquaint what was done against them.

and take no more order the Secretary of State signs much, and that His Subjects there should have their Ancient Rights and Priviledges restored to them.

The King has sent a Gracious Letter (which was delivered to me, and if I return not my self, I shall take care that it be sent to you) bearing Date August 12. Wherein He signifies His Royal Appointment of what has been done at Boston, and assures you that the Government there shall be settled, so as shall be for the Security and Satisfaction of His Subjects in that Colony, and in the mean time bids you go on to Administer the Law, and manage the Government, according as in your Address you have Petitioned.

My Lord Mordant (now Earl of Monmouth) had me assure you that He would be your Friend, and he bade me tell you from him, That your Charters should be restored to you by Act of Parliament.

I have been with most of the Kings most Honourable Privy Council, who have promised to be Friends New-England as there shall be occasion for it. The like I may say, of all the Leading-men to the Parliament.

I have been in the Downs a fortnight, and Aboard Mr. Clark, several Nights, but the Wind has been against us. And we now hear that the New-Jersey and Convoys (on whose Assistance we had a Dependence) are gone.

Superadded To the Remembrance

Samuel Mather, Esq.

Governor of the Massachusetts Colony in New-England.

Precursors of the Newspaper

IT has been estimated that from the setting up of the first printing press in the English-speaking colonies of America, by Stephen Daye in Cambridge, Massachusetts-Bay, in 1639, until the close of the Colonial Period, half a century thereafter, more than three hundred books and pamphlets by native writers were produced by the printers of Cambridge and Boston. This was a remarkable output for a pioneer people and some of the Boston imprints became famous even in the old world.

This early-planted and rapidly-developed literary and typographic activity gradually led to the printing of news-sheets, although fifty years were allowed to elapse before the home press gave the colonists anything to read except books and pamphlets,—mainly religious—almanacs, and the acts and resolves of the General Court. Foreign news came in the few and infrequent London newspapers, while the scant domestic happenings were reported by word of mouth or by personal letters passing between relatives or friends in different communities. When, occasionally, some specially important matter developed broadsides were printed and sold, but only at the instance, or with the permission of the government, for the press was not yet free and nothing could be put forth except as “published by authority.” Such, for example, was the broadside of 1689, entitled: The Present State of the New-English Affairs. So far as has been discovered this was the first publication in the colonies of a purely domestic news character and as such it is reprinted in this Digest, although it was in no sense a newspaper.

Other sheets of like character were put forth about this time. Evidence of this and of the fact that such publications were not regarded with favor by the colonial authorities is seen in the following official document:

“Whereas many papers haue beene lately printed & dispersed tending to the disturbance of the peace & subuersion of the gouern̄t of this theire Maiesties Collonie King William & Queene Mary It is therfor ordered that if any person or persons within this Collony be found guilty of any such like Misdemeanour of printing publishing or concealing any such like papers or discourses or not timely discouer such things to Authority or doe any act or thing that tends to the disturbance of the peace or the subuersion of this gouern̄t They shall be accounted enemies to theire Maiesties present Gouern̄t & be proceeded ag^t as such with uttermost severity

Another publication of the period, similar to the preceding, was: Admiral Russel's LETTER TO THE Earl of Nottingham, Containing an Exact and Particular Relation of the Late Happy Victory and Success Against The French Fleet. This letter which was "published by authority," gives an account of the naval engagement between the English and Dutch fleets on the one side, and the French fleet on the other, off capes La Hogue and Barfleur in May 1692. The letter of the admiral, dated Portsmouth, June 2, 1692, describes circumstantially the movements of the allied naval forces, day by day, from Wednesday, May 18, to Wednesday, May 25, and tells how the French fleet was defeated and completely destroyed.

Following this letter is a copy of a private letter from Portsmouth, dated May 29, 1692. In the latter is another brief account of the same battle. Under date of "Monday 23d of May" is a brief report of the burning of the French ships in the harbor of La Hogue. Finally under date of "Tuesday, June 7th. 1692." is more about the campaign, with the statement that the combined English and Dutch fleets were; "Ninety Nine Ships, Forty Thousand five hundred seventy five Seamen, six Thousand nine Hundred ninety four Cannons, eighty seven Fireships and Frigats." The letter ends:

"This very day brings News, That the Town of Marmur, but not the Castle have Surrendred to the French sooner than it needed to have done, but at so dear a rate, as 'tis hoped will cost the French King his Kingdom."

Then is appended this note of the reception of the news in Boston:

"THe Happy News of this Success and Victory, obtained by Their Majesties Royal Navy, over the French Fleet was Received by Their Majesties Loyal Subjects of their Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England, with all Hearty Expressions and Demonstrations of Joy; His Excellency the Governour, being absent upon an Expedition against the Common Enemy. The Lieutenant Governour, accompanied with the Gentlemen of the Council; Principal Gentlemen, Military Officers and Merchants of the Town of Boston, Repairing unto the Fort, the great Ordnance at the Fort, and other Fortifications in and about the said Town, and at Their Majesties Castle, were discharged, and Loud Acclamations of God Save King William and Queen Mary, and grant them a Long and Prosperous Reign, made by the whole Concource of People there Assembled."

This broadside consists of four pages, two columns to a page, the paper page being $7\frac{1}{2}$ by $11\frac{3}{4}$ inches and the type page $5\frac{1}{2}$ by $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The heading and Admiral Russell's letter fill nearly six columns. The sheet has the imprint: "Boston Printed, and Sold by Benjamin Harris, at the London-Coffee-House. 1692." A unique specimen is in the library of Harvard College and a fac-simile reproduction was published in Samuel Abbott Green's Fac-Simile Reproductions Relating to Various Subjects, Boston, 1903.

PRECURSORS OF THE NEWSPAPER

In New York, in 1696, Governor Benjamin Fletcher recognized the growing desire in that community, to know the news, by having reprinted a copy of the London Gazette which had come into his hands and contained an account of an engagement with the French previous to the peace of Ryswick. He had already called William Bradford from Philadelphia to set up a printing shop in New York and to him he gave the order for this work. It was reported by the governor, in a letter to the lords of trade, in London, May 30, 1696:

"ship belonging to this place from Madera happily mett at sea that vessell which had Your Lord^p's packet for Virginia and brought me a Gazett which gave me an account of that horrid conspiracy against His Majesty's sacred person. I caused it to be reprinted here and proclamation was issued by advice of the Council for a day of thanksgiving throughout this province before the duplicate from Your Lord^p came to hand."²

A similar reprint was brought out in Boston in 1697 bearing this imprint: "London, Printed by J. Dawks, Re-printed at Boston, in N. E. by B. Green, and J. Allen, 1697." The heading is as follows: "London Septemb. 27. | Yesterday Morning arrived Three Holland Mails, | which bring the following Advices. | Vienna, September 18." | An original is in the Boston Public Library and it was reproduced in fac-simile in the Boston Public Library Bulletin, October, 1893, vol. XII, page 215.

Earlier than the date of the publications last mentioned a definite attempt was made to establish a real newspaper in the Massachusetts-Bay Colony, the first attempt of the kind in America. This was the single number of Publick Occurrences Septemper 25, 1690. The prompt action of the governor in suppressing this sheet not only put an end to its existence but also acted as an effectual deterrent to any other printer ambitious in the same direction. For more than thirteen years thereafter the journalistic field was barren. Meantime however, the familiar methods of spreading news by written letters continued, and presently, in 1703, John Campbell, who was then postmaster of Boston, undertook to write letters which were broader and fuller in news than private communications were likely to be, and which, even if not altogether public in character, were in a sense semi-official. Campbell sent his letters quite regularly to the governors of the several New England colonies, and his brother Duncan Campbell seems to have assisted him in this service. A full account and a transcript of such of the Campbell letters as have been preserved are given in this volume.

These broadsides and manuscript news letters were the immediate precursors of the real newspaper, that is a publication of news, having periodicity and continuity as its essential elements. They were followed by The Boston News-Letter of John Campbell, in April, 1704; and there was the real beginning of American journalism.

Massachusetts Periodicals

FOLLOWING is a list, chronologically arranged, of newspapers and other periodicals published in Massachusetts, during the Provincial Period, beginning with the single sheet of extracts from letters of the Reverend Increase Mather in 1689, and ending with the close of the Revolution in 1783. The list is based upon a similar list in volume 9 of the Publications of The Colonial Society of Massachusetts—which has been used herewith by the kind permission of Albert Matthews of Boston.¹ Considerable dependence has also been placed upon the work of William Nelson of Paterson, New Jersey.² Original investigation of first sources by the editors of this Digest has added to this knowledge.

During their existence several of these newspapers were published under different names. These names have been entered separately, and, where necessary for identification, the parent title is given in connection therewith in brackets. In this list two titles,—the Campbell manuscript letters,—are not of periodicals nor even of publications. Nevertheless it has been considered quite in keeping with the character and purpose of this Digest to include them inasmuch as they were essentially of news character, and were the first expressions of that public desire for news which ultimately led to the establishment of The Boston News-Letter.

Most of these changes were of slight typographical character, but all the materially different forms of title under which this newspaper was published from its beginning in 1770 to the end of 1783 are recorded on another page herewith under the heading The Massachusetts Spy.

⁷ See New England Chronicle. The Essex Gazette, started in Salem in 1768, was the parent of the several newspapers known in later years by the name Chronicle. When the publishers removed to Cambridge in 1775 they prefixed the Chronicle name to their publication. When the newspaper was removed from Cambridge to Boston the Essex Gazette part of the title was discarded and as the Chronicle it was longest and best known. For that reason its later titles have been here placed under the heading New-England Chronicle.

List of Authorities

SEVERAL accounts of the newspapers and their printers in the Massachusetts-Bay Province have been written, and many incidental references throwing light upon them are found in various historical and other publications. The subjoined list of authorities makes no pretence to minute completeness, but it embraces the titles of those works upon which the investigator must principally depend. In fact the editors are confident that nothing of substantial importance has been omitted from it.

A Narrative of the Newspapers printed in New-England—In a letter to the President of the Historical Society, from one of the members. In the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society for the year 1798. Boston, 1798. Vol. V, pp. 208—216.

This paper appears to have been the first printed account of the earliest American newspapers. It is signed A. Z. and the author was the Reverend John Eliot, D.D., pastor of the New North Church, Boston, and one of the founders and the first librarian of the Massachusetts Historical Society. The sketch is brief and, naturally, inadequate, and it contains numerous errors. It presents some interesting facts but on the whole is not of much value.

Continuation of the Narrative of Newspapers published in New-England, from the year 1704 to the Revolution; in a letter from one of the members to the president of the society. In the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society for the year 1800. Boston, 1800. Vol. VI, pp. 64—67.

This paper was also from the pen of the Reverend John Eliot and is open to the same criticism as its predecessor. In it is included a brief two-page sketch of the newspapers of Connecticut from 1755 to 1800, written by the great lexicographer, Noah Webster, and enumerating seventeen publications.

The History of Printing in America. With a Biography of Printers, and an Account of Newspapers. To which is prefixed a concise view of the Discovery and Progress of the Art in Other Parts of the World. In two volumes. By Isaiah Thomas, Printer, Worcester, Massachusetts. Worcester: From the press of Isaiah Thomas jun. Isaac Sturtevant, Printer. 1810.

This two-volume work has always been and undoubtedly always will be the fundamental source of information for the period which it covers. Thomas was a successful printer and publisher, an editor of wide experience, a shrewd observer, and an indefatigable collector of literature bearing upon the printing of books and newspapers. Beginning printing in 1755 he was, for half a century, one of the most active and most able newspaper men of Massachusetts. He had an extensive acquaintance with his contemporaries and his youthful years overlapped the closing years of those who had been the founders of Massachusetts journalism. His work partakes more of the character of the hasty newsgatherer and gossipy recorder than of the painstaking historian. Much is absent from it that we should be glad to know today and its pages have many inaccuracies. Nevertheless, despite its deficiencies, it is invaluable. The History was first published in Worcester in 1810. It was republished in 1874 by Joel Munsell, Albany, N. Y., for the American Antiquarian Society of Worcester, Mass. being volumes V and VI in the Transactions and Collections of that Society. This edition has a memoir of the author by his grandson Benjamin Franklin Thomas; voluminous and valuable explanatory and critical notes by John R. Bartlett, Samuel F. Haven, Joel Munsell and H. G. Jones; and, as an appendix, a "catalogue of publications in what is now the United States, prior to the revolution of 1775—6," compiled by Dr. Samuel F. Haven.

The Life and Errors of John Dunton, Citizen of London; With the lives and characters of more than a thousand Contemporary Divines, and other persons of literary eminence. To which are added, Dunton's Conversation in Ireland; Selections from his other genuine Works: and a faithful portrait of the author. Two vols., London 1818.

Letters Written from New England, A. D. 1686, by John Dunton. In which are described his voyages by sea, his travels on land and the characters of his friends and acquaintances. Now first published from the original manuscript, in the Bodleian Library, Oxford. With notes and an appendix, by W. H. Whitmore. Boston: Published for the Prince Society, 1867.

John Dunton, the eccentric printer and bookseller, visited Boston with an invoice of books to sell, in 1685, and remained in Massachusetts more than a year. He wrote much and spiritedly concerning the people of his time and his pen pictures of those whom he met in Massachusetts add to our knowledge of men and manners of that period. The first edition of his Life and Errors was published in 1705. His Letters Written from New England, edited by W. H. Whitmore, is more full in its descriptions of the Boston printers and booksellers than the London book. Students of early New England life cannot afford to overlook it.

Specimens of Newspaper Literature: with Personal Memoirs, Anecdotes, and Reminiscences. By Joseph T. Buckingham. Boston, 1850.

This work is also known as Buckingham's Reminiscences, which title appears on the backbone of the cover. It is in two volumes and treats of the newspapers of all New England. In the first volume are included the newspapers from 1704 to the close of the Revolution; in the second volume are those subsequent to that time and into the following century. Buckingham was a famous newspaper and magazine editor, from 1799 to 1861, and this work of his, while primarily based on that of Thomas, is enriched with much valuable information derived from examination of original files and from personal knowledge. It amplifies and extends the Thomas History in both biography and bibliography, and corrects some of the errors of its predecessor.

Personal Memoirs and Recollections of Editorial Life. By Joseph T. Buckingham. Two vols., Boston 1852.

Records of the Governor and Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England. Printed by Order of the Legislature. Edited by Nathaniel B. Shurtleff, M. D., Member of the Massachusetts Historical Society, Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Member of the American Antiquarian Society. Five vols., Boston, 1853—1854.

Account of the Newspapers and other Periodicals, published in Salem, from 1768 to 1856. By Gilbert L. Streeter. In the Proceedings of the Essex Institute. Salem, Mass., 1856. Vol. I. 1848 to 1856.

This short sketch contains some small particulars which do not appear in the works of Thomas or Buckingham.

Journalism in the United States, from 1690 to 1872. By Frederic Hudson. New York, 1873.

Mr. Hudson began his account of journalism in the United States with ancient Rome, Greece and China, and devoted most of his book to the newspaper history of his own time. Consequently he had scant space—98 pages—for the American newspapers of the eighteenth century, and in that part of his work he gives practically very little except what he derived from the pages of Thomas' History and Buckingham's Specimens. He reprinted the Publick Occurrences (not accurately), part of one of John Campbell's manuscript news letters, the domestic items of the first number of The Boston Newsletter, extracts from The Boston Gazette, The New England Courant, and The New York Gazette of William Bradford; gave an account of the libel suit against Peter Zenger in 1734; and treated briefly of the editors, publishers, writers, news and advertisements of the press of the Revolutionary period.

The Memorial History of Boston, Including Suffolk County, Massachusetts. 1630—1880. Edited by Justin Winsor, Librarian of Harvard University. In Four Volumes. Boston, 1881.

In this work five chapters treat, directly or indirectly, of this subject. These are The Literature of the Colonial Period, by Justin Winsor, vol. I, pp. 453—464; The Indian Tongue and Its Literature, by J. Hammond Trumbull, vol. I, pp. 465—480; The Press and Literature of the Provincial Period, by Delano A. Goddard [then editor of the Boston Daily Advertiser], vol. II, pp. 387—436; The Pulpit, Press, and Literature of the Revolution, by Delano A. Goddard, vol. III, pp. 119—148; and The Press and Literature of the Last Hundred Years, by Charles A. Cummings, vol. III, pp. 617—682.

History and Present Condition of the Newspaper and Periodical Press of the United States, with a Catalogue of the Publications of the Census Year. By S. N. D. North, Special Agent. Washington, Government Printing Office. 1884. [Part of Vol. VIII of the Tenth Census—1880—of the United States.]

LIST OF AUTHORITIES

Although this is an exhaustive treatment of its subject as a whole, the part relating to the newspapers of the pre-revolutionary period is inadequate and abundant in error. Mr. North did little more than transcribe from Thomas' History and Buckingham's Reminiscences, and faithfully perpetuated the errors of those writers with the addition of others of his own. His chronological history is of some value, though not as relating to the provincial period. He reprints the catalogue of the newspaper files in the library of the American Antiquarian Society.

Narrative and Critical History of America. Edited by Justin Winsor. Eight vols., Boston, 1886—1889.

Letter-Book of Samuel Sewall. In the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society. Sixth Series, Vols. I and II. Boston, 1886 and 1888.

Documents Relating to the Colonial History of the State of New Jersey. Edited by William Nelson. Vol. XII. Paterson, N. J., 1895.

This volume carries on its cover the title, New Jersey Archives First Series, and thus the work to which it belongs is commonly known. A bastard title page gives another variant as follows: Archives of the State of New Jersey. A sub-title on the full title page is: Some Account of American Newspapers, particularly of the Eighteenth Century, and Libraries in which they may be found. Part II. Massachusetts. The volume is mainly a reprinting of the news relating to New Jersey, taken from these early newspapers. The "account" of the newspapers is an introduction of 132 pages, historical, biographical and bibliographical, chronologically arranged. Reviewing as it does the newspapers of all the American colonies for the entire eighteenth century, Mr. Nelson's work is the most complete compilation of its kind that has been made. It gives a great amount of information lacking in other authorities, and has reprints of the headings of the newspapers, many in fac-simile; its list of files and libraries, albeit far from complete, and not conveniently arranged, is very valuable.

Ten Fac-Simile Reproductions Relating to New England. By Samuel Abbott Green, Boston, Massachusetts, 1902.

Ten Fac-Simile Reproductions Relating to Various Subjects. By Samuel Abbott Green. Boston, 1903.

This is the third and concluding volume of the series published under similar title. It contains fac-simile reprints of the title-page of a unique copy of Bunyan's Pilgrims Progress, printed in Boston in 1681; of the broadsides, The Present State of the New-English Affairs, Boston 1689, and Admiral Russel's Letter to the Earl of Nottingham, Boston, 1692; the two pages of both the first and the second edition of the first issue of The Boston News-Letter, April 24, 1704; the two pages of the issue of The New England Courant, for February 11, 1723; and the two pages of the issue of The New England Weekly Journal for April 8, 1728. These reproductions are accompanied with descriptive and critical text by Dr. Green.

American Bibliography, By Charles Evans. A Chronological Dictionary of all Books, Pamphlets and Periodical Publications printed in the United States of America from the Genesis of Printing in 1639 down to and including the year 1820. With Bibliographical and Biographical Notes. Vol. I, 1639—1729; Vol. II, 1730—1750. Chicago, 1903—1904.

The Development of Freedom of the Press in Massachusetts. By Clyde Augustus Duniway, associate professor of history in Leland Stanford Junior University. Vol. XII of Harvard Historical Studies. New York, 1906.

This work treats of the control of the press in England and in Massachusetts from 1638 onward. The assumption of governmental authority over the newspapers of the period, particularly the Publick Occurrences, Campbell's Boston News-Letter, The Boston Gazette, Franklin's New-England Courant, and Fleet's Boston Evening-Post, is well considered. A complete list of sources and titles of secondary authorities adds much to the value of the work.

Check List of Boston Newspapers, 1704—1780. By Mary Farwell Ayer. With Bibliographical Notes by Albert Matthews. Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts. Vol. IX, 1907.

LIST OF AUTHORITIES

As its name indicates, this is a check list, showing in what principal libraries of the United States the issues of the provincial newspapers, so far as they are known to be in existence, are preserved. It is a work of incalculable value and indispensable to every student of the eighteenth century journalism of Massachusetts. The Bibliographical Notes by Mr. Matthews constitute by far the most interesting, most valuable and most scholarly historical review of the newspapers included in the period covered that has yet been printed. This, combined with the biographical and historical accounts of the printers, publishers and editors, and their work, has left little to be done by any future historian or compiler, except the actual reprinting of the contents of these papers.

The Present State of the New-English Affairs

A BROADSIDE, brought out in 1689, this publication bears the imprint "Boston, Printed and Sold by Samuel Green." It is a single sheet printed on one side; the paper page is 8 by 14½ inches, while the type page, in two columns, is 6¾ by 12 inches. The first column is filled by the extract from the letter of the Reverend Increase Mather to Governor Simon Bradstreet, dated: "Sept. 3, 1689 from Deal in Kent." In the second column appear "A Passage extracted from the publick News-Letter, [of London] Dated July 6, 1689"; the extract from Mr. Mather's letter to his son the Reverend Cotton Mather, and the paragraph regarding the overthrow of Andros.

A solitary specimen of this publication has been preserved, and is in the Massachusetts Archives, volume XXXV, page 83, in the State House, Boston. The sheet has been reprinted in the Massachusetts Magazine, Boston, October, 1789, volume I, page 642; in the Collections of the New Hampshire Historical Society, in 1824 and 1866, volume I, pages 252-255 and volume VIII, pages 258-260; and in The Andros Tracts, volume II, pages 15-18. It has also been twice reproduced in fac-simile: first in 1902, by William Green Shillaber of the Club of Odd Volumes, and again in 1903 by Dr. Samuel Abbott Green in his Ten Fac-Simile Reproductions Relating to Various Subjects.

With his reproduction Mr. Shillaber refers to the sheet as, "the first attempt at newspaper publication on this side of the Atlantic ocean." Whether or not it is entitled to be regarded as a newspaper, and, therefore, the first in the English colonies of America has ever been a subject of controversy among students. When first reprinted in 1789 it was called "a Handbill or Newspaper Extraordinary." Joel Munsell in 1874, Charles Evans in 1903, and George H. Sargent in 1905 have suggested or contended that it was a newspaper, and argument has been made in support thereof. William H. Whitmore in 1869, Delano A. Goddard in 1881, William Nelson in 1895, Samuel Abbott Green in 1901, Professor Clyde A. Duniway in 1906, and Albert Matthews in 1906 have agreed in characterizing the sheet as a broadside.

The concensus of opinion is that the print was not a newspaper. Strictly speaking it was not even an attempt at a newspaper, an essential distinction of which is successive and regular publication. Still in it was a germ of the coming newspaper. For an extended consideration of this publication and the arguments concerning it, see a paper by Albert Matthews in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, volume X, pages 310-320.

The Present State of the New-Englilh Affairs.

This is Published to prevent false Reports

An Extract of a Letter from Mr. Mather, To the Govenour, Dated Sept. 3, 1689 from Deal in Kent.

THe House of Commons Ordered a Bill to be drawn up for the Restoration of Charters to all Corporations. Some Enemies of New-England did bestir themselves on that Occasion. But it has pleased God to succeed Endeavours and Sollicitations here so far, so that N. E. is particularly mentioned in the Bill.

It has been read twice, and after that referred unto a Committee for Emendations. What concerns N. England passed without any great opposition. The Bill has been in part read the third Time, and the Charters of N.-Eng. then also passed without Objection. Only some Additional Clauses respecting Corporations here, caused Debates; so that the Bill is not yet Enacted.

In the latter end of June, a Vessel from Mount Hope arrived here, which brought your Declaration of April 18. with an account of the Revolution in New-England. The week after I went to Hampton Court, and had the favour to wait on His Majesty, who told me, That He did accept of, and was well pleased with what was done in New-England, and that he would order the Secretary of State to signifie so much, and that His Subjects there should have their Ancient Rights and Priviledges restored to them.

The King has sent a Gracious Letter (which was delivered to me, and if I return not my self, I shall take care that it be sent to you) bearing Date August 12. Wherein He signifies His Royal Approbation of what has been done at Boston, and assures you that the Government there shall be settled, so as shall be for the Security and Satisfaction of His Subjects in that Colony, and in the mean time bids you go on to Administer the Laws, and manage the Government, according as in your Address you have Petitioned.

My Lord Mordent (now Earl of Monmouth) bade me assure you that He would be your Friend, and he bade me tell you from him, That your Charters should be restored to you by Act of Parliament.

I have been with most of the Kings most Honourable Privy Council, who have promised to befriend New-England as there shall be occasion for it. The like I may say, of all the Leading men in the Parliament.

NEW-ENGLISH AFFAIRS

I have been in the Downs a fortnight, and Aboard Mr. Clark, several Nights, but the Wind has been against us. And we now hear that the New-found-Land Convoyes (on whose Assistance we had a Dependence) are gone.

Superscribed To the Honourable

Simon Bradstreet, Esq;

Governour of the Massachusetts Colony in N-England.

A Passage extracted from the publick News-Letter, Dated

July 6. 1689.

THE people of New England having made a thorow Revolution, and secured the publick Criminals. On Thursday last, the Reverend and Learned Mr. Mather, President of the Colledge, and Minister of Boston, waited on the King; and in a most Excellent Speech laid before His Majesty, the State of that People; saying, That they were sober, and Industrious, and fit for Martial Service; and all with their Lives and Interests were at His Majesties Command, to tender the same unto His Majesty: That they desired nothing but His Majesties Acceptance of what they had done, and His Protection; and that if His Majesty pleased to encourage and Commission them, He might easily be Emperour of America. His Majesty assured him, that He was pleased with what was done for Him, and for themselves in the Revolution, and that their Priviledges and Religion should be secured unto them.

Extracted from a Letter of Mr. Mather, to his Son, Dated

Sept. 2. 1689.

On July 4. The King said unto me, That He did kindly Accept of what was done in Boston. And that His Subjects in New-England should have their Ancient Rights and Priviledges Restored and Confirmed unto them. Yea, He told me, That if it were in his power to cause it to be done it should be done, and bade me rest assured of it.

The Charter-Bill is not finished, because some Additional Clauses respecting Corporations here in England caused a Debate; and the Parliament is for some weeks Adjourned.

Besides the Letter from the Kings Majesty, whereof we have notice as above; there is now arrived, an Order from His Majesty to the Government, bearing Date, July 30. 1689.

Requiring, That Sir Edmund Andross, Edward Randolph, and others, that have been Seized by the people of Boston, and shall be at the Receipt of these Commands, Detained there, under Confinement, be sent on Board the first Ship, bound to England, to answer what may be objected against them.

Public Occurrences

UNTIL the single known copy of The Present State of the New-English Affairs came to light in 1789¹ this print of Publick Occurrences was regarded as the first news publication of the English colonies in the Western Hemisphere. Even now the distinction of being the first attempt to start a newspaper in the colonies must be accorded it for, undoubtedly, the publishers intended to continue it regularly had it not fallen under the ban of the government. It is a small quarto printed on three sides of a folded sheet, two columns to the page, the paper page being $7\frac{1}{2}$ by $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches and the type pages, the first, $5\frac{7}{8}$ by $10\frac{3}{4}$, the second, $5\frac{5}{8}$ by $10\frac{3}{4}$, and the third, $5\frac{7}{8}$ by $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches. It has for a colophon, "Printed by Richard Pierce for Benjamin Harris."

The only known contemporaneous reference to the publication, except the Governor's order of suppression, was by Chief Justice Samuel Sewall, who wrote in 1690:²

"Sept. 25. A printed sheet entituled publick Occurences comes out, which gives much distaste because not Licensed; and because of the passage referring to the French King and the Maquas [Mohawks].

"Oct. 1. Print of the Governour and Council comes out shewing their disallowance of the Public Occurrences.

"Oct. 2. Mr. [Cotton] Mather writes a very sharp Letter about it."

Elsewhere, under the same date, Judge Sewall again refers to "the first sheet of Occurrences, which came out this day."³

But the publishers were ahead of the time. Those in authority were not yet tolerant of a free press. Immediately on its appearance the continuance of the print was promptly interdicted. Following is the order for its suppression, a copy of which is preserved in the library of the Massachusetts Historical Society:

BY THE GOVERNOUR & COUNCIL

WHEREAS some have lately presumed to Print and Disperse a Pamphlet, Entituled, Publick Occurrences, both Forreign and Domestick: Boston, Thursday, Septemb. 25th 1690. Without the least Privity or Countenance of Authority.

The Governour and Council having had the perusal of the said Pamphlet, and finding that therein is contained Reflections of a very high nature: As also sundry doubtful and uncertain Reports, do hereby manifest and declare their high Resentment and Disallowance of said Pamphlet, and Order that the same be Suppressed and called in; strickly forbidding any person or persons for the future to Set forth

Boston, September 29th 1690.

So far as is known only one copy of this publication is now in existence and that is preserved in the Public Office in London. There it rested in musty archives for more than a century until, in 1845 or 1846, it was discovered by the Reverend Joseph Barlow Felt, librarian of the Massachusetts Historical Society (then in England as an agent of the state of Massachusetts to secure duplicates of various documents whose originals had been lost), and briefly described by him.⁴ It was examined and copied in London in 1856 by Dr. Samuel Abbott Green of the Massachusetts Historical Society (later librarian), and reprinted by him the following year in a Boston magazine.⁵ The same year (1857) an expurgated copy from this magazine was reprinted by the National Intelligencer of Washington. Sixteen years later a similar reprint was made in Frederic Hudson's History of Journalism. Mr. Hudson's reprint may fairly be regarded as one of the curiosities of historical literature for, following the example of the National Intelligencer, he was superserviceably scrupulous in expurgating certain matter which he seemed to fear might be deemed objectionable to some, even though he thereby sacrificed historical accuracy. Another expurgated copy was printed in a Boston newspaper in 1897.⁶ It was reproduced in fac-simile for the first time by Dr. Green in 1901.⁷

Benjamin Harris for whom the Publick Occurrences was printed was a bookseller of note in London before he came to Boston. At one period of his life he was a close friend and a business associate of the eccentric John Dunton, who wrote concerning him:⁸

"He has been a brisk asserter of English Liberties, and once printed a Book with that very Title. He sold 'A Protestant Petition' in King Charles's Reign, for which they fined him five pounds, and set him once in the Pillory: but his Wife, (like a kind Rib) stood by him, to defend her Husband against the mob.—After this (having a deal of mercury in his natural temper) he travelled to New-England, where he followed Bookselling, and then Coffeeselling, and then Printing, but continued Ben Harris still; and is now both Bookseller and Printer in Gracechurch-street, as we find by his 'London Post'; so that his conversation is general (but never impertinent), and his wit pliable to all inventions. But yet his vanity, (if he has any) gives no alloy to his wit, and is no more than might justly spring from conscious virtue; and I do him but justice in this part of his character, for, in once travelling with him from Bury fair, I found him to be the most ingenious and innocent companion that I had ever met with."

Again, Dunton, when in Boston, hearing of Harris' intention of "coming over hither" wrote:⁹

"To speak the Truth, Mr. Benj. Harris has had many good Thoughts, tho' he has wanted the Art of improving 'em; and could he fix his Mercury a little, and not be so volatile, he wou'd do well enough."

In Boston, in 1690, Harris was established "at the London Coffee House, near the Town House," where he sold Cotton Mather's Wonderful Works of God Commemorated. His connection with the Publick Occurrences did not permanently place him under official disapproval for two years later he had the following commission:

"By his excellency—I order Benjamin Harris to print the Acts and Laws made by the Great and General Court, or Assembly of their Majesties Province of Massachusetts-Bay in New-England, that we the People may be informed thereof.

"Boston, December 16, 1692.

WILLIAM PHIPPS."

In 1694 he was at "The Sign of the Bible Over-against the Blew-Anchor" tavern. Soon after he returned to London and resumed business there. As publisher of the London Post he incurred the disfavor of many, including his former friend Dunton, who now wrote of him;¹⁰

"I should have been much concerned if Ben Harris had given me a good word, for his commendation is the greatest reproach that an honest man can meet with. He is so far from having any dealings with Truth and Honesty, that his solemn word, which he calls as good as his bond, is a studied falsehood, and he scandalizes Truth and Honesty in pretending to write for it. His 'London Post,' or weighing of Truth and Honesty, resembles the Bird of Athens; for it seems to be made up of face and feathers; for setting aside his Billingsgate language and hunting up and down the world for any occasion of venting his fulsome slander, there is very little of wit or honesty in him, but what he hath stolen from 'The Wandering Spy,' or his own hypocritical heart. . . . And had he called me 'honest man,' I should have thought it a great slander; but, seeing he has the boldness to acknowledge he called me Knave, were I to assign his punishment, that Harris might see how much I forgave him, he should only be lashed every Monday and Friday, the two days he published the 'London Post' at his own door, by the common hangman; and every Monday and Thursday own himself a knave and coward, &c.

in the 'London Gazette,' till such time he had asked pardon of Dr. Partridge, John Dunton and the other persons he wronged in the 'London Post.' Or should he escape doing penance in the printed sheets, yet we shall find him a second time in the pillory, with his Wife, like a kind rib, standing by, to defend him against the mob."

Richard Pierce who printed the Publick Occurrences was, according to Thomas, the fifth printer in Boston.¹¹ Little is known of him, except that he was probably a printer of London and came to New England after 1679. As late as 1695 he was in business in Boston. He married, August 27, 1680, Sarah Cotton, daughter of the Reverend Seaborn Cotton.¹²

PUBLICK
OCCURRENCESBoth FORREIGN and DOMESTICK.Boston, Thursday, Sept. 25th. 1690.

IT is designed, that the Countrey shall be furnished once a moneth (or if any Glut of Occurrences happen, oftener,) with an Account of such considerable things as have arrived unto our Notice.

In order hereunto, the Publisher will take what pains he can to obtain a Faithful Relation of all such things; and will particularly make himself beholden to such Persons in Boston whom he knows to have been for their own use the diligent Observers of such matters.

That which is herein proposed, is, First, That Memorable Occurrences of Divine Providence may not be neglected or forgotten, as they too often are. Secondly, That people every where may better understand the Circumstances of Publique Affairs, both abroad and at home; which may not only direct their Thoughts at all times, but at some times also to assist their Businesses and Negotiations.

Thirdly, That something may be done towards the Curing, or at least the Charming of that Spirit of Lying, which prevails amongst us, wherefore nothing shall be entered, but what we have reason to believe is true, repairing to the best fountains for our Information. And when there appears any material mistake in any thing that is collected, it shall be corrected in the next.

Moreover, the Publisher of these Occurrences is willing to engage, that whereas, there are many False Reports, maliciously made, and spread among us, if any well-minded person will be at the pains to trace any such false Report, so far as to find out and Convict the First Raiser of it, he will in this Paper (unless just Advice be given to the contrary) expose the Name of such person, as A malicious Raiser of a false Report. It is suppos'd that none will dislike this Proposal, but such as intend to be guilty of so villanous a Crime.

The Christianized Indians in some parts of Plimouth, have newly appointed a day of Thanksgiving to God for his Mercy in supplying their extream and pinching Necessities under their late want of Corn, & for His giving them now a prospect of a very Comfortable Harvest. Their Example may be worth Mentioning.

Tis observed by the Husbandmen, that altho' the With-draw of so great a strength from them, as what is in the Forces lately gone for Canada, made them think it almost impossible for them to get well through the Affairs of their Husbandry at this time of the year, yet the Season has been so unusually favourable that they scarce find any want of the many hundreds of hands, that are gone from them; which is looked upon as a Merciful Providence.

While the barbarous Indians were lurking about Chelmsford, there were missing about the beginning of this month a couple of Children belonging to a man of that Town, one of them aged about eleven, the other aged about nine years, both of them supposed to be fallen into the hands of the Indians.

A very Tragical Accident happened at Water-Town, the beginning of this Month, an Old man, that was of somewhat a Silent and Morose Temper, but one that had long Enjoyed the reputation of a Sober and a Pious Man, having newly buried his Wife, The Devil took advantage of the Melancholy which he thereupon fell into, his Wives discretion and industry had long been the support of his Family, and he seemed hurried with an impertinent fear that he should now come to want before he dyed, though he had very careful friends to look after him who kept a strict eye upon him, least he should do himself any harm. But one evening escaping from them into the Cowhouse, they there quickly followed him found him hanging by a Rope, which they had used to tye their Calves withal, he was dead with his feet near touching the Ground.

Epidemical Fevers and Agues grow very common, in some parts of the Country, whereof, tho' many dye not, yet they are sorely unfitted for their employments; but in some parts a more malignant Fever seems to prevail in such sort that it usually goes thro' a Family where it comes, and proves Mortal unto many.

The Small-pox which has been raging in Boston, after a manner very Extraordinary, is now very much abated. It is thought that far more have been sick of it then were visited with it, when it raged so much twelve years ago, nevertheless it has not been so Mortal, The number of them that have dyed in Boston by this last Visitation is about three hundred and twenty, which is not perhaps half so many as fell by the former. The Time of its being most General, was in the Months June, July, and August, then 'twas that sometimes in some one Congregation on a Lords-day there would be Bills desiring prayers for above an hundred Sick. It seized upon all sorts of people that came in the way of it, it infected even Children in the bellies of Mothers that had themselves undergone the Disease many years ago; for some such were now born full of the Distemper. 'Tis not easy to relate the Trouble and Sorrow that poor Boston has felt by this Epidemical Contagion. But we hope it will be pretty nigh Extinguished, by that time twelve month when it first began to Spread. It now unhappily spreads in several other places, among which our Garrisons in the East are to be reckoned some of the greatest Sufferers.

PUBLICK OCCURRENCES

Altho' Boston did a few weeks ago, meet with a Disaster by Fire, which consumed about twenty Houses near the Mill-Creek, yet about midnight, between the sixteenth and seventeenth of this Instant, another Fire broke forth near the South-Meeting-House, which consumed about five or six houses, and had almost carried the Meeting-house it self, one of the fairest Edifices in the Country, if God had not remarkably assisted the Endeavours of the People to put out the Fire. There were two more considerable Circumstances in the Calamities of this Fire, one was that a young man belonging to the House where the Fire began, unhappily perished in the Flames; it seems that tho' he might sooner awake than some others who did escape, yet he some way lost those Wits that should have taught him to help himself. Another was that the best furnished PRINTING-PRESS, of those few that we know of in America, was lost; a loss not presently to be repaired.

There lately arrived at Piscataqua, one Papoon from Penobscot, in a small Shallop, wherein he had used to attend upon the pleasure of Casteen, but took his opportunity to run away, and reports: That a Vessel of small Bulk bound from Bristol to Virginia, having been so long at Sea, till they were prest with want, put in at Penobscot instead of Piscataqua, where the Indians and French seized her, and Butchered the Master, and several of the men: but that himself who belonged unto the Ships Crew, being a Jersey-man, was more favourably used, & found at length an advantage to make his Escape.

The chief discourse of this month has been about the affairs of the Western Expedition against Canada. The Albanians, New-Yorkers and the five Nations of Indians, in the West, had long been pressing of the Massachusetts to make an Expedition by Sea, into Canada, and still made us believe, that they stayed for us, and that while we assaulted Quebeck, they would pass the Lake, and by Land make a Descent upon Mount Real. Accordingly this Colony with some assistance from our kind Neighbours of Plimouth; fitted an Army of near five and twenty hundred men, and a Navy of two and thirty Sail; which went from hence the beginning of the last August, under the Command of the Honourable Sir William Phips.

In the mean time the English Colonies & Provinces in the West raised Forces, the Numbers whereof have been reported five or six hundred. The Honourable General Winthrop was in the Head of these, and advanced within a few miles of the Lake; He there had some good number of Maqua's to joyn his Forces, but contrary to his Expectation, it was found that the Canoo's to have been ready for the Transportation of the Army over the Lake, were not prepared, and the other Nations of Indians, that should have come to this Campaign, sent their Excuses, pretending that the Small-pox was among them, and some other Trifles. The General Meeting with such vexing disappointments, called a Council of War, wherein 'twas agreed, That it was impossible for them to Prosecute their Intended Expedition. However he dispatched away the Maqua's to the French Territories, who returned with some Success, having slain several of the French, and brought home several Prisoners, whom they used in a manner too barbarous for any English to approve. The General coming back to Albany, there happened a misunderstanding, between him and the Lieutenant Governour of New-york which occasioned much discourse, but produced not those effects which were feared of it. Where lay the bottom of these miscarriages is variously conjectured, if any people further West than Albany, have been Tampering with the Indians, to desert the business of Canada, we hope time will discover it. And if Almighty God will have Canada to be subdu'd without the assistance of those miserable Salvages, in whom we have too much confided, we shall be glad, that there will be no Sacrifice offered up to the Devil, upon this occasion; God alone will have all the Glory.

'Tis possible, we have not so exactly related the Circumstances of this business, but this Account, is as near exactness, as any that could be had, in the midst of many various reports about it.

Another late matter of discourse, has been an unaccountable destruction befalling a body of Indians, that were our Enemies. This body of French Indians had a Fort somewhere far up the River, and a party of Maqua's returning from the East Country, where they have at a great rate pursued and terrified those Indians which have been invading of our North-East Plantations, and Killed their General Hope Hood among the rest; resolved to visit this Fort; but they found the Fort ruined, the Canoo's cut to pieces, and the people all either Butchered or Captived. This gave them no little surprise, and they gave the English this account of it. That a body of Maqua's lately returning from the Spoil of Canada brought several French Prisoners with them; That calling at this Fort in their way, the Indians there seeing themselves unable to resist them did pass divers Complements with them and partake of their Booties, That a French Captive after this, escaping from the Maqua's informed the French that these Indians had revolted unto the Maqua's, and hereupon the French or their Indians made a sudden Sally forth upon them, and utterly destroyed them, tho' they were in reality of their own party still.

Two English Captives escaped from the hands of Indians and French at Pascadamoquady, came into Portsmouth on the sixteenth Instant & say, That when Capt. Mason was at Fort Real, he cut the faces, and ript the bellies of two Indians, and threw a third Over board in the sight of the French, who informing the other Indians of it, they have in revenge barbarously Butcher'd forty Captives of our that were in their hands.

These two Captives escaped in a Shallop, which our Enemies intended to have set out with all the Circumstances of a Fishing Shallop but to have indeed fill'd it with Indians that should have Clap'd on board any English Vessel that came in their way; They say that about three or four weeks ago, some Indians were coming this way to War, but crossing a path which they supposed to be of the Maqua's, they followed it until they discovered a place where some Canoo's were making, whereupon twenty Kennebeck Indian-Warriors went to look further after the business, who never yet returned. Which gives hope that they may come short home, but upon this the Squaws are sent to Penobscot, and the men stand on their Defence.

Portsmouth Sept. 20th. Two days since arrived here a small Vessel from Barbadoes, in which is a Letter to Captain H. K. of 19th August that speaks thus, Christophers is wholly taken from the French as also a small Island called Stacia; we are very strong in Shipping, and our Ships of War are now gone for Tobago, a very good place to shelter from any Storms, after the suspicious months are over, they will Attack the rest of the French places. We have News here that K. William is safe arrived in Ireland, and is marched with one hundred and forty thousand Foot and Horse. Himself leads the Body, Duke Scomburgh the right Wing, and the Earl of Oxford the left Wing, Duke Hamilton of Scotland leads the forlorn Hope with ten thousand men under him. Great victory they dayly have, and much people dayly come in to him, with submission: He has 200 Shipping with him of one sort or other, above one hundred Sail dayly run between Ireland and England, with meat for Man and Beast; His Majesty being unwilling to trust false Ireland for it. France is in much trouble (and fear) not only with us but also with his Son, who has revolted against him lately, and has great reason if reports be true, that the Father used to lie with the Sons Wife. He has got all the Hugonots, and all the dissatisfied Papists, with the great force of the D. of Lorraign, and are now against him, resolving to to depose him of his life and Kingdom.

It's Reported the City of Cork in Ireland, has proclaimed K. William, and turned their French Landlords out of Doors; of this there wants further confirmation.

From Plimouth Sept. 22. We have an Account that on Friday the 12th Instant, in the night, our Forces Landing privately, forthwith surrounded Pegypscot Fort; but finding no Indians there, they March'd to Amonoscoggin. There on the Lords-day, they kill'd and took 15 or 16 of the Enemy, and recovered five English Captives, NUMBER 1.

PUBLICK OCCURRENCES

Both FOREIGN and DOMESTICK.

Boston, Thursday Sept. 25th. 1690.

It is desired, that the Country shall be furnished once a month (or if any Glass of Occurrences happen, oftener,) with an Account of such considerable things as have arrived unto our Notice.

In order herunto, the Publisher will take what pains he can to obtain a Faithful Relation of all such things; and will particularly make himself beholden to such Persons in Boston whom he knows it have been for their own use the diligent Observers of such matters.

That which is herein proposed, is, First, That Memorable Occurrences of Divine Providence may not be neglected or forgotten, as they do often are. Secondly, That people every where may better understand the Circumstances of Publick Affairs, both abroad and at home; which may not only direct their Thoughts at all times, but at from them, as what is in the Forces lately gone for Canada; made them think it almost impossible for them to get well through the Affairs of their Husbandry at this time of the year, yet the season has been so mutually favourable that they scarce find any want of the many hundreds of hands, that are gone from them; which is looked upon as a Merciful Providence.

While the barbarous Indians were lurking about Chelmsford, there were milling about the beginning of this month a couple of Castles belonging to a man of that Town, one of them aged about eleven, the other 22 and about nine years, both of them supposed to be fallen into the hands of the Indians. A very Tragical Accident happened at West-Loon, the beginning of this Month, an enjoyed the reputation of a Sinner, and a Wicked Man, having newly buried his Wife, The Devil took advantage of the Melancholy which he thereupon fell into, his Wives Education and industry had long been the support of his family, and he seemed hurried with an impertinent fear that he should now come to want before he dyed, though he had very careful friends to look after him who kept a strict eye upon him, lest he should do himself any harm. But one evening creeping from them into the Cow-house, they there quickly followed him found him hanging by a Rope, which they had used to tie their Cows withal, he was dead with his feet near reaching the Ground.

Epidemical Fevers and Agues grow very common, in some parts of the Country, wherein, tho' many dye not, yet they are sorely distressed for their Impletments; but in some parts a more malignant Fever seems to prevail in such sort that it usually goes thro' a Family where it comes, and proves Mortal unto many.

The Small-pox which has been raging in Boston, after a manner very extraordinary is now very much abated. It is thought that far more have been sick of it then were dyed with it, when it raged so much twelve years ago, nevertheless it has not been so Mortal, The number of them that have Thirdly, That some thing may be done towards the Calings, or at least the Charming of that Spirit of Lying, which prevails amongst us, where nothing shall be uttered, but what we have reason to believe is true, repairing to the best sources for our Information. And when there appears any material mistake in any thing that is published, it shall be corrected in the next.

Moreover, the Publisher of these Occurrences is willing to engage, that wherever, there are malicious False Reports, maliciously made, and spread among us, if any well-minded person will be at the pains to trace any such false Report so far as to find out and Catch the First Railler of it, he will in this Paper (unless just Advice be given to the contrary) expose the Name of such person, as a malicious Railler of a false Report. It is supposed that none will dislike this Proposal, but such as intend to be guilty of so villainous a Crime.

THE Christianized Indians in some parts of Plimouth, have newly appointed a day of Thanksgiving to God for his Mercy in supplying their extreme and pressing Necessities under their late want of Corn, &c for His giving them now a prospect of a very Comfortable Harvest. Their example may be worth Mending.

It is observed by the Husbandmen, that also the Witch draw of so great a strength mostly belonging to Oyster-River; who advised, that the men had been gone about ten days down to a River, to meet with the French, and the French Indians; where they expected to make up a Body of 300 men, and design first against Wells or Piscataqua.

On Tuesday, the Army came to our Vessels at Macquoit, but one of the Vessels touching a Ground stopt a Tide; by which means, young Bracket, who was a considerable distance up the River, above Amonos-coggin Fort, being advised by an Indian that ran away from Amonos-coggin, that an English Army was there attempted his Escape, and came down to the Sloop, just as they came on their Sail.

On Thursday, they landed at Saco; a Scout of 60 men of ours discover a party of the Enemy, and had the Advantage of killing three of them, and of taking nine Canoes, and an English captive named, Thomas Baker, who informed, that the Enemy had left a considerable Plunder at Pegypscut-Plains, which he supposed the Enemy was gone to secure. Whereupon the Army immediately embark'd, and arriving there that night, the next morning found the Bever-Plunder accordingly.

While our Vessels where at Anchor in Cascoe-Bay, our Auxiliary Indians lodging on shore, and being too careless in their Watch, the Enemy made an Attaque upon them. The English forth with repair'd to their Relief; but were sorely galled, by an Embuscado of Indians, The Enemy soon quitted the Field, escaping with their Canoo's, whereof ours took several. In the Surprise, we lost 9 men, and had about 20 wounded; the blow chiefly fell on our dear Friends, the Plimouth Forces, 15 being kill'd and wounded of Captain Southworth's Company.

The Campbell News Letters

DURING the year of 1703 John Campbell, who was then postmaster of Boston and subsequently established The Boston News-Letter, sent to the governors of the several New England colonies manuscript letters in which he gave the latest news received by him from abroad, local items of Boston, and reports received from other American colonies. Twelve of these letters are now preserved in the library of the Massachusetts Historical Society. Nine were printed in the Proceedings of the Massachusetts Historical Society, in March 1867, volume 9, pages 485-501. Nine other manuscript news-letters of this period, and of earlier dates, were printed in the Proceedings of the Massachusetts Historical Society for February 1873, volume 12, pages 419-427. The earliest of these is "An Extract of a Letter: from Cambridge, Dat: Ap^l 4th 66." And to this is added, "An other Extract of a Letter Ap^l 11th 66 from Boston." Others bear dates as follows: Philadelphia, June 5, 1699; Boston June 19, 1699; New York, April 29, 1700; Boston, May 6, 1700; Boston, May 28, 1700; Boston, June 14, 1703, and Boston, October 4, 1703. Most of these are addressed to Governor John Winthrop of Connecticut. That dated Boston, May 28, 1700 is signed by Duncan Campbell, and that of October 4, 1703 is endorsed as "Mr. John Campbells Newes." The writers of others of these letters are not now known.

John Campbell was of Scotch ancestry. He was in Boston in 1695 and died March 4, 1728. He was president of the Scots Charitable Society, 1727-28. In The Boston News-Letter of March 7, 1728, was this paragraph: "On Monday evening last, the 4th Current, about 8 a Clock died here John Campbell, Esq., Aged 75 years, formerly Post Master in this Place, Publisher of the Boston News-Letters for many years, and One of his Majesties Justices of the Peace for the Country of Suffolk."

Duncan Campbell was John Campbell's brother, and a bookseller. Of him John Dunton writes:

"I rambled to the Scotch Bookseller, one Campbel: He is a brisk young Fellow, that dresses All-a-mode, and sets himself off to the best Advantage; and yet thrives apace. I am told (and for his sake I wish it may be true) that a Young Lady of Great Fortune has married him. He's an Industrious Man and saw me often."¹

He married Susanna Porter, daughter of William and Grace (Pitts) Porter. In his later years he gave up bookselling and became a merchant. When he died in 1703 he left an estate of about £900. He was one of the earliest postmasters of Boston and seems to have held that office in 1693, for in that year he petitioned the General Court for a salary. His brother, John Campbell, succeeded him. Interesting reference to him is in Goodell's Notes to the Acts and Resolves . . . of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, volume 7, pages 429, 434 and 500.

Our reprint of these letters is of the American items, or those bearing upon American, or Colonial affairs.

The Boston News-Letter

1704-1707

IN less than a year after Postmaster John Campbell had begun sending his manuscript news letters to the colonial governors he concluded that this news could be brought out regularly in printed form to the advantage of the public and profitably to himself. Accordingly he began the publication of The Boston News-Letter, the first issue of which was for the week ending April 24, 1704. This was the first newspaper in the English-speaking American colonies destined to be successful in maintaining a lasting existence. Technically the News-Letter was the second American newspaper, for undoubtedly the ill-fated Publick Occurrences was intended by Benjamin Harris to be regular and permanent and would have been so continued had it not been suppressed. But Campbell holding government position and, therefore, having the countenance of those in authority, was more fortunate than his predecessor, and his publication, by virtue of its continuity, holds place historically at the head of the long line of American periodicals.

The initial number of the News-Letter was not a promising performance. Its two small pages, half-sheet folio, were nearly filled with foreign news, the domestic items being almost a negligible quantity. As respects this disproportion, an example was set which was followed for many years. In succeeding numbers the foreign news generally consisted of excerpts from London newspapers and was always several months after date—sometimes nearly a year,—being brought by vessels which as often came round about by the way of Bermuda, Virginia or New York, as direct to the port of Boston. Aside from this lack of freshness, the collation of foreign news was as fairly complete and accurate a presentation of what was happening in Europe as could be reasonably expected, although of course, conforming to the spirit of the age, attention was mainly given to the publication of royal proclamations and addresses, and other state papers, of parliamentary proceedings, governmental affairs and military movements. Particularly, at the outset, the events of the war for the Spanish succession, 1703-1713, were recorded regularly and in detail to the extent of timely minuteness and often inaccuracy.

It was not unusual for the domestic news to be limited to two or three short items, and only on rare occasions did it fill more than a column or a column and a half of the four, eight, or—now and then—twelve, columns of an issue. For the most part during the period covered by the first volume of this Digest it consisted of ship news, the governor's proclamations, reports of the elections of representatives to the General Court, accounts of engagements with the Indians or with the French privateers, news from the West Indies, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and New York, and occasionally from far-away Philadelphia, or farther away South Carolina. Sometimes remarkable incidents in neighboring towns were noted, generally with an editorial apology for their printing. Skippers sailing between Boston and the West Indies or ports of the other colonies now and then brought back marvellous stories of adventure which were published without apology. Some affairs, which even in perspective loom large and important were reported in a manner that makes them valuable historical documents. Such, for example, were the reduction of St. Augustine in 1705; the French capture of the West Indies in 1706; the attack upon Charleston by the French squadron in 1706; the capture of Port Royal and Acadia in 1710; the unsuccessful expedition against Quebec in 1711 and other events in and about the colonies incidental to the war of the Spanish succession.

Campbell's venture was not a financial success; throughout all its early years it led a precarious existence. Subscribers were few, and advertisers—the main stay of the modern newspaper—were conspicuously absent. Notwithstanding the pre-supposed popular desire for the news of the day the publisher seems to have been, to a very considerable extent, compelled to create his reading public. Interest in English and European affairs, except as pertaining to the colonies, was surely waning, there were few stirring home events to excite curiosity, and what little domestic news there might be was the hear-say of the community long before it could appear in print.

Almost immediately after beginning publication the necessity for more generous support was forced upon the publisher, and his appeals for subscribers, as set forth in the columns of his paper, were frequent and urgent. In November, 1705, he presented a petition to the General Court then in session asking an allowance "for the year past, in the discharge of both Posts, the Postoffice, and Letter of Intelligence, * * and for the future." That part of the petition referring to the News-Letter was:

"your Petitioner also having Last year sett on foott a weekly Letter of Intelligence for both foreign and Domestick occurrences, expecting that the Incomes thereby being sett at a Moderate Rate, would be sufficient to defray the Necessary Charge thereof; The which it did not do, And this year several Gentlemen, Merchants and others being willing it should not drop, but be continued, have Agreed to contribute towards It's support for another year: yet Notwithstanding there are not a Competent number that offers to carry it on, And It being found beneficial & of Publick use and service to the Countrey to prevent a great many false Reports."¹

To print the News-Letter Campbell engaged Bartholomew Green, then the foremost printer in the country.² Isaiah Thomas wrote of him and the News-Letter;

"Bartholomew Green began the printing of The Boston News-Letter, in Newbury street, in a small wooden building, to which another room was annexed some years after, for the accomodation of his son. This building was burnt down in 1734; it was previously occupied as a printing house both by young Green and John Draper, who did business independently of each other. Another house of like dimensions was built on the same spot by John Draper, the successor of the elder B. Green. This building was occupied as a printing house, until the British troops evacuated Boston, in 1776. At that place began and ended the printing of The Boston News-Letter."³

Concerning the location of Bartholomew Green's printing office Samuel Abbott Green has written:

"It was printed by Bartholomew Green, and 'Sold by Nicholas, Boone, at his Shop near the Old Meeting-House' which structure then stood on the lot now bounded on three sides by Cornhill Court and Court Avenue, and fronting on Washington Street. At the present time the Rogers Building occupies the whole of this square, perhaps 70 feet by 80 in dimensions. The site of Boone's shop was on the second lot south of Court Avenue, the corner lot between it and the meeting-house being occupied by Major Davis, apothecary; and next to Boone's shop on the south was John Campbell, where without doubt he kept the post-office."⁴

Green printed the News-Letter for three and a half years. Then he was succeeded by John Allen whose name first appears on the issue for November 10, 1707.⁵ Green's name reappeared on the issue of October 8, 1711, one week after the burning of Allen's office. He continued to print for Campbell until December 31, 1722, when he became publisher as well as printer.

2 Bartholomew Green was born in Cambridge, October 12, 1666. He was the son of Samuel Green, for more than forty years the celebrated head of the Cambridge Press, succeeding Stephen Daye, the pioneer printer in the colonies; who came to New England in 1630, and died January 1, 1702. The son learned his trade in the office of his father and after the death of the latter he succeeded to the position of printer to the college. For thirty years he was printer to the governor and council and his imprint is on many of the best American books of his time. He died December 28, 1732, and a notice of his death was printed in the News-Letter of January 4, 1773.

3 History of Printing, Vol. I, p. 90.

4 Ten Fac-Simile Reproductions Relating to Various Subjects, p. 15.

5 John Allen was an English printer who came to Boston in 1685, on the same vessel with John Dunton, who in his Letters Written from New-England, thus refers to him; "Mr Allen, the Printer was going to his Uncle, who had invited him over and from whom he expected Preferment." Again, after arriving in Boston, Dunton wrote of his companion on the voyage; "I Rambled with John Allen to Dine with his Reverend Uncle of that name." The uncle was the Reverend James Allen, pastor of the First Church of Boston, 1668-1710. John Allen was associated with Bartholomew Green and also with Benjamin Harris and when he undertook the printing of The Boston News-Letter in 1707, he had an office in Pudding Lane, the modern Devonshire Street. His shop there was burned in the great fire of October 2, 1711.

THE BOSTON NEWS-LETTER

Starting with a single half-sheet folio, printed on both sides, two columns to the page, the News-Letter continued without material change in form during the greater part of its career. Almost from the outset, however, there were occasional expansions to two, four, six, eight or even ten pages; a supplement was sometimes added but generally the single sheet of two pages prevailed. The size of the paper page was about 8 by $12\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Different copies now preserved show slight variances from those measurements, some of them running as low as $7\frac{1}{2}$ by $12\frac{1}{8}$ inches; probably these differences are due to the trimming or wearing away of the edges of the sheets, or they may have resulted from a shrinkage of the paper. The paper page of the first six numbers (in the file in the library of the New York Historical Society) is 7 by $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The page of the seventh number is $7\frac{3}{4}$ by $11\frac{1}{2}$, and after that the page sizes are as has been noted. It would appear that the first six numbers were printed on a sheet smaller than that subsequently and permanently adopted. The type pages (in the same file) also show slight variations in the early issues, ranging from $6\frac{1}{4}$ by $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches or $6\frac{3}{8}$ by $10\frac{7}{8}$ inches to $6\frac{3}{4}$ by $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches or $6\frac{5}{8}$ by $11\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Column widths varied from 3 to $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

The imprint was changed several times before its fixed form was finally determined. In the first and second editions of the first number there were different forms, and that in the second edition was retained in the second, third and fourth numbers, except that the word Boston, in old English, was followed by a colon instead of a comma. With the fifth number this imprint was adopted: "Boston: Printed by B. Green. Sold at the Post-Office. 1704;" and that form was retained until John Allen succeeded Bartholomew Green as printer, November 10, 1707. Allen varied the typography of the imprint several times, and when Green again became the printer, October 8, 1711, there was another change.

For the title, a roman face letter old style Caslon type was used.⁶ In the early years the initials "N. E." in old English type were placed above the title, but later on this was sometimes expanded to "New-England" and printed now in roman and again in italic. For the word "Number," old English type was first used and afterward roman or italic. There were also changes in the type faces used in the date line. The line "Published by Authority" was printed in old English in the early issues but subsequently it was put in roman or italic. The use of rules above and below this line was varied from time to time, especially in the period of John Allen's printing. The "Published by Authority" constituted part of the heading from ⁶ Buckingham, in his Specimens of Newspaper Literature, says that the heading was set in French Canon type. Canon was the old name for the type size that in present day nomenclature is known as 42 point.

London Flying-Post from Decemb. 24. to 4th. 1703.

Letters from Scotland bring us the Copy of a Sheet lately Printed there, Intituled, A Reasonable Alarm for Scotland. In a Letter from a Gentleman in the City, to his Friend in the Country, concerning the present Danger of the Kingdom and of the Protestant Religion.

This Letter takes Notice, That Papists swarm in that Nation, that they traffick more awowedly than formerly, & that of late many Scores of Priests and Jesuites are come thither from France, and gone to the North, to the Highlands & other places of the Country. That the Ministers of the Highlands and North gave in large Lists of them to the Committee of the General Assembly, to be laid before the Privy-Council.

It likewise observes, that a great Number of other ill-affected persons are come over from France, under pretence of accompanying her Majesty's Gracious Indemnity; but, in reality, to incite Divisions in the Nation, and to entertain a Correspondence with France: That their ill Intentions are evident from their talking big, their owning the Interest of the pretended King James VIII. their secret Cabals, and their buying and selling Arms and Ammunition.

From all this he infers, That they have hopes of Assistance from France, otherwise they would never be so impudent; and he gives Reasons for his Apprehensions that the French King may find Troops thither this Winter, 1. Because the English & Dutch will not then be at Sea, to oppose them. 2. He can then best spare them, the Season of Action beyond Sea being over. 3. The Expectation given him of a considerable number to join them, may encourage him to the undertaking with fewer Men if he can but send over a sufficient number of Officers with Arms and Ammunition.

He endeavours in the rest of his Letters, to answer the foolish Pretences of the Pretender's being a Protestant, and that he will govern us according to Law. He says, that being bred up in the Religion and Politicks of France, he is by Education a stated Enemy to our Liberty and Religion. That the Obligations which he and his Family owe to the French King, must necessarily make him to be wholly at his Devotion, and to follow his Example; that if he sit upon the Throne, the three Nations must be obliged to pay the Debt which he owes the French King for the Education of himself, and for Entertaining his supposed Father and his Family. And since the King must restore him by his Troops, wherever they can find them.

To this he adds the late Writings and Actions of some disaffected persons, many of whom are for the Pretender; that several of them have declar'd they had rather embrace Popery than conform to the present Government; that they refuse to pray for the Queen, but use the ambiguous word Sovereign, and some of them pray in express Words for the King and Royal Family; and the charitable and generous Prince who has shew'd them so much kindness. He likewise takes notice of Letters not long ago found in Cypher, and directed to a Person lately come thither from St. Germain.

He says that the greatest Jacobites, who will not question themselves by taking the Oaths to Her Majesty, do now with the Papists and their Compagnions from St. Germain set up for the Liberty of the Subject, contrary to their own Principles, but merely to keep up a Division in the Nation. He adds, that they aggravate those things which the People complain of, as to England's refusing to allow them a Freedom of Trade, &c. and do all they can to foment Divisions betwixt the Nations, and to obstruct Affairs of those things complain'd of.

The Jacobites, he says, do all they can to persuade the Nation that their pretended King is a Pretendant in his Heart, tho' he dares not declare it while under the Power of France; that he is acquainted with the Mistakes of his Father's Government, will govern us more according to Law, and endear himself to his Subjects.

They imagine the Strength of their own Party, and the Weakness and Division of the other, in order to facilitate and hasten their Undertaking; they argue themselves out of their Pains, and into the highest Assurance of accomplishing their purpose.

It ever he be restored, he will see to secure his own Debt before those Troops leave Britain. The Pretender being a good Protestant in the French and Romish Schools, he will never think himself sufficiently aveng'd, but by the utter Ruine of his Protestant Subjects, both as Hereticks and Traitors. The late Queen, his pretended Mother, who by cold Blood when she was Queen of Britain, advis'd to turn the West of Scotland into a hunting Field will be then for doing so by the greatest part of the Nation; and, no doubt, is at Pains to have her pretended Son educated to her own Mind: Therefore, he says, it were a great Madness in the Nation to take a Prince bred up in the horrid School of Ingratitude, Persecution and Cruelty, and filled with Rage and Envy. The Jacobites, he says, both in Scotland and at St. Germain, are impatient under their present Straits, and knowing their Circumstances cannot be much worse than they are, at present, are the more inclinable to the Innovation. He adds, That the French King knows there cannot be a more effectual way for himself to arrive at the Universal Monarchy, and to acquire the Protestant Interest, than by setting up the Pretender upon the Throne of Great Britain, he will in all Probability attempt it; and tho' he should be persuaded that the Design would miscarry in the close, yet he cannot but reap some Advantage by imbroiling the three Nations.

From all this the Author concludes it to be the Interest of the Nation to provide for the Security and says, that as many have already sent Arms, Ammunition, and are furnishing themselves with Arms and Ammunition, he supposes the Government will not only allow it, but encourage it, as being necessary to oppose all to appear against them in the Service the issue of April 24, 1704 to that of September 2, 1725, excepting July 18, 1720—December 31, 1722. Double dating of the years for the months of January, February and March was used—though not always in strict conformity to the system—until the issue of January 7, 1717 when the new style was adopted. In this compilation new style dating has been followed but in transcribing the newspaper headings and text, actual date lines have been copied as they stand originally printed.

Typographically, the News-Letter was, for the most part, an admirable production. The paper was of good quality and after two hundred years shows few signs of disintegration, save as it has been torn or otherwise damaged. Type with a sharply-cut and well defined face was used and the press work was altogether creditable, the impressions being clean and strong. Even the ink has stood the test of two centuries. This recognition of the excellence of the printer's work refers particularly to the News-Letter as it was produced by Bartholomew Green. During the time that it was printed by John Allen there was a marked deterioration in its typographic appearance. Most of the Allen issues were inferior specimens indeed, especially in comparison with those of Green. It is evident that Green had a better equipped office, and certainly he was the better printer.

Editorially, during its first period, the News-Letter was a poor performance. It was crudely, indeed often ignorantly, written, with a frank disregard of grammar, and clearness of expression, and a Timothy Dexter scorn of right punctuation. The spelling was mostly correct, but whether that was a virtue of the editor or the proof reader may not now be known. In punctuation, in capitalization, in italicization, and so on, there was no uniformity of usage, and for these faults the responsibility may perhaps be divided between the editor and the printer.

On the following pages of this volume these editorial and typographic peculiarities have been carefully preserved. The editors of this Digest have aimed to reproduce the contents of these old newspapers with textual fidelity to the originals, even in the most obvious errors of the printer, such for example as the ending of a sentence without a period, the beginning of a sentence with a lower case letter instead of a capital, the appearance of an italic capital to a word in roman type, and others of like character. As anyone can see at a glance such faults as these are absurd blunders, an oversight in the proof reading or a mixing of the types. Nothing necessary to a clear understanding of the text could be gained by their correction while by their retention at least the spirit and color of the originals are fully preserved. Here and there, in marked instances only, suggestive readings or corrections have been interpolated in brackets. Otherwise the text has been left without change or comment—except in foot notes—exactly as it appeared to its first readers two hundred years ago.

In the library of the New York Historical Society is a volume of the News-Letter which contains copies of issues for 1705, 1706, 1707 and 1708 that are not known to be elsewhere preserved. Originally the volume was bound in calf which has become dark brown with age; the back and the corners were later rebound in calf of a lighter color. On the backbone is the title BOSTON NEWS-LETTER and the dates, 1704-1708. On a front blank page is this inscription: "To the New York Historical Society from George Bruce. Printer New York. 1805"—and on the inside front cover there is this note in lead pencil, "This volume contains No. 1 April 17 1704 to No 209 April 19 1708 Nos wanting 27, 138, 139, 140, 141 W. K." Family tradition says that a sea captain sailing between Boston and New York, either gave or sold this book to Mr Bruce, but no certain evidence of that has been produced. The volume has been briefly described in a paper read by Dr. Samuel Abbott Green before the Massachusetts Historical Society, November 13, 1890, and reprinted in a pamphlet.⁸

A special interest attaches to this volume. There seems to be no doubt that it was the property of our New England Pepys, Chief Justice Samuel Sewall. In the front are bound four pages of a manuscript entitled "Memorandums" and this, it is generally believed by those who have examined it, is in the handwriting of Mr Sewall. The memorandum is merely an index to some of the articles in the various issues of the file and further on upon the margins of those issues, the same articles are often annotated in the same handwriting with the letters "N." or "M. E." added. Throughout the volume are scattered other marginal notes also in the same handwriting. These are mostly signed S.S. and some of them refer to matters mentioned in Judge Sewall's Diary. On several of the numbers—notably September 29, October 6, October 20, November 24, December 15, and December 22, 1707, and January 12, January 19, March 1, March 8, and March 15, 1707-8—the autograph Sir Sewall appears on the bottom margin of the first page.

The Sewall annotations in this file are as follows:

June 19, 1704,—top of second column, first page; "Major Sewall."

January 8, 1705.—added to entry of death of Madame Sarah Leverett; "Interd Jan^r 8."

[THE first number of the first continuously published newspaper of the English colonies in America covered the week from Monday, April 17, to Monday, April 24, 1704. It was printed on both sides of a half sheet folio, the paper page being 7 by 11½ inches and the type page 6¼ by 10¾ inches. It contains an extract from the London Flying Post respecting the pretender, who called himself King James VIII of Scotland, sending Popish missionaries from France to Scotland; the queen's speech to parliament; a few items of domestic news and the advertisement of the publisher, John Campbell.

Two editions of this issue were printed, as is clearly proven by typographical differences in the three complete copies that have been preserved, or are known to be extant. A mutilated copy, about one-third of the whole sheet, is in the Harvard College library. Two of the three complete copies, in the libraries of the American Antiquarian Society and the New York Historical Society, are identical, both being of the first edition. The other copy, in the library of the Massachusetts Historical Society, is of the second edition.

Some of the differences in these editions have been referred to by Samuel Abbott Green,¹ and others, for the first time, are noted here. Punctuation varies frequently in the two editions. In the second paragraph of the second column of the first page the word Eamilly of the first edition is corrected to Family in the second; the word and is substituted for the character &; in the fifth paragraph of the first column of the first page the letter-spacing in the second edition is closer so that the lines break differently; in the fifth paragraph of the second column of the second page Curraso is substituted in the second edition for Currasoa and Currasoe in the first; and in the first paragraph of the same column Rhode Island of the first edition becomes Rhod Island in the second; in the ninth paragraph of the same column Maryland of the first edition becomes Marryland in the second. Copies of the publisher's advertisement as it was printed in each edition, showing particularly a change in the advertising agency of the paper, are printed herewith. The first edition had this imprint: "Boston, Printed by B. Green. Sold by Nicholas Boone, at his Shop near the Old Meeting House," while the imprint of the second edition was: "Boston: Printed by B. Green. Sold by Nicholas Boone, at his Shop near the Old Meeting House."

Undoubtedly the appearance of this sheet excited something more than ordinary interest in the community. Concerning it Judge Samuel Sewall wrote:

1 Ten Fac-Simile Reproductions Relating to Various Subjects.

"April 24, 1704. I went to Cambridge to see some Books on the Revelation, and there met with Mr. Pignet: went into Hall and heard Mr. Willard expound Rom. 4 9 10 11 and pray. I gave Mr. Willard the first News-Letter that ever was carried over the River. He shew'd it the Fellows. I came home in company with Mr. Adams." ²

The first number of the News-Letter has been several times reprinted from type. In some instances these reprints have been on paper stained with coffee liquor to give it the brown appearance of age, and many such have passed into the possession of persons who have been led to believe them genuine originals. So far as is known at this writing (1910) only three complete copies and one fragment of this issue are in existence. The number has also been reproduced in fac-simile by photograph, first by Samuel Abbott Green in 1903. ³]

[THIS issue is a full sheet folio, the last page, however, blank. South-Carolina Via New-York.

AN Account of what the Army from thence had done, under the Command of Colonel Moore in his Expedition last Winter against the Spaniards and Spanish Indians. In a Letter from him to the Governour of Carolina. May it please Your Honour to accept of this short Narrative of what I with the Army under my Command have been doing since my Departure from the Ockomulgg on the 19th. December. On the 14th. January we came to a Town, and strong and almost regular Fort about Sun Rising, call'd Ayavalle, at our first approach the Indians in it fired and shot Arrows at us briskly; from which we shelter'd our selves under the side of a great Mud-wall'd House, till we could take a view of the Fort, and consider of the best way of assaulting it: which we concluded to be by breaking the Church door, which made a part of the Fort, with Axes. I no sooner proposed this, but my men readily undertook it; ran up to it briskly, (the Enemy at the same time shooting at them) were beaten off without effecting it, and fourteen white men wounded, two hours after that we thought fit to attempt the burning the Church, which we did, three or four Indians assisting us: The Indians in it obstinately defending themselves, and kill'd us two white men, viz. Frances Plowden, and Thomas Dale; after we were within their

Fort, a Fryar the only white in it came forth and begged mercy: In this we took about 26 men alive, and 58 Women and Children; The Indians took about as many more of each sort, the Fryar told us, we kill'd in the two Storms Twenty five men. The next morning the Captain of St. Lewis Fort with 23 white men and 400 Indians came to Fight us, which we did, beat him, took him, and Eight of his men Prisoners: And as the Indians which say they did it, told us kill'd five or six Whites: We have a particular Account from our Indians of 168 Indian men kill'd and taken in the Fight and Flight, but the Appalatchia Indians say, they Lost 200, which we have reason to believe to be the least. Captain John Berringer Fighting bravely in the Head of our men was kill'd at my foot: Captain Fox dyed of a Wound given him at the first Storming of the Fort. Two days after I sent to the Cassik of Ibitachuka, who with 130 men was in his strong and well made Fort, to come and make his peace with me, the which he did, and compounded for it, with his Churches Plate, and ten Horses laden with Provisions: After this I marched thro' five Towns which had all strong Forts and Defences against small Arms; they all submitted and surrendered their Forts to me without condition. I have now in my Company all the whole People of three Towns, and the greatest part of four more: we have totally destroyed all the people of two Towns: So that we have left in Appalatchia but that one Town which compounded with one part of St. Lewis, and the people of one Town which run away all together; their Town, Church and Fort we have burnt. The People of St Lewis come to me every night. I expect and have advice that the Town which compounded with me, are coming after me: The waiting for these People make my Marches slow, for I'm willing to bring away with me free, as many of the Indians as I can: This being the Address of the Commons to Your Honour to Order it so, this will make my mens part of Plunder (which otherwise might have been 100l. a man) but small: but I hope with Your Honours assistance to find away to gratifie them for their bold and stout action, and their great loss of blood: I never see or hear of a stouter or braver thing done, than the Storming the Fort: It hath regained the reputation we seem'd to have lost under the Conduct of Robert Macken, the Indians having now a mighty value for the Whites: Appalatchia is now reduced to the feeble and low condition, that it can neither support St Augustin with Provision, or disturb, endamage or frighten us; our Indians living between us and Appalatchia and the French: In short we have made Carolina as safe as the conquest of Appalatchia can make it. If I had not so many men wounded in our first Attempt, I had assaulted St Lewis Fort, in which is about 28 or 30 men, and 20 of these came thither from Panseccooola to buy

Provision the first night after I took the first Fort. On Sabbath the 23^d. Instant I came out of Appalatchia settle[ment], and am now about Thirty miles on my way home, but do not expect to reach it before the middle of March, notwithstanding my Horses will not be able to carry me to the Chereques Mountains. I have had a dirty, tedious and uneasie Journey, and though I have no reason to fear any harm from the Enemy, through the difference between the Whites and Indians, and between Indians and Indians, bad way and fales Alarms, do still labour under hourly uneasiness. The number of free Appalatchia Indians which are now under my protection, and bound with me to Carolina are 1300. And 100 for Slaves. The Indians under my Command kill'd and took Prisoners in the Plantation, whilst we Stormed the Fort, as many Indians as we and they took and kill'd in the Fort. *Dated in the Woods 50 Miles N. and E. of Appalatchia.*⁵

Piscataqua, April 22d. Last night arrived one Parker in a Sloop from Antigua 3 Weeks passage, Says, that the New General is daily expected with 14. or 16. Sail of men of War. That the French have 22. Sail of Privateers out.

There was one Capt. Christian a French Privateer, in a small Snow about 6 Guns, Sailed from the Havana, with two more Privateer Sloops in Company, having on Board about 150 men, designed to Land on the North side of the Island of Jamacia, and plunder the People. But Capt. Gelding in a private man of War Sloop, 4 Guns, about 60 men, belonging to Jamacia, came up with said Christian, and his two Sloops; the which two Sloops he took, and gave Christian a broad side, and Chased him; but Christian out-sailing Gelding, made his escape, and got clear; which if Capt. Gelding had not met with, might have proved very detrimental to that Island.

On Tuesday the 25 Nathanael Meader of Dover in Oyster River, being at work in his Field, and burning Brush, was waylaid by a Company of Indians, as he returned home about Sunset, who shot him through the thigh & leggs, then took, Scalpt, kill'd, and stript him Naked.

On Wednesday Morning a small Scout made a descent on Lam-prey, Eel River, who destroyed Edward Taylor, at the Saw-mill, and took his Wife and Son Captive, as they went from the Garri-son unto their dwelling-house, about a Mile and a half distant in the Woods. Major Hilton instantly raised about 20 men, who in a little time discovered the Enemies track, but the Night approaching, prevented any further discovery.

Rhode-Island, April 27. The Honourable Col. Nathanael By-field Esq. his Commission for Judge of the Admiralty, was published and admitted of here, on the 25. Currant.

By his Excellency JOSEPH DUDLEY Esq. Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New England.

A PROCLAMATION⁶ for a General FAST

UPON Consideration of the troublesome State of Europe, by reason of the Calamitous Wars wherein those Nations are Engaged amongst themselves, and of Her Majesties Great & Just Interest therein: As also the present Circumstances of these Her Majesties Territories and Plantations, And the Influences which the Wars of Europe may have upon our selves; Together with the Hostilitie acted against us by the treacherous Murderous Salvages within our Limits.

I have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Her Majesties Council, and at the desire of the Representatives, to Appoint Thursday, the 18th of May next, A Day of Publick Fasting with Prayer, to be Observed throughout this Province, Humbly to Implore the Divine Mercy, for the Preservation of Her Majesties Sacred Person, That Her just Armes with those of her Allies may be prosperous in the Actions of this present Year; That the Forces in this Province Employed in Her Majesties Service, may by the good Conduct of Heaven, be Succeeded in their just Enterprizes, and our Enemies Defeated; That the Defence of Divine Protection may be over our Sea Coast and Inland Frontiers; That our Seed-time and Harvest, may be under benign Influences of Heaven; That there may be a plentiful Effusion of the Holy Spirit of GOD, for a thorough Reformation of all those Evils which are amongst us, That so GOD may turn away His Anger, and Restore unto us a prosperous State: And that the Protestant Interest may every where prevail throughout the World. Exhorting both Ministers and People in their respective Assemblies Religiously to perform the Duties required on such a Day, with a becoming Devotion; And all Servile Labour is forbidden thereupon.

Given at Boston the 27th. Day of April 1704. In the Third Year of Her Majesties Reign.

Piscataqua, April 29. By⁷ Letters thence, acquainted, That on Fryday the 28th. four Indians Seized a Servant Maid of Richard

6 Reprinted from the News-Letter in The Acts and Resolves . . . of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay . . . , Vol. VIII, p. 347.

7 Written on the margin of the copy in the file of the Massachusetts Historical Society: "This was a story invented by the Girl to conceal her staying too long at the Spring with a young man."

Waldron's Esq. at Cocheco, who went about 150 yards from the Garrison to a Spring, for a Jugg of Water, about half an hour after Sun down: Supposed to be the same Indians that did the Mischief mentioned in my last, upon Nathanael Meader, and Edward Taylor: They askt her many Questions; Viz. Whither there was not a French Shallop put on Shoar in New-England in a Storm? And what was become of the Frenchmen? Whither or not we had any Forces going out against the French? What number of Souldiers was in the Garrison? What Mr. Waldron had been doing in his Field all day? What he designed to do with that new Timber hal'd to the side of his House? They told her that they had lyen near his House all that day, and a Week before to wait to Catch him, whom they saw to pass over his Boom towards Capt. Geerishes two Hours, by Sun-set; and that they might take him on his return, they had crept down to the foot of the Boom, as near as possible: at which time the Maid came along, and were forced to take her, otherwise they must have been discovered: They told her also that they had been so near him in the Field, that one of them had Cock'd his Gun at him, and going to discharge, another perswaded him to forbear, he would presently have a better Shot at him: They likewise told her 'twas never the near for him to build his New Fortifications round his House, for they would certainly take him, and that 'twere in Vain for him to Plant his New Orchard in his Field, for he should neither eat the Apples, nor drink the Cyder, for that they would have him by & by, and roast him, and she should see it. In the Interim Mr Waldron coming over the Boom; the Watchman on the Top of his House, not knowing who it was, call'd out, Stand; which the Indians hearing, being frightened, ran all away, one stept back and with the head of his Hatchet, knock't the Girl down, and left her for Dead, who lay in the Spot two Hours, till being found wanting, was enquir'd after and search'd for at the Spring, where She was found, a little come to her self; hope She may do well, for her Skull is not broke. Thus Mr. Waldron narrowly escap'd.

Sute of Sails to be made for a Sloop, hearing he was a Sail-maker, put him to make them; for which [he] had a very small reward, a bit of Meat the breadth of a mans Finger, and a little Cassadar bread, his chief Diet while in N. Spain was Oysters. A Trader being bound along the Coast wanted a hand, came to the Governour to desire the English man, and promised to return him again, when he came back; 'twas granted: So Mr. Fowle went along with him, and coming into a certain Port where a French man of War lay; he went on board, & met another English man, to whom, he said, that if he would go along with him, he would come for him in the Night, & would carry him off, 'twas agreed, the other should be in the Lyon in the head, & he should come with his Canoo, and take him in; and they two should knock the Spaniards of the Barque alongo in the head, and come away with her, and accordingly he took the Canoo in the night, when the Spaniard was asleep, and put in her two Guns, two Cutlases and 2 Pistols, took the Ancient for a Sayl and Sails to the Man of War; The Watch on Board was too quick sighted for him, espied 'em, and was forced to paddle back again with all his might, put the Ancient in his place: The Spaniards still asleep knew nothing of it. In some short time afterwards, the Spaniards going all ashore leaving him & a Spanish Indian on board, he stept & unloos'd the Sails of the Barque-alongo, told the Indian if he would go along with him might go & should fare well, he said still no, no, & went to take up a Handspoke to knock out Mr. Fowls's brains, in the interim Mr. Fowle tript up his heels, & threw him Over-board, and put to Sea; the Spaniards on Shoar Man'd their Canoo to overtake him, came up with him: The Boatswain first put his hand upon the Barque alongo, & Mr. Fowle stab'd him and he fell backwards, the Captain seeing that, said, put off; The Fort Fired several shot at him, some whereof came thro' his Sayls; They also Man'd a Parriagar after him, & pursued him about 8 hours till midnight; but having a fair wind, in about two dayes got safe in to Curraso about 70 Leagues distant from the Port in New-Spain he came from, having on Board about 19000 of Cocoa: The Lieut. Gov. of Curraso forgave him the Custom of it, saying he well deserved it. He Sold his Vessel & Cargo there: And bought the Sloop in which he came home in; he met with a violent Storm the 4 instant. He says that of late the Spaniards kill all the English they take, but saves the Dutch alive. Zachariah Hill of Boston in a Sloop of Mr. Lillys being bound to Jamaica, fell in with 7 French Men of War, and was taken. His Excellency, Joseph Dudley Esqr. Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England, &c. His Speech to the Honourable the Council and Representatives in General Court Assembled at Boston, June 1, 1704.

Gentlemen,

I Had the Advice of the last Assembly for an Expedition to the Eastward, to consist of Six hundred men, who accordingly Sailed from Piscataqua, about ten days since well Equipt, assisted with two of Her Majesties Ships, the Jersey, and the Gosport, & the Province-Gally. I have directed the Commander in Chief, to give me a Weekly Intelligence from the Forces by a Scout Shallop, which I shall always acquaint you with.

The Frontiers of the Province are reduced to strict Garrisons, and covered with 300 & fifty men, who meet every day in small parties from the two extreams, Woodstock & Wells. And if it were possible for me by any means to bring the Queens good Subjects in the several parts, to do their duty in Watching & Scouting, I have no doubt we might be in a great measure safe from the incursions of the barbarous Rebels.

The Advice from the Enemy on the Western Parts of the Province, give notice of their approach & settlement upon Connecticut River, who must if possible be dislodged, & I believe the Government of Connecticut will joyn a pro[per] force with some of ours for that end.

I am very sensible, the Charge of the Province is very great to support these Services, but the Assembly at all times (I thank them) have agreed the necessity, & have chearfully granted the necessary Charge.

I hope we shall never fall below the courage & resolution of Englishmen, to support Her Majesties Honour, our own just right to this Province, with all humble submission, and trust in the favour of Almighty God to defend and maintain us.

The Last Week has discovered a very notorious Piracy, committed upon Her Majesties Allies the Portugal, on the Coast of Brazil, by Quelch and Company, in the Charles Gally; for the discovery of which, all possible methods, have been used, and the severest Process against those vile men shall be speedily taken. That the Province be not thereby disparaged, as they have been heretofore; and I hope every good man will do his Duty according to the several Proclamations, to discover the Pirates & their Treasure, agreeable to the Acts of Parliament in that case made and provided.

Gentlemen,

It is your Anniversary Meeting, and I shall willingly attend the dispatch of the necessary Affairs of the Province, and I hope you will proceed with all Unanimity and Chearfulness in what is necessary for the support of the Government, and the Forces abroad: And your Advice in every thing shall be acceptable to me.

The Anniversary Election Sermon was Preached by the Rd. Mr. Jon. Russel upon Neh. 9. 33. And is order'd to be Printed

When the candle had burned out, the person who had at that moment offered the highest price was declared the purchaser. This method of selling was introduced into the American colonies and was common during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. In New Amsterdam it was the regular legal usage of the Dutch in selling the property of debtors levied upon by the sheriff. "Inch of candle. On the 27. There's no doubt but there is a Design among the Papists to do mischief, and it may be justly said they have begun already; for Letters yesterday say that a Body of Papists had got together in the County of Limerick, had marched in a hostile manner through the several Towns, particularly Abeking, and had plunder'd and disarm'd several Protestants, and kill'd one Green, a Protestant, for appearing as a Witness in the first Court of Claims against one Teay O'Quin, an Irish Papist. It's said there are several more little Parties of Irish up in that County, which put the Protestants in a mighty Consternation.

[F]OREIGN matter, chiefly, under date 20th December 1703, an address of the English commons to the queen, occupies most of the first page. A "Copy of a Letter from a Gentleman in Cannada to a Gentleman in Port-royal," dated "Quebeck," follows. The domestic news includes the "bill of mortality" for Boston for three years; a paragraph account of the execution of Quelch and five of his companions; and the announcement of the receipt by the governor of a packet from the queen "to permit a trade with New Spain" (Mexico).]

The Coppy of a Letter from a Gentleman in Cannada, to a Gentleman in Port-royal: Quebec, April, 28. 1704.

SIR I believe you have heard of several parties of French and Indians, gone out since the last fall against the English, Mr. Gordeau the bearer hereof is a living witness, who will inform you of the whole, If the affairs of this Countrey do not change in a little time, others will go away. Canada was never in the Like misery, we must absolutely abandon it before two Years, or God must work Miracles, to preserve it, since Peace is made with the Maqua's in the Pardon which the King has a second time given the Hunters. He permits them to go to the new Colony of Messasipy, or to return to their own Countrey absolutely pardoning all their disobedience. I believe the liberty given them of choice, will not only hinder them from returning to their own Country, but will make those that are there resolved to go away, thinking they can't be taken else-where. Wine is so rare here, that we are obliged to drink nothing but water, and other Goods proportionably; we impatiently expect News from France, to advise us who must be our Governour.

[THIS issue is a full sheet folio. The first two pages and more than half of the third page are taken up, under date Westminster, January 17, 1703/4, by the "Humble Representation" of the English peers presented to the queen upon occasion of an Address to her majesty by the commons, Dec. 23, "by which the House of Lords is charged with the Violation of Your Royal Prerogative, and of the known Laws of the Land; with wresting persons suspected of Treasonable Practices, and taken into Custody by Messengers out of Your Majesties Hands, without Your leave or knowledge, and in a most extraordinary manner taking the examination of them solely to themselves, whereby a due enquiry into the evil practices and designs against Your Majesties Person and Government might in great measure be obstructed." Other foreign items are mixed with the domestic news occupying the remainder of the space. The domestic news, of larger importance than usual, includes a vivid tale of the sea; the arrival of an express briganteen sent by Col. Church, commander of the colonial forces, from Port Royal with letters to the governor; and the sailing of an express sloop for England with an account of the Quelch affair for the queen, and two prisoners charged with being accessories.]

Boston, On the first of March last, Sailed from hence, John Jarvies in the Sloop Henrietta, bound for Barbadoes, and in the Latitude of 30. about 180 leagues to the Eastward of Cape Cod, he met with three French Ships, Letter of Mart men from Martinico, bound for Bilboa for Convoy: The Commadore had 20 Guns, one 16, the other 12. Guns: It being Calm, they took the Sloop with two of their Boats, the Master and two men they carried with them Prisoners; and put five French men on board the Sloop, leaving only Noah Champney the Mate, and the Boy on Board, and ordered them to make the best of their way to Vego; and meeting with contrary Winds, in the Latitude of 38, about 190 Leagues to the Eastward of Traseras, they thought fit to alter their Course, and go for Cadiz. The French men all along used the Mate and Boy very hardly and barbarously, making each of them steer 4 hours at a time by turns, scarcely suffering them to sleep, beating them with Ropes ends, almost starv'd with cold for want of Cloaths, having taken all their Cloaths from them, and allowing them no Beds to lie upon: which severe hard usage made their life burthensome, and put Mr. Champney on thinking how to redress themselves, and discoursing the Boy, they agreed to watch an opportunity to knock the French men on the Head, and relieve themselves out of their misery. Therefore on or about the 22d. of April last, about three of the Clock in the Afternoon, 4 of the French men being in the Cabbin, and the 5th upon Deck: The Boy at the Helm a Steering, it being Mr. Champney's turn to sleep, he lay in the warm Sun upon Deck, but could not sleep: The French man upon Deck going to draw a Bucket of Water, Champney started up, and took an Ax and knock'd him in the head, and threw him Overboard, the French man rose again and cry'd Mondieu, at the noise of which, the Captain came out of the Cabbin and one more, storm'd and stamp't, whereupon Mr. Champney at the Captain with his Ax gave him a blow and fel'd him; then ran to the other and gave him a blow also, and fel'd him. The other two French men were about to come out of the Cabbin, & Mr. Champney charged them not to come up, else he'd knock 'em on the head also, upn which they cryed out for Quarter, and so he ordered them to abide in the Cabbin & ordered the Boy to go and spike up the door, and the Boy returning from the Cabbin, one of the French men before knock'd down was getting up again, Champney ordered the Boy to give him a blow with the Ax, and then they threw both of them Overboard, and shap'd their Course for New-England: They kept the two French men in the Cabbin till night, and then let them out: they being illiterate fellows and no Artists, made Champney secure of fearing any hurt from them, knowing they kill'd him, themselves must perish. On the 26th of June he met a Briganteen from London, bound for Philadelphia, Nathaniel Pugle Master, in the Latitude of 40, and exchanged a French man for an English-man. And on Monday last, off of the Isles of Sholes he was Chased by Captain Gallop (in a Briganteen from Port-Royal with Advice from our Forces) whom he took to be a French-man, which put him in a great consternation what to do; he threw Overboard all the French-mens Cloaths, Papers, and what else belonged to them, for his own self defence, fearing he should be taken and discovered; whilst Mr. Champney went to the Cabbin, to throw over the Cloaths, &c. The Boy knockt the surviving Frenchman on the head and threw him Overboard. And on Wednesday last they Arrived at Boston.

On Wednesday last arrived here Captain Gallop, in a Briganteen sent Express by Colonel Church, Commander in Chief of our Forces from Port-Royal, with Letters to His Excellency of the 7th Currant, acquainting him of their having laid waste and destroyed about 60 Houses in Menis; about 6 Mills, a great many fine Barns, kill'd a great number of Cattle, done some damage to their Damms that kept the Sea from overflowing their Corn, rooted up their Corn, kill'd some French and Indians, with the loss of two of our men, viz. Lieutenant Joshua Barker, of the Colonels Company, and Sergeant Briggs of Capt Haradines Company. We have also taken a Sloop who had on Board 6 of our Captives, who hired her to come to Boston, &c. Captain Gallop brought 45 French Prisoners in the said Briganteen.

Captain Cary Sailed on Saturday last, in the Express Sloop for England, with an Account of Capt. Quelch and Company's Tryal, &c. who carries with him Capt. Thomas Larimore and Joseph Wells Lieutenant (mentioned in our Numb. 9 Print, as Accessories in endeavouring to cary off the 7 Pirates then taken) as Prisoners to the Queen: He carries also with him three Evidences of their Crime committed.³⁸

Perkins*, who were Passengers on Board of Cap. Sinclare that came from London, & were that morning about 4 a Clock standing along the side of the Hook when they saw this Privateer whom they took to be an Outward bound Vessel from New-York. The Privateer fired two shots at them, having English Colours out; Cap. Sinclare endeavour'd to get from him and ran his Vessel on shore, but the Wind prevented, a man upon Shore pull'd off his Shirt, & made signs that the Privateer was a Rogue, upon which those Gentlemen got in to the Boat and escap'd and took in Cap. Sinclare who was extream ill, & landed at the Highlands of Neversinks where was a strong Guard; his Mate staid on board with some of the Seamen endeavouring to get the Ship within the hook but could not, & so jump't into the water, he & Capt. Perkins's Son, and swam on Shore when within Pistol Shot of the Privateer.

On the 25. the Privateer came to an Anchor in Sandy-hook, and there took Eleazar Darby in a Sloop from Boston bound to Philadelphia, next day they took a Wood Boat & two Slaves, and that night gave Mr. Pasco and his men their liberty, who about ten a Clock got up to N. York.

On the 27. early in the Morning the Privateer took Capt. Sinclare, so soon as Mr. Pasco came with the News, the Gentlemen of Her Majesties Council met and sent for Capt. Claver Commander of the Dutch Privateer, and proposed to him to go out and take said Privateer, at least to retake the Prize whom we judged to be Sinclare; who offered his Service, and in two hours Sail'd with 150. men and 50 men on board his Sloop, and said day came up with the Privateer and her Prize, but returned the 28th without effecting any thing. His Excellency JOSEPH DUDLEY Esq. Capt. General and Governor in Chief in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in N. England, &c. His SPEECH to the Honourable the Council and Representatives in General Court Assembled at Boston August 16th. 1704.

Gentlemen,

SINCE your last recess, the Forces Eastward under Col. Church, with the Assistance of Her Majesties Ships, have past thro' all the Eastern parts of L'accadie and Nova-Scotia, and have burnt and destroyed all the French Settlements except the Town of Port-Royal: And Kill'd their Cattel, & broken their Dams; and have brought home about 100 Prisoners, and a good Plunder: So that I am not sensible there are five Houses left in any part of the French Settlement out of sight of the Fort, or any manner of support for the Inhabitants; which was what we projected in the Spring. And the Forces are returned and disbanded without the loss of any more than Six men, for which we have all reason to render thanks to Almighty GOD.

You are further sensible of the Inroad made upon us at Lancaster, by about 300 French & Indians, where by the favour of GOD, we were so ready for them that we have lost no Garison; and our Forces have press'd upon them so early and so diligently, that they are Marcht off after a two Months Expedition, without any further Triumph, Than that of three or four Children. And the Forces there of about 300 men under Major Tailor were also yesterday disbanded, saving what are necessary upon the Frontiers of Middlesex to Assist the Harvest.

I have also to Acquaint you, That we have lately discovered a number of ill men, Coyners of Money, & Forgers of our Bills of Credit, which are in Prison to answer; and tho' the Common Law will be sufficient to Impower the Judges for their punishment, yet I shall desire your Advice and Assistance for the prevention of such Villanies, tending so much to the ruine of Trade and the Publick Credit of the Government.

The Treasurers Accompts will be before you, & what is necessary thereupon, your last Order for the supply of the Treasury was mistaken and ineffectual, which you will soon perceive and rectify, That we may proceed in our payments.

I consider the season of the Year, & the necessity of my Putting the Province of Main into a new posture upon the return of the Forces from thence, & shall desire that three or four days may conclude this Session, the ordinary time of your meeting being so near.

The House of Representatives have Voted Thanks to be given to Col. Church, Commander in Chief of the Forces in the Expedition to the Eastward for his good Service.

On Saturday his Excellency Prorogu'd the General Assembly to the 25th day of October next.

Outward bound, Lilly, Vibart & Wyar for Barbadoes, Price, White & Hurst for N. foundland, Coasters Inwards, Parker, Patty & Allin from Connecticut. Coasters outwards, Lathrop for Rhode-Island, Abbot for N. Carolina, Church for Bristol. Jamaica, July 2d. Our Coast is often infested with French and Spanish Privateers, who steal away our Negro's: And when we meet them they pay dear for their Insolence.

Eighty French and Spaniards some few Months ago Landed at St. Maries, on the North side of the Island, where Capt. Nathaniel Brown's Company quartered, and he chanceing to be there at that time; upon notice thereof, Immediately rallied together what men he could get, being but Sixteen of his own Company, and as many more of the Country, Marched towards them, Six tedious Miles thro' the Woods, where our guides brought him within 50 yards of the Enemy, before they discovered us: They had taken some Negro's and were going off to their Gally, when immediately Capt. Brown gave them Battel, and kill'd 35 of them on the Spot, and took 4 Prisoners. The Remainder made their escape in their Gally; and Capt. Brown had but one man shot in the breast in all the Incounter. Since which time they have made no attempt on that part of the Island; for which good Service he had the Governour and Council's thanks.

We dayly expect a Fleet of Men of War, and some Land Forces from England.

MH—AS—NY

[THE first half of this issue is devoted to foreign matter, mostly reports from the duke of Marlborough's camps of July dates:

the second half comprising much domestic news of exceptional importance including the speech of Governor Dudley at the opening of the General Court; reports of hostile Indians about the town of Groton; and report of the killing of the minister of Lancaster by the sentinel of the watch.]

His Excellency JOSEPH DUDLEY Esq. Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England, &c His SPEECH to the Honourable the Council and Representatives in General Court Assembled at Boston, October 25; 1704.

Gentlemen.

I Believe we are all sensible by this time of the benefit of the Expedition Eastward, in the Spring and Summer, the Effect whereof has been the quiet we have had in the Province of Mayn, and our other Northern Plantations; and the Care and Watchfulness we have used to the Westward; and the disappointment of the French and Indians at Lancaster, has given us the same Ease on that side; which yet we must not depend upon, but Expect a Winters March of the Enemy from both sides, which the Eastern part especially will be forced to for their own Subsistence, having neither Corn nor Hunting for their supply.

To prevent which, I think it necessary to Support the present numbers in the Province of Mayn, and the Frontiers of Essex, Middlesex and Hampshire, and to have a much greater Force in a readiness to receive any Impression of the Enemy in any of the Parts: And particularly to have One hundred Men sent to West-Hampshire, which joyned with the same number from Connecticut may be sufficient there.

I shall give you the present State of the Forces in the several Parts for this Winter Season, which I hope will be to your Satisfaction.

Mr. Treasurer will lay before you the State of your Affairs there: And I can Assure you that all possible Care has been taken in the Accompts and Musters, to Retrench the Charge, which I am sensible is heavy upon the Province: And while we are all Satisfied in the necessity of the Service, and the just Expence of our Treasure, I doubt not but every thing will proceed cheerfully to a necessary supply, which this is the proper Season for.

I have to Recommend to you the Consideration of the Galley, which is our onely Force at Sea, and is found so very unfit for the Service, that every skilful Man of the Sea, and the good Commander we have in her, thinks it of absolute necessity that She be disposed of, and a better bought or built for that Service, especially at this time, when the Gosport is Commanded Home, which is the onely Ship of War, that has lately attended Her Majesties Service here.

And Gentlemen, I think it my Duty to offer it to you, That you will shew your Respect to Captain Smith, Her Majesties Commander of that Ship now going home, That he be in some manner presented by the Assembly as an Acknowledgment of his very good Service here done to Her Majesty and this Province, in a three years attendance; which will shew our just Respect to Her Majesties Officers, coming for the Service and Security of Her good Subjects, and the Trade of this Province.

Gentlemen,

I shall shew my Readiness in every thing in Her Majesties Service, Importing the benefit of this Province, and desire you will proceed in this Session with all freedom and unanimity; That We may procure the blessing of Almighty GOD, and the favour of Her most Sacred Majesty. upon whom We have our just Dependence.

[F]OREIGN matters occupy only three-quarters of the first page. These embrace, under dates Frankfort, July 6, London July 11, accounts of the celebration of the "great victory lately obtained by the Confederate Army commanded by the duke of Marlborough, over the elector of Bavarias Forces at Schellenberg;" also addresses presented to the queen from "the Bishop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and of the Archdeacons and Parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Chichester," and of the "Bishop Dean and Chapter of Hereford, and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford." The domestic news includes a proclamation by the lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania against "Immorality and Prophaneness." A Cambridge item reports an exciting fire at Harvard College.]

By the Honourable Colonel John Evans, Lieutenant Governour of the Province of Pensilvania, and Counties annexed. A PROCLAMATION, Against

IMMORALITY and PROPHANENESS.

WHereas it hath pleased Almighty God, from the Treasures of his Infinite Goodness, to extend his favours in an eminent degree, and pour down his peculiar Blessings upon this Colony, from the first Erecting thereof; as well by the bestowing a happy success on the Endeavours of its Inhabitants, and crowning what so lately was a Wilderness, with a large Affluence of the Necessaries and Comforts of Life; as by supporting it, in an undisturbed Peace and Tranquility during all the Commotions that have deeply afflicted other parts of the Christian World, and continuing to us the Enjoyment of those manifold Mercies, which rightly used, tend to make a People truly happy. All which Divine Bounties, as they loudly call for the most humble and hearty Acknowledgements; so they ought more deeply to impress a just sense of the great Obligations upon us, so to regulate our Lives, with care and circumspection, in a true Obedience and Conformity to God's holy Laws, that we may not instead of making grateful Returns, by Impiety or Negligence, provoke the just Anger of the Almighty, to withdraw his Divine Protection, and inflict on us the severe Chastisements of his just Displeasure. Notwithstanding all which, I cannot but be sensible, that too many, forgetting all those Obligations, that as persons professing the Holy Christian Religion, they indispensably lye under, have given themselves a Loose in their Lives and Conversations, and manifestly trampled on their positive known Duties, in many vicious Practices and Immoralities, to the great Offence of Almighty God, in the breach of his Divine Laws, as well as of our Civil Institutions, and to the scandal of sober Men, & great Discredit of this Government: Which Practice, if not timely prevented, may terminate in an utter Depravation of Manners, through the Encouragement taken from those fatal and pernicious Examples, by persons whose better Education and Inclinations might otherwise have restrained them, within the Bounds of Sobriety and Vertue; but from those many Instances set before their Eyes, are in danger of being hurried on, not only to their own Ruine, but of becoming Accessary to the incensing & drawing down upon us the Vengeance of Heaven.

In a deep Consideration of which, and to the end that all possible Discouragements may be given to the Growth of these Enormities; I have through a sense of the Duty I owe to God, and the care of the People committed to my Charge: By and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of this Province, and Territories, thought fit to Publish and Declare, That I will Discountenance and severely Punish all manner of Vice, Immorality and Prophaneness, in all persons whatsoever, within this Government, that shall be guilty of the same. And I do hereby strictly forbid all manner of Debauchery, Lewdness, Drunkenness, prophane Swearing, Cursing, Rioting, breaking of the Sabbath, Night-walking at unseasonable hours, without lawful Business, and all other Disorders whatsoever that are contrary to the Duties of a Christian Life, & the Rules of true Vertue. And I do strictly Command and Require all Magistrates, Justices, Sheriffs, Constables and all Officers whosoever, and others Her Majesties good Subjects, that they not only be regular and circumspect in their own Lives, that by their good Examples, they may incite those that behold them to the practice of Vertue, but also that they be very diligent in the Discovery and effectual Prosecution of all Offenders, and that they rigorously put in Execution all the good and wholesome Laws and Ordinances provided against the aforesaid, and such other Immoralities, without favour, partiality or affection to any person whatsoever, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and incur my utmost Displeasure.

And for the more effectual Publication hereof, I do Require and Command the Justices of Quarter Sessions at their respective County Courts in this Government, & the Mayor and Recorder of the City Philadelphia, that they cause this my Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately after their Charge is given to the Grand-Jury.

Also that the Ministers of the Churches, and several Congregations within this Province and Territories, cause the same to be Read in the time of Divine Service, at their respective places of Worship, at least six times in every Year. And that they be very diligent in Discouraging all manner of Vice and Immoralities in their Auditors, in Exhorting them to the Exercise of Piety and Virtue.

Given at Philadelphia the Ninth Day of October, in the third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady ANN, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. And the twenty fourth of the Proprietaries Government, Annoque Domini, 1704.

Cambridge, Octob. 29. About 11 of the Clock in the morning⁵⁵ there happened a Fire in Harvard Colledge occasioned by a foul Chimney which took fire, and the soot being blown into the Pelfrey, fired some old Boards, and melted the Lead (wherewith the Colledge was covered) and then Fired the Planks; but one of the Tutors having the Key of the Scuttle which was lockt and barr'd was absent, wherefore 2 of the Students putting their backs to the Scuttle, forced it open, and threw water briskly, so that they quickly extinguisht the Fire, which otherwise had been of very ill consequence.

Piscataqua, Novemb. 2. On Monday the 30th last about break of day, the House of the Reverend Mr. Nathaniel Rogers, Minister of Portsmouth, was burnt to the Ground in a few minutes, his youngest Child, and a Negro Woman of Mrs. Elatsons, his Mother-in-law, consumed in the Flames, nothing saved but himself, his Wife, Mother-in-law, two Children, and the Servant-Maid, as they got out of Bed without Cloaths; Mrs Elatson saved the eldest Child by throwing him out of a Chamber Window into his Fathers Arms, and immediately thereafter Mr. Rogers got a Ladder for his Mother-in-law, and so got her out at the Window, who is much burned in her Legs & Arms, but think not dangerous to life. None can tell how this Fire came, most probably it began in their Kitchen; the Fire was so violent by reason of the high Wind, that had there been never so many People to quench it, and help to save the Goods, 'twere impossible to save anything.

Philadelphia, Octob. 27. On the 22d arrived here a Sloop from Carolina, Robert Wright Master, says, That a Flag of Truce was returned from St. Augustine, was bound in over the Bar as he came out, but he could not speak with them, so knows not what News they bring.

[LORD Cornbury's address to the General Assembly of the province of New York begins the first column of the first page. Following this is news from Lisbon concerning the armies of the allies in Italy, Hungary, Flanders and elsewhere. Domestic news fills nearly three columns. It includes, besides the address of Lord Cornbury, a proclamation by Governor Dudley for a General Thanksgiving, and an interesting variety of marine news.]

THE BOSTON NEWS-LETTER, NOVEMBER 13, 1704

His Excellency Edward Viscount Cornbury, Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over Her Majesties Colony of New-York, and Territories depending thereon, &c His Speech to the Honourable the Council and Representatives in General Assembly, now Sitting in the City of New-York, upon Thursday the 12th of October, 1704.⁵⁶

Gentlemen,

THE Assembly of New-Jersey having detained me some days longer than at first I intended, & the season of the year being so far advanced, are the Reasons which induce me to recommend to your Considerations for this Session, as few things as may be; and indeed the two chief things which I most earnestly recommend to you to be provided for at this time, are, The low Condition of the Revenue, and the Defence of the Fronteers.

I did in June last, recommend to you, Gentlemen of the House of Representatives, to lay an Additional Duty on certain Commodities, which had been granted by a former Assembly of this Province, but expired. When I recommended that to you, I did it as a thing which in my Judgment would in some measure help the Revenue, without being any burthen upon the People. Some Gentlemen were then of Opinion, that such an Additional Duty would be a Clog upon the Trade of this Place; if they have taken the pains to inquire into that matter, I don't question but they will be of another mind, for my part, I did inquire of some of the most considerable Merchants of this City, who told me that such a Duty would have been rather a help, than a hindrance or clog to the Trade of this Place, being well perswaded that those Gentlemen were right in their Opinions. I once more recommend the consideration of such a Duty to you, or else that you will consider of some other method to enable her most Sacred Majesty the Queen, to support the necessary Charges of the Government, which the present Revenue will not do. The next thing is the Defence of the Fronteers of this Province, in order to that I did in July last order a Detachment of an hundred men out of the Militia for that Service, the greatest part of that number did go up to Albany, and have been posted in the places most convenient for the Defence of the Country, which has kept us quiet this Summer; I think they ought to be kept there till the last day of March next, at least, and that some Out-Scouts should be raised for this Winter; I therefore recommend it to you, Gentlemen of the House of Representatives, to prepare such a Bill as may raise a Sum sufficient for the paying the men that have been sent up, and for the Out-Scouts, with such contingent Charges as may be necessary for their going to Albany, and returning home again If there is any thing else that may be reasonable to be Enacted at this time, you shall find me ready to embrace all occasions of doing such things as may be for the good of her Majesty's Subjects in this Colony. I have nothing farther to recommend to you at this time, but Unanimity in your Consultations, and dispatch in the Matters before you.

Lisbon, August 30. . . . we hear the French have taken the Coventry bound for Virginia and Newfoundland, and 4 or 5 Merchant Ships under her Convoy.

Madera, September 28. A Sloop from Philadelphia, William Wade Master, arrived here about a Week ago, who the day before she arrived, met with 2 Sally Men of War in sight of the Island, who pretended a great deal of friendship for the English, and were so kind as that they took only some odd things from them. They also told Mr. Wade, That an English Man of War, of about 40 Guns they met with in the Streights told them, That our Fleet had lately burnt and destroyed ten, and taken five Capital French Men of War in the Streights.

Barbadoes, September 14. His Excellency our Governour has issued forth a Proclamation Commanding and Requiring all Masters of Vessels during the War, that they should keep all their Letters in a Bag with weights to them, that in case they should meet with, or be Pursued by an Enemy, they might have them in a readiness to sink them; on forfeiture of a certain Sum in case they did not. Which Proclamation was ordered to be Read in all the Parish Churches of the Island.

By His Excellency, JOSEPH DUDLEY, Esq^r Captain General and GOVERNOUR in Chief, in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, &c. in New-England.

A PROCLAMATION for a General THANKSGIVING.⁵⁷

W^Hereas it has pleased Almighty GOD to Prosper the Armes of Her Sacred Majesty and Her Allies, with Victory over their Enemies in the Summer past; And of His Infinite Goodness to extend His Favours towards this Province in divers signal Instances thereof; In deffe]ating and disappointing of the Combinations, and the Expeditions of the Enemy against us, And the good Success given us against them, by delivering so many of them into our hands; In Granting us a good Harvest, notwithstanding the Drought, which so much threatned

[AN instalment of "The King of Portugals Declaration, with his Reasons for entering into the Grand Alliance," fills the first and breaks into the second page of this issue, with the editorial note: "We must here break off till our next." The domestic news includes the detailed account of the killing of the Reverend Mr. Gardner at Lancaster.]

Boston, In our Numb. 28. As we then received it, we gave you the Account of the Death of the Reverend Mr. Gardner, Minister of Lancaster; and having since had a perfect and exact Account of the same, from Eye and Ear Witnesses; we thought it expedient to insert it here, to prevent various reports thereof: And is as follows

That a man being Killed the day before betwixt Groton and Lancaster, and the Indians having been seen the night before nigh the Town) Mr. Gardner (three of the men belonging to his Garrison being gone out of Town, and two of the remaining three being tyred with Watching and Travelling in the Woods after the Indians that day) being a very careful as well as couragious man, concluded to Watch that night himself; and accordingly went out into the little Watch-house that was over one of the Flankers, and there stayed till late in the night, whence and when he was coming down (as it was thought) to warm him, the man that shot him, who was not long before sleeping by the fire, came out, and whether between sleeping and waking, or surprized with an excess of fear, fired upon him as he was coming down out of the Watch-house through a little Trap door into the Flanker, where no man having the exercise of his Reason could suspect the coming of an Enemy, or suspect him to be so, when in a clear Moon light night he was so nigh him, Mr. Gardner (though his Wound was in his breast being shot through the Vitals) came to the door, bid them open it for he was wounded; after he came in he fainted away, but coming to himself again, asked who it was that Shot him, and when they told him he prayed God to forgive him, and forgave him himself, for he believed he did not do it on purpose; and with a composed Christian frame of Spirit desired them that were bitterly lamenting over him, not to weep but to pray for him, and comforted his sorrowful Wife, telling her he was going to Glory, advising her to follow him; and in about an hour Dyed, leaving his sorrowful Friends to lament the loss of so worthy and desirable a Person.⁵⁹

Mr. Eliot is arrived at Marblehead this week from St. Thomas's, says, That Capt. Ellery from Boston, Shapely and Hill from New-London, was taken into Martineco. That a Dutch Privateer had brought in to St. Thomas 4 or 5 French Prizes.

On Saturday our Assembly was Prorouged until the sixth of December next.

Three French Men that came in Capt. Lawrence's Prize to Rhode-Island, say, That in July they came from Rochel, under the Convoy of a Flyboat of 700 Tons, between 50 and 60 Guns, and 2 Merchant men of 14 Guns, about 120 Tons each. One of which with the Flyboat was Bound with Stores and Ammunition for Canada, which Flyboat had on board a Bishop, 6 or 7 Priests and a great many Passengers, and a great Sum of Mony to pay off the Souldiers. The other Merchant Man with Stores was bound for Placentia, and about 400 Leagues to the Westward of Rochel; they met in July last with an English Fleet consisting of about 120 Sail, under Convoy of 5 Men of War, the Ship in which these French men was, made her escape, and also that for Placentia, whom they afterwards met upon the Banks. But the great Flyboat they saw engaged between 2 English Men of War, and heard the Guns plying from 10 a Clock in the Morning to 12 a Clock in the Night, and suppose she was either taken or sunk.

On Saturday arrived one Johnson in a Briganteen from Plymouth in England about 7 weeks Passage, came out under Convoy of the Advice Man of War a 4th Rate of 50 Guns, Captain Morris Commander, and the Strumbele a 5th Rate, Convoy of some Ships for Virginia. HAVING had Consideration of the Great Troubles of Europe, wherein Her Majesty and the Confederates are Engaged against the Common Enemy of the Repose of the Christian Nations; As well as our own Troubles with the French and Indians; And the Just Reason we have therefore to Implore the Divine Favour, for the Remission of our great and manifold Sins that have justly displeased God.

I Have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Her Majesties Council, and at the Desire of the Representatives in their last Session, to Appoint and Order, That Thursday the first of March next, be Solemnized as a Day of Publick FASTING and PRAYER throughout these Provinces: Exhorting both Ministers and People in their several Assemblies, Religiously to attend the Solemn Services of the said Day; That by a sincere Repentance and steady Affiance in the Divine Mercy in their most humble Addresses, They may obtain from GOD, That Our Sovereign Lady the QUEEN with the Nations and Territories under Her Happy Government may always be under the Protection of HEAVEN; Her Majesties Life and Government long continued; Her Counsels and just Arms Prospered; The Designs of the barbarous Salvages against us defeated; Our exposed Plantations preserved. And the poor Christian Captives in their hands, returned; That the Government of these Provinces may have the Divine Direction in all their Administrations; That Health may be continued, And the ensuing Year crowned with the Fruits of Divine Bounty: That Deliverance may speedily arise to the Church of God oppressed with the Tyranny of Antichrist. And all Servile Labour is Inhibited in that Day.

By His Excellency, JOSEPH DUDLEY Esqr. Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England.

A PROCLAMATION.⁶⁸

WHereas Her Majesty by Her Royal Proclamation for Settling and Ascertaining the current Rates of Foreign Coines, in Her Majesties Colonies and Plantations in America; Given at Her Majesties Castle at Windsor, the 18th day of June, in the Third Year of Her Reign: Hath Published Her Royal Pleasure, That all Foreign Coins be reduced to the same current Rates within all Her Dominions in America, according to their Weight and Value, and just proportion which each Coyn ought to have to the other, as in the said Proclamation is particularly set forth and express'd.

But forasmuch, as by the corrupt wicked practices of some ill men, the present running Coins within this Province are so debased & impaired by Rounding and Clipping (notwithstanding the good & wholesome Laws made against the same) to the rendring of Her Majesties Royal Intention impracticable: And will prove of pernicious and fatal Consequence to Her Majesties good Subjects; unless it be speedily prevented.

For Remedy whereof.

I Do, by and with the Advice and Consent of Her Majesties Council, and of the Representatives in General Court Assembled, Declare & Order, That from & after the Publication hereof, No Money shall pass by Tale, but what is of due Weight, according to Her Majesties Proclamation, & the Laws of this Province: That all other light Money & Plate of Sterling Alloy, shall Pass and be good in Payments by the Ounce Troy, pro rato; until the End of the Session of this Court in May next, when further Consideration shall be had thereof. And the Sheriffs of the several Counties are hereby Commanded to Publish this Proclamation within the same:

of Ships bound for London and Bristol under Convoy of the Guernsey, Commadore Huntington, Commander, who has Orders to attend them thro' the Windward Passage, The Account we have received from several of our Traders, gives us cause to believe that the Spaniards upon the Main are tired with the Tyranny of the French, who very much insult them, according to their usual manner.

Governour of Rhode-Island, & under the Seal of that Colony; The Commander & 14 men were sav'd & 3 lost.

Upon Application made by the Commander to His Excellency our Governour, that diligent search might be made after the Goods, His Excellency granted a Warrant, & several of said Goods was found, amounting to about 7 or 800 l. and a Court of Admiralty will be held to Condemn them about the latter end of Feb. next.

THE BOSTON NEWS-LETTER, MARCH 19, 1705

Given at Boston the Eighth Day of March, 1704. In the Fourth Year of Her Majesties Reign.

By His Excellency's

Command,

J. DUDLEY.

Isaac Addington, Secr.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

AS also His Excellency our Governour on said Day in Obedience to Her Majesties Especial Command, Issued forth another Proclamation referring to Navigation. That whereas by the Laws in Force for Navigating Ships and Vessels, 'tis required that the Master and three fourth parts of the Mariners at least be English; yet by a clause of an Act of Parliament, passed in the Third Year of Her Majesties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Recruits, &c. 'Tis Enacted therein: That during this present War and no longer, the Limitation to the Master and three fourths of the Mariners to be English, shall be enlarged to the Master, and one Moiety of the Mariners at least to be English. His Excellency Charges and Requires all Officers of the Customs, Naval Officers, & others Employed or Concerned in and about Trade and Navigation within these Provinces, to take notice of the said Act and to the Observance thereof during this present War, and to conform themselves accordingly.

Piscataqua, March 16. The Briganteen in which our Governour was on Board, being on Saturday last at noon within two miles of our Harbour, and a most violent Storm coming up, we thought it impossible the Briganteen could be saved, which put us all here into a very great Consternation, but last night by an Express from his Excellency at Cape Anne, we had the glad tydings of his safe arrival there, which caused an universal rejoycing here.⁷⁴

The bad weather which we lately had has retarded the Mast Ships being ready so soon as was Expected, and Capt. Morrice⁷⁵ in Her Majesties Ship the Advice designs to Sail for England on Thursday the 22d. Currant with the Mast-Ships, and others under his Convoy.

Capt Bullard arrived last Night at the Isle of Shoals from Barbadoes to Saltitudoes, and from thence hither in Five Weeks, loaden with Salt.

Boston, Monday the 12th Instant, being the Annual Election-day of Town Officers. There was Chosen to Serve as Select or Townsmen Mesieurs Timothy Clark, John Marrion, John Barnet, Daniel Oliver, Elias Heath*, Thomas Fitch, Thomas Jackson, Daniel Pound-* ayed in Boston by this last Visitation is about Quebeck, they would pass the Lake, and by three hundred and twenty, which is not perhaps Land make a Descent upon Mount Real. Accordingly this Colony with some assistance from our kind Neighbours of Plsmouth; fit Months June, July, and August, then 'twas led but an Army of near five and twenty hundred men, and a Navy of two and thirty Sails; that sometimes in some one Congregation of dived men, which went from hence the beginning of the a Lords-day there would be Bills' delirings which went from hence the beginning of the prayers for above an hundred Sick. It seized last August, under the Command of the Honourable Sir William Phips.

In the mean time the English Colonies & Provinces in the West raised Forces, the Numbers whereof have been reported five or six hundred. The Honourable General Winthrop was in the Head of these, and advanced within a few miles of the Lake; He there had some good Number of Maguas to join his Forces, but contrary to his Expectation, it was found that the Canoes to have been ready for the Transportation of the Army over the Lake, were not prepared, and the other Nations of Indians, that should

Altho' Boston did a few weeks ago, meet have come to this Campaign, sent their Ex- with a Disaster by Fire, which consumed about twenty Houses near the Milk-Creek, yet among them, and some other Trifles. The about midnight, between the sixteenth and General Meeting with such vexing disappointments, called a Council of War, where in was agreed, That it was impossible for them to prosecute their Intended Expedition. However he dispatched away the Maguas to the French Forts, who returned with some Success, having slain several of the French, and brought home several Prisoners, of the People to put out the Fire. There young man belonging to the House where coming back to Albany, there happened a the Fire began, unhappily perished in the misunderstanding, between him and the Lieutenant Governor of New York which occasioned much discourse, but produced not those effects which were feared of it. Where lay the bottom of these miscarriages is variously conjectured, if any People further West than Albany, have been Tampering with the Indians, to desert the business of Canada, we hope time will discover it. And if Almighty God will have Canada to be subdued without the assistance of those miserable Salvages, in whom we have too much confided, we shall be glad, that there will be no Sacrifice offered up to the Devil, upon this occasion; God alone will have all the Glory.

It is possible, we have not so exactly related the Circumstances of this business, but this Account, is as near exactness, as any that could be had, in the midst of many various reports about it.

Another late matter of discourse, has been an unaccountable destruction befalling a body of Indians, that were our Enemies. This body of French Indians had a Post somewhere far up the River, and a party of Albany's returning from the East Country, where they have at a great rate pursued and terrified these Indians which have been invading of our North-East Plantations, and Killed their General Hope Hoot among the rest; resolved

Pappon from Penobscot, in a small Shallop, wherein he had used to attend upon the pleasure of Casheen, but took his opportunity to run away, and reports: That a Vessel of small Bulk bound from Bristol to Virginia, having been so long at Sea, till they were prest with want, put in at Penobscot instead of Piscataqua, where the Indians and French seized her, and Butchered the Master, and several of the men: but that himself who belonged unto the Ships Crew, being a French man, was more favourably used, & found at length an advantage to make his Escape.

The chief discourse of this month has been about the affairs of the Western Expedition against Canada. The Albany, New York and the five Nations of Indians, in the West, had long been pressing of the Massachusetts, to make an Expedition by Sea, into Canada, and still made us believe, that they stayed for us, and that while we assaulted ing, and Joseph Prout, who is also Town Clerk and Town Treasurer. And the Overseers of the Poor are, Simeon Stoddard, Thomas Brattle, Thomas Palmer, Samuel Lynd, Esquires. Captains, Ephraim Savage, William Clark, Mesieurs Elizur Holyoke, John Borland, Benjamin Walker, Henry Deering, Stephen Minot and Will. Wellsteed. There was also Chosen Eight Constables, 4 whereof have Fined, so must adjourn their Names till they are compleated at a new Election. There was also Chosen 16 Thything-men, 4 Surveyors of High-ways, 3 Sealers of Leather, 6 Scavengers, 4 Hog-Reeves, and 4 Fence viewers.

Those that have this Mark * before their Names are new Officers. ⁷⁶

On Thursday last, We had the good News of the Governour's being safe Arrived in Cape Anne Harbour, having been forced to Cutt away all the Masts of the Briganteen upon which he was Imbarqued, and Ride under Cape Anne four days in an extraordinary Storm of Wind; but the Briganteen being New and her ground Tackle Good, she was Saved from falling upon the Rocks of that Cape to the Leward all that time; And is now returned to this place to the great Rejoycing of all Her Majesties good Subjects of both the Provinces. ⁷⁷

Entered Outward Bound, Hathorn for Newfoundland, Cornish for Pensilvania. Coasters Inwards, Hedge from Cape-Cod, Lewis from Barnstable, Hedge from Yarmouth, & Coffin from Nantucket. Coasters Outwards, Lathrop and Loring for Conecticut. Foreign Inwards, Goddard from Fyall. Cleared Outwards, Waters for Newfoundland, and Cutler for Pensilvania.

THE BOSTON NEWS-LETTER, MARCH 26, 1705

New-Port Rhode Island, March 19. Monday the 12th Instant, being a very Stormy day of Thunder, Lightning, Wind & Rain; The last flash of Lightning and clap of Thunder that fell about 12 a Clock at noon, broke on or near the House of Mr. Tho. Brooks near the Northermost end of this Town, it almost broke down the South-end of his House, tearing the Clapboards off in several places, broke several Windows to pieces, and the Glass broke the plank clear through in several places of the Sides, and tore the Clapboards off the sides three or four foot wide, broke down most of the Tonnel of his Chimney, shiver'd several of the main Rafters all in pieces, 'it left an impression of the colour as though it had been rubb'd with Powder, and caus'd a smell of Sulphur all over the House; and though the man of the House was lying on a Bed just by a Window that was shivered all to pieces, and his Wife looking out at the door, yet they received no damage in their persons, it started the shelter over the Cellar door three inches out of his place, kill'd some Fowls in the Henroost, broke the Eggs under them, drove one Fowl up in the Air, which fell down dead. It broke a Bolt of Iron almost an inch thick, besides several other observations.

On the 15th, Veal and Waters entered from Boston, Moses Butterworth from Barbadoes, last from Boncyr with Salt, says, That Capt. Halsy was at Coracoa in Consort with Capt. Port-Royal in Jamaica, Decemb. 27th. Five Vessels are arrived here from Boston in N. England, viz. Bodwin on the 21st Currant, Wing the 22d, Shoot the 24th, and Hoddy and Marshal the 25th. Lumber is in great demand here, as Staves, Hoops, Boards, &c. To morrow several Vessels design to Sail for England. The Dutch our Rivals in Trade upon the Coast of New Spain, where they swarm, have almost worm'd us out of Trade; our Vessels that went a Trading had all or most of them Commissions against the French and Spaniards, and expressly forbid by our Governour, to molest the Spaniards on Land at all, or on Sea while they were on a Trading Account; which though they strictly observ'd, yet our cunning Rivals improv'd it very much to our disadvantage, suggesting to the Spaniards that 'twas absolutely unsafe for them to deal with those that had a Commission, to make them, and what was theirs a lawful Prize: And thereby have so far gained their ends, that till some other measures are taken, we are like to have little or no Trading with them. However, tho Trade is dull, the Building of Port-Royal goes on briskly; and many stately Houses daily setting up, our Church far better than was before the Fire.

81 Maurice. See foot-note 63 ante.

Philadelphia, March 5. On Thursday last arrived here a Sloop from Virginia, who saw on the Monday before 6 or 7 Ships Enter into the Capes of Virginia. And this day arrived another Sloop from thence, who says, That about 16 Sail of Bristol and Liverpool Ships were just arrived, & had about 5 weeks passage. And that Letters from London did say, That the London Fleet from Virginia would not Sail till August next. It's said there was the greatest pressing of men in England that was ever known. A Sloop belonging to New-York was forced on Shore at the Horekills, and Peter Vander-scure the Pilot was froze to death. Last week two Sloops Sail'd for Virginia, one of them belong'd to Rhode-Island, Peter Bourdin Master.

Philadelphia, March 19. The 12th Currant 3 persons were drowned by the oversetting of a Wherry coming from Burlington hither, 5 other persons in it were saved. On the 15th arrived Capt. THIS Publick Printed News-Letter was undertaken to be Published for a Publick Good, to give a true Account of all Foreign and Domestick Occurrences, and to prevent a great many false reports of the same, and was propounded to be Printed for one year for a tryal viz. from the 14th of April last, to the 1st of May next, to see if the Income by the Sale thereof at a moderate price would be sufficient encouragement to defray the necessary Charge expended in the procuring and Printing of the same, which Charge is considerable beyond what most people conceive it to be, besides the trouble and fatigue attending it; all which would be too long here to enumerate, yet for some satisfaction, we will venture to set down some of the Charges and trouble that arises thereby, & leave other-some to rational persons to conceive of.

84 Maurice. See foot-note 63 ante.

85 Reprinted from the News-Letter in Notes, in The Acts and Resolves . . . of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay: . . . , Vol. VIII, p. 504. Therein are narrated the circumstances under which this new "galley" or ship of war was built by the Province. The vessel was hurried for launching by reports of two vessels sighted off the coast, believed to be French privateers.

1. The Undertaker has several setts of the several Prints from England, & sent him in several Vessels, that being time of War might have one sett if the rest should be taken, which are ordered to come by all Vessels coming to our Continent where the Post is settled almost 500 miles from E. to W. from N Hampshire to Pensilvania. 2. Correspondents settled in several other Ports & places our Shipping goes to, for sending Intelligence. 3. Waiting on Masters, Merchants and others when Ships & Vessels arrive to have from them what Intelligence they can give. 4. Waiting on His Excellency or Secretary for approbation of what is Collected. 5. Paper & Printing, &c. And when so done as we said before, we set the half Sheet at a more moderate price than it was set at in Exeter in England, where they began to Print much about the same time that we began here, here it was set at 2d. and there it was at 2d. and that sterling money, & when sent out to any house in Town inclosed, they were to have Twenty Shillings per Annum, and it was propounded here to be sent out for Twelve Shillings per Annum, tho' the paper and labour, & other Charges here is 4 times at least dearer than it is at Exeter. And tho' it was proposed at such moderate Rates for both Town & Country, having had 11 months experience of the Income, & trouble & charge in procuring & Printing it; the Undertaker is money out of Pocket, & has not sufficient to defray the necessary Charge; and unless some better encouragement be given for the future, it must drop: & therefore several being desirous it should not drop but be continued, we thought fit to insert this Advertisement, That either the price for the half Sheet a week, and the Quarterly and Yearly Customers must be augmented, or else there must be more of them Sold, and more Quarterly & Yearly Customers than was last year. And therefore all Persons in Town and Country, in this & the Neighbouring Provinces who have not already paid according to their agreement for this Currant Year for said News-Letter, are now desired to do it: And those also who have a mind to encourage the supporting & printing of the said publick News-Letter for another Year, are hereby Advertised by word or writing to agree with John Campbell Post-Master of Boston for the same: That before the Year is elapsed it may be known if it can be undertaken for the next.

The Masters of the foresaid Foreign Ships shall also pay to the Society or their Receivers here five per cent for the true value of all Goods both Imported and Exported upon the like forfeiture as abovesaid: Also that for each Horse, Cow or neat Beast brought in here shall be paid 3 Guilders money; As also each last or 2 Tons their Ships contain 3 Guilders coming in, and 3 Guilders going out, and the Receiver may cause an Apprizal of the Goods outward bound in said Ships if he pleases, and get the Ships remeasur'd And all this Liberty of Foreign Trade is by way of trial to prove the Experiment.

R*An-away on Monday night last the 23d Currant from his Master Abraham Blish Hatter in Boston a young man named William Rogers, about 18 years of Age, of a middle Stature, fair fac'd, light coloured curl'd hair, he has a light colour'd Coat trim'd with Black, and a sad coloured Coat trim'd with the same colour, a saggathy colour'd Jacket like a Searge, and a strip't holland Jacket. with 2 pair of Breeches of the same, and 1 pair of cloth, a black Hat. Whosoever shall take up said Servant, and him safely convey to his above-said Master, or the Post-Master of Boston, or give any true Intelligence of him, so as his Master may have him again, shall have a sufficient Reward and Charges.*

THE Undertaker of this publick Print in Numb. 51. gave you an Advertisement of his motive to Print, of the trouble and charge attending it: and of his intentions to do it one year for tryal, which according to his ability and information received, is now accomplished; wherein you have successively all the Foreign Occurrences of Europe, from the 1st of November, 1703. to the middle of December, 1704. And if any will consult the Publick Prints of England in that time, considering that they Print 2 or 3 times in a week, & that we did Print here but once in a week; they will find no one piece of material News that is in them, omitted in ours: As also in our Prints you have the publick Occurrences from the West-Indies and other parts: and likewise those from our Neighbouring-Provinces, besides those of this and the Province of New-Hampshire. All which Intelligence, tho' some few Gentlemen and Merchants might have all or some part thereof, yet for the most part the people in general, in this and the Neighbouring Provinces, have it not, and what they have, variously, and often falsely reported: and a great many Providences now Recorded, that would otherwise be lost: And the Undertaker, tho' very sensible of his own inability for such a task, yet upon due encouragement given, is willing to try it for another year, unless some generous Soul (out of the many far better qualified, especially of those that are so apt & ready to carp at his weakness) will please to undertake it; and no one shall be found more ready to contribute for his so doing, then the present Undertaker.

The Boston News-Letter.

From Monday May 7. to Monday May 14. 1705.

NY

[BEGINNING with a review of European affairs for the year 1704, this issue is nearly all taken up with that review and an account of the battle at St. Johns, Newfoundland. Among the domestic items are reports upon French and Indian War matters brought from Quebec.]

London, December 28. 1704.

THIS year drawing near its conclusion, we shall take this opportunity, according to our usual method, to present the Reader with an Epitomie of the Transactions of the last Campaign; and endeavour to draw them into such an order, that all of them may appear in view. I am sensible that this is very difficult, if not altogether impossible, because of the many wonderful things that have been transacted this year; but as we do only design to hint at things, and not to describe them, we hope the Reader will kindly supply what shall be found wanting, especially considering what we have said at large of those Transactions in the times wherein they happen'd. [Then follows the beginning of a resume of the foreign news of the year, filling nearly two columns of the first page.]

St. Johns, Newfoundland, April 21. At break of day on Sunday Morning the 21st of January last, our Harbour was beset with about Six or Seven hundred men, viz. French Souldiers, Inhabitants and Fishermen from Placentia Some Accadians as Pessemeguady and Port Royall, and Cannadians from Quebeck and places adjacent, and 50 N-England Eastern Indians, with Easecombuit their Captain, all under the Command of Monsieur Supercosse Governour of Placentia; who made the whole Harbour Prisoners of War in two hours time excepting the Garrison which was the Fort & Castle. The Enemy the night before, lay near the Harbour in the Snow that was 6 Foot deep on the ground, and durst not make any Fires for fear of being discovered; Monsieur Supercosse being wet and cold gave orders in the Morning at the first Attack to give no quarters, and accordingly they kill'd all at the first houses they came to: But the Cannadians and Indians withstood Monsieur Supercosse, and gave quarters for a Season. The Enemy sent the Women and Children about 142 into the Garrison: They laid Siege to it five Weeks time, there was not a man that got into the Fort but three, and about 17 that got from the Southside of the Harbour into the Castle: In the Fort were only 40 men under the Command of brave Capt. Moody, who behaved himself most valiantly, and in the Castle were 12 Souldiers and the 17 Inhabitants under the Command of Mr. Latham. Monsieur Supercosse took a Child and barbarously cut its throat, and sent it by a Souldier with a Message to the Garrison, That if they did not Surrender to him, he would so serve all therein, and the Prisoners that he had taken; upon which Capt. Moody bid the Messenger be gone else he would shoot him, replying to Monsieur Supercosse's Message, That both himself & the men of the Fort & Castle were resolved to dye with their Sword in hand ere they Surrendered; Capt. Moody plyed the Enemy so with great Guns, Bombs and Morters, that there was killed of the Enemy with their own Confession between 180 and 200 men; And on our side there was but two men kill'd in the Garrison, and one at the Castle, but there was kill'd about 30 and Captivated of our men about 130 at our Harbour and other places. The Indians Murthered 7 men at Torbay, and the French barbarously Murthered 6 more because they could not carry so great a burthen 6 Miles through the Woods as the Enemy would have them. The Enemy finding that they could not take the Fort and Castle, They burnt all the houses here but 5 and the Church, and went back to the Southward burning and demolishing all where they came: They burnt all Ferryland and hove the Salt out of Doors. Monsieur Supercosse gave orders to the Indians and Cannadians to cross over the Land to Conception Bay, Trinity and Bonavist, and there to burn and destroy all where they came. But after the Frenches departure from St. John's Advice was sent to Carboniere and other places and the Inhabitants of Carboniere got upon the Island with most of their effects, and having 5 Guns they were supplied with Ammunition and Small Arms from the Garrison of St. John's and defended themselves; but the Indians burnt all their Stages and Boats: And we hope the other places did also secure and defend themselves from the Enemy. Monsieur Supercosse sent back several of the Prisoners but carryed with him the most of the able Fishermen. Capt. Wane from Boston arrived at St. John's the 9th of April, and Capt. Moody Commander in Chief Imprest the Sloop to carry a Packet to England, to give an Account of the whole affair: Capt. Pickman also arrived from Boston said day, and the 16th of April arrived Capt. Pickering at Ferryland from Boston. There is no other Vessels arrived from Europe, or any other place. We expect a Squadron of Men of War towards the Fall.

Portsmouth, N. Hampshire, May 11. Samuel Hill of Wells (who was taken Captive by the Indians) came hither on Fryday night, last from Quebeck with two French men sent by the Governour of Canada, who brought Letters from him and Capt. Livingston to His Excellency our Governour; Capt. Livingston arrived there the 26th of February, and designs to be back the 20th of this Month, with the Governour of Canada's proposals for Exchange of Prisoners: There is 100 of our Captives in the hands of the French, and about 70 Children with the Indians.⁹⁰ A small party of French and Indians went about the beginning of November last to Placentia, to joyn the Forces there in order to make an Attack upon St. John's in Newfoundland, among whom was Eascombuit. Several of our Eastern Indians at Canada are not pleased with the French Treatment, the Governour not being able to supply them according to promise, by reason of the Miscariage of their Store-Ship. They have not had the Small Pox as was reported but the Measels. Provisions are not plenty among them. There was about 600 French, and Indians of near equal number in the Expedition to Lancaster last year, many of whom dyed in their return, and several since, they were almost Starved, and constrained to eat the bark of Trees: Their chief Commander continues yet ill. A few days after Capt. Livingston's arrival at Quebeck the Governour ordered about 500 Indians to be made ready for some Expedition, they give out that it is to be a guard to that place, but 'tis to be feared that they have a design upon New-England. When Mr. Hill and the two Frenchmen came to Kinnebeck they met with a Track of about 30 Indians as they judged, and about the same time they came here from Casko, a man and two Children were kill'd near Mr. Curtis's house at Spruse Creek, 3 Women and several Children taken away Captive: There was about 10 Indians discovered; His Excellency has ordered Major Walton to detach a Company to Scout from Nitchewanock to Wells, and Col. Hilton to detach another to Scout from Kingstoun near Exeter to Nitchewanock.

NY

[BEGINNING the first column of the first page of this issue is a continuation of the review of the year 1704 and this fills three columns, ending with the editorial paragraph immediately below.]

These are the chief Transactions in the year 1704 which has been in particular so Glorious to the Arms of England and the States, and which promises us so many advantages in the next, and gives us hopes that GOD will at last hear the Cries of the Oppressed, and deliver the Christian World from the miseries they groan under, through the Ambition of a Prince, who since the begining of his Reign, has made it wholly his business to disturb the Peace of Mankind. While the rest of the World is expos'd to the Calamities inseparable from War, England alone enjoys the benefits of Peace, under the Government of a QUEEN, who is the delight of her Subjects, as well as the Terror of her Enemies. We have felt little or nothing of the effects of the War and the Promises in Psal. 144 to the People who have the Lord for their God, have been litterally fulfill'd in our case. We have had plenty of everything, there has been no leading into Captivity, no complaining in our Streets. Happy England, if we do but know our own Happiness, and do not provoke by our Divisions and Sins the Almighty to withdraw from us the visible marks of his Favour and Protection.

London, March 2. Via New-York, per Capt. Potter we have the following advice, That Capt. Rymes was loaden ready to Sail for Boston, but was stopt by an Embargo. [FOREIGN news, comprising a large part of this issue, is mainly from Vienna, Paris, Venice, Ratisbon and Genoa. From "Smolensko in Muscovy, December 25," 1704, there is an account of the czar's treatment of his rebellious subjects: "some are hang'd; others Beheaded; others again Burned, and some even wasted. The Czar, who has exiled the Princess Sophia, his Sister to Silk, has also caused the Hands of his Brother-in-law to be saw'd off with a wooden Saw."]

Barbadoes May 24th. Some few days ago there arrived here a Pacquet from England, by whom we have the following Advice, That he left England the 10th. of April, and just before his Sayling there was brought into Plymouth, Thirteen Sail of French Privateers, from 20 to 36 & 40 Guns a piece. And that two English men of War nigh the Channel of England met with a French Fleet from Martinico bound for France, under convoy of a Man of War of 60 Guns, and Sunk the French man of War and Took 6 of the Merchant men, whom they brought in. And also confirms Sir John Leake's Action at Gibraltar.

The Fleet bound hence for London consisting of about 40 Sail under Convoy of Her Majesties Ship the Warrick of 50 Guns, will Sail in 17 days, with whom will Sail the Vessels bound for New-England. James Berry arrived here in 8 days after the arrival of the Fleet from Boston. The Warrick Man of War has taken Two Tramponsis, and three French Merchant men, which are brought in here. There is a Flag of Truce gone from hence to Martinico, in order to Settle the Castel for the Exchange of Prisoners.

'Tis also reported, That there was about 12 or 14 Sail of Ships bound from France to Martinico loaden with Stores and Provisions who were taken by a Squadron of our Men of War, near the Channel of England.

Philadelphia, June 8th. On Sunday last arrived here Joshua Cornish, and Clement Jackson Sailed the 4th. Currant for Piscataqua. The Virginia Fleet from England is dayly expected at Virginia.

to visit this Fort; but they found the Fort ruined, the Cannon cut to pieces, and the people all either butchered or Captived, This gave them no little surprize, and they gave the English this account of it. That a body of Algonquins lately returning from the Spoil of Canada brought several French Prisoners with them; That sailing at this Fort in their way, the Indians there seeing themselves unable to resist them did pass divets Complements with them and partake of their Booties, That a French Captive after their escaping from the Algonquins informed the French that these Indians had revolted unto the Algonquins, and hereupon the French or their Indians made a sudden Sally forth upon them, and utterly destroyed them, tho' they were in reality of their own party still.

Two English Captives escaped from the hands of the Indians and French at Piscataway, came into Portsmouth on the sixteenth Instant & say, That when Capt. Mason was at Port Real, he cut the faces, and ripped the bellies of two Indians, and threw a third Over board in the sight of the French, who informing the other Indians of it, they have in revenge barbarously butcher'd forty Captives of ours that were in their hands.

These two Captives escaped in a Shallop, which our Enemies intended to have set out with all the Circumstances of a Fishing Shallop but to have indeed find it with Indians that should have Clap'd on board any English 200 Shipping with him of one fort or other, above one hundred Sail daily run between Ireland and England, with meat for Man and Beast; His Majesty being unwilling to trust France in much trouble (and fear) not only with us but also with his Son, who has revolted against him lately, and has great reason,) if reports be true, that the Father used to lie with the Sons Wife. He has got all the Hugonots, and all the dissatisfied Papists, with the great force of the D. of Lorraine, and are now against him, resolving to depose him of his life and Kingdom.

It's Reported the City of Cork in Ireland, has proclaimed K. William, and turned their French Landlords out of Doors; of this there wants further Confirmation.

From Plsmouth Sept. 22. We have an Account, that on Friday the 12th Instant, in the night, our Forces Landing privately, forthwith surrounded Peytscow Fort; but finding no Indians there, they March'd to Amnis-coggin. There on the Lords-day, they kill'd and took 15 or 16 of the Enemy, and recovered five English Captives, mostly belonging to Oyster River; who advised, that the men had been gone about ten days down to a River, to meet with the French, and the French, Indians; where they expected to make up a body of 300 men, and design first against Wells or Wiscataqua. On Tuesday, the Army came to our Vessels we were coming this way to War, but crossing a path which they supposed to be of the Minutemen's, they followed it until they discovered a place where some Canoes were making, whereupon twenty Kennebeck Indian Warriors went to look further after the business, who never yet returned. Which gives hope that they may come short home, but upon this the Squads are sent to Penobscot, and the men stand on their Defence.

Portsmouth Sept. 20th. Two days since arrived here a small Vessel from Beverly, in which is a Letter to Captain H. K. of 19th August that speaks thus,

Christopher is wholly taken from the French as also a small Island called Stacia; we are very strong in Shipping, and our Ships of War are now gone for Tobago, a very good place to shelter from any Storms, after the suspicious months are over, they will Attack the rest of the French places. We have News here that K. William is safe arrived in Ireland, and is marched with one hundred and forty thousand Foot and Horse. Himself leads the Body, Duke Somburgh the right Wing, and the Earl of Oxford the left Wing, Duke Hamilton of Scotland leads the forlorn Hope with one thousand men under him. Great victory they daily have, and much people daily come in to him, with submission: He has a Grond stopt a Tide; by which means, young Bracker, who was a considerable distance up the River, above Amonocoggin Fort, being advised by an Indian that ran away from Amonocoggin, that an English Army was there, attempted his Escape, and came down to the Sloop just as they came on their Sail.

On Thursday, they landed at Saco; a Scout of 60 men of ours discover a party of the Enemy, and had the Advantage of killing three of them, and of taking nine Canoes; and an English captive named, Thomas Bak, who informed, that the Enemy had left a considerable Plunder at Pegypscut Plains, which he supposed the Enemy was gone to secure. Whereupon the Army immediately embark'd, and arriving there that night, the next morning found the Beverly Plunder accordingly.

While our Vessels where at Anchor in Cape-Bay, our Auxiliary Indians lodging on shore, and being too careless in their Watch, the Enemy made an Attack upon them. The English forth with repair'd to their Relief; but were sorely galled, by an Embuscado of Indians, The Enemy soon quitted the Field, escaping with their Canoes, whereof ours took several. In the Surprise, we lost 9 men, and had about 20 wounded; the blew chiefly fell on our dear Friends, the Plimouth Forces, 15 being kill'd and wounded of Captain Somworth's Company.

New-York. June 11th. His Excellency the Lord Cornbury arrived here on Saturday Morning from his Government of New-Jersey. Our Assembly has been Adjourned to this day, not being a Quorum on Saturday last to choose a Speaker. Entered Outwards, Kersteed for Boston, Freebody for Bermuda, Basden for Antigua, and Cawley for Curacoa.

New-Port, Rhode-Island, June the 15th. Yesterday arrived here one Smith from Suranam five Weeks Passage: There is also come in here William Mash in a Sloop from Boston, who brought in with him a Parmaceti Whale, about 30 Foot long.

[ONLY one column of foreign news appears in this issue and that is of the January preceding from Hamburg, Venice, Hague and elsewhere. The principal features of the domestic news are, the speech of Governor Cornbury to the General Assembly of New York; reports of earthquake shocks in Boston and neighboring towns and the account of a privateer in New York harbor.]

Philadelphia, June 14. A Briganteen from Hundoras, one Griffin Master, is arrived at New-Castle, she carries 8 Guns and Patteraro's, 12 men, coming thro' the Gulph off of Cuba, they were Chased by a Ship, with whom they exchanged several great and small Shot, taking each other for Enemies; The Ship prov'd to be Capt. Penniston, his Sloop was in Company, one of the Briganteen's men had his Hand Shot off, who is put on Board Capt. Pennistone to be cured.

Three persons were drowned last week by the oversetting of a Boat going down the River from Philadelphia, one of them a Negro Boy.

New-York, June 18. On Thursday last a Ship arrived here from Fyall, and a Sloop from North-Carolina, they were Chased in by a French Privateer, as was Captain Coward, who was bound for England, Via Virginia.

On the 16th. Capt. Outerbridge and some of his men came to Town and relate, that on the 3d. Instant he Sailed out of Sandyhook, bound for Jamaica loaded with Provisions, and was taken by a Privateer from Martinico about 150 Leagues off, and that his Sloop (with Mrs. Antill and her children who were Passengers on Board) is sent to Martinico.

That on the 14th Instant the same Privateer came to Sandyhook, and in the night sent up her Boat to the Narrows with design to take Capt. Potter who was then Loaden at the Watering place bound for Nevis, but the Boat could not find him; about 10 days before, they took a small Sloop belonging to one Godfrey of this Town, loaded with Pitch and Tarr which they burnt, one Reynolds was Master of her, and 'tis said sides with the French, and is a Pilot to them on this Coast, and has informed them of our Vessels expected and Outward bound. The Privateers perceiving they were discovered, Capt Outerbridge and his men and Godfrey perswaded them to land them at Sandyhook, which they did, and afterwards stood along shore to the Southward. Yesterday News was brought that they had Landed in East-New-Jersey a little beyond Neversincks, and had burnt 2 Country Houses. On Sunday the 10th Instant, the Cetty Privateer, Capt. Bond for England, Via Virginia, and 2 Sloops sailed out of Sandyhook, and happily mist this Privateer. A Ship, a Briganteen and 2 Sloops are fitted out here, and will Sail this day under the Command of Col. Peartree in pursuit of her. This Privateer is a Ship of 10 Guns, 150 Tons or thereabouts, 120 men, one Clapo Captain, who has a Brother lives at Boston or thereabouts, some say that is a Nick-Name, some that he is a French-man, & others, an Irish-man. They tell us a new Briganteen from New-York was carried in to Martinico a few days before this Privateer Sailed, which we fear is Capt. Perkins in a fine Briganteen the 1st Voyage, & bound for Barbadoes.

His Excellency has laid an Embargo in this Province. Here are 5 Sachems of the French Indians come to Town as I am told, to treat with his Excellency our Governour, about liberty to Settle among our Indians the 5 Nations, and that they will leave the French; some of them were at Deerfield when the mischief was done there. Our Assembly have Voted the Raising 1607 l. for the Defence of the Fronteers.

Our Assembly is now Sitting, and William Nicoll Esq. is chosen Speaker, who was approv'd of by his Excellency.

His Excelency EDWARD Viscount Cornbury, Captain General and GOVERNOUR in Chief in and over Her MAJESTY's Colony of New-York, and Territories depending thereon, &c. His Speech¹⁰⁵ to the Honourable the COUNCIL and Representatives in General Assembly now Sitting in the City of New-York, upon Thursday the 14th of June, 1705.

Gentlemen,

I Am sorry the QUEEN's service in the Neighbouring Province, and the ill Weather we have lately had, have hindered me from meeting this Assembly so soon as I at first intended; however, I hope you will still have time enough to dispatch such things as may be necessary to be provided for at this time. Those which I shall more particularly Recommend to the care of you Gentlemen of the House of Representatives, are these,

First, That a Sum may be provided sufficient to pay One Hundred Fuzileers, and Fifty Out-scouts, with their proper Officers, to be sent to Albany and places adjacent, for the Defence of the Fronteers for one year, and likewise that Provision may be made for their going up to & returning from Albany, and likewise for Bedding for them while they are there: This is of absolute Necessity at this time, because I have received an account of a Design of the Waghana Indians, with several other Nations in amity with the French, to Attack our Five Nations, who if they see that we are either not willing or not able to support and defend them against their Enemies, will the more easily be perswaded to go over to the French; the ill Consequences whereof are so well known, that I need not mention them to you, nor will I now trouble you with any particulars of this News, because I had it from those Gentlemen who are chosen to serve in this Assembly for the County of Albany, and who are well able to inform you of the Truth of that matter.

The Next thing I recommend to your Care, is the providing such a Sum as may be sufficient to pay and defray the Charges of the Detachment sent up to Albany for the Defence of the Fronteers last fall, an Account whereof shall be laid before you.

I must take notice to you, That the Bill for settling the Militia, which was passed in the year 1702. is expired by its own Limitation; I think 'tis very necessary that Act should be Revived.

The Difficulties which some very worthy Ministers of the Church of England have met with in the getting the Maintenance settled upon them by an Act of the General Assembly of this Province, passed in the Year 1693, moves me to propose to you the passing an Act explanatory of the afore-mentioned Act, that those worthy good Men who have 105 In Journal of the Votes and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Colony of New York. The Gaine Edition, Vol. I, p. 196. The News-Letter print differs slightly with the Journal. The speeches of Cornbury to the New York Assembly, which are printed from time to time in the News-Letter, clearly reflect the condition of public affairs in that colony. The governor constantly stirred the popular assemblies to acrimonious contention regarding legislative rights and royal prerogatives.

ventured to come so far for the Service of GOD in his Church, and the good and edification of the People, to the Salvation of their Souls, may not for the future be vexed, as some of them have been, but may enjoy in quiet that Maintenance which was by a Law provided for them. I farther Recommend to you the passing an Act to provide for the Maintenance of some Ministers in some of the Towns at the East end of Long-Island, where I don't find any Provision has been yet made for propagating Religion.

The next thing which I think does very highly deserve your serious Thoughts, is, the laying a Duty upon all European Goods imported into this Colony from any of the Neighbouring Provinces, whereas now those Goods pay no greater Duties than those which come directly from England. I did recommend this matter to the last Assembly, and I am afraid the not doing of it at that time has been a considerable Prejudice to the Trade of this Province, and I am perswaded, that unless effectual care be now taken in that matter, the Trade of this place will not only become precarious, but our Navigation will be entirely ruined. I am of Opinion it would be very proper to lay a Duty upon all Rum and other Spirits imported from any place whatsoever, except England and Her Majesties Islands in the West-Indies; I therefore earnestly recommend to your care the preparing such a Bill as may effectually answer the ends proposed.

I further recommend to your Considerations, whether the passing an Act to discourage the Exportation of Corn, and to encourage the Exportation of Flower from this Province, would not be a good advantage to Trade.

I observe, that during the late War, at a time when much greater Sums were given for the Defence of the Fronteers, than have ever been demanded since the beginning of this, the Assemblies in those times thought fit to grant several Sums of Money towards the discharging the Debts of the Province; whether it is not as reasonable to take the same Methods now to discharge the Debts which were contracted before my coming to this Government, I leave to your Considerations; only I think it a Duty incumbent on me to put you in mind of it, that the People to whom those Debts are due, may not think themselves neglected.

I am of Opinion it will be necessary to pass an Act to prevent the Clipping and Defacing the Foreign Coyn which has currency in this Province. And another for the more effectual suppressing of scandalous Houses and Bawdy-Houses, & to prevent scandalous Women from coming from the Neighbouring Provinces to live in this. And another to punish Negro, Indian and Mallatto Slaves, and to prevent them from running away from their Masters.

These, Gentlemen, are the things I thought fit to propose to your Considerations at this time. I must now acquaint you, that Her most Sacred Majesty, the QUEEN, has been pleased to order, That for the future no Governour, Lieut. Governour or Commander in Chief of this Province shall receive any Gift or Present from the Country: which Order you will find entered in your Journals. All the Returns the Queen expects for easing you from the burthen of those Presents, is, That you contribute more freely to the Defence of the Country.

I have nothing more to offer to you at this time, only Unanimity in your Consultations, and Dispatch in the Matters before you.

Last night by a Sloop from Virginia in 6 days, we are acquainted, That the Strumbulo Man of War had chased the Privateer on that Coast; but could not come up with her, but 3 days afterwards he came up with her again and fired a great many shot into her; upon which Crapo the Privateer threw Overboard his Priaugar, several Casks, & great Guns, and on a sudden it grew calm, which gave him the opportunity of using his Oars, by means whereof he escaped.

Letters from Ham-burgh, Vienna and Lisbon, of February dates, and from Hague, Berlin and Copenhagen in March transmit a variety of war news. About a column and a half on the second page is filled with domestic news.]

St. Johns Newfoundland, July 20. My Last advised of 300 French and Indians intending to make a descent on our Parts; some whereof, if not all, are come to Trinity, Carboniere, and Consumption Bay; they have taken several of the People, and sent them to Placentia, others they used very barbarously, and some have made their escape hither, and to Carboniere-Island, where they are forced to keep; so that the Fishery will be all destroyed excepting here, & at Bona-vist, where the People have given the French and Indians 450 l. not to destroy the place, and yet they threaten them now again. One of Her Majesties Men of War is going to Trinity-Bay.

New-York, August 6 On the first Instant Arrived here Capt. Payne in the Gray-hound Galley from London, she came out with Her Majesties Ship the Lowstoff, and the Fleet bound for Virginia, and the West-Indies, &c. from Plimouth the 19th May last. On the 4th. Instant arrived here Capt. Cumby in the Genoua Galley; She Sailed from Plimouth the last of May with the Grand Fleet bound for Lisbon, whom three days after they came out, took two French Ships outward bound, loaden with Wine & Brandy, by whom they had Intelligence, that 16 or 18 great Men of War were in Brest, and ready to Sail, but not known whither: Whereupon our Fleet stood over to the Coast of France, and some of them lay 3 days in sight of Brest, and others were sent into Camaret Bay, to make the French Ships and found the Intelligence True; upon which the whole Fleet made Sail and stood for Lisbon, and two days afterwards (after a Council of War) Two Flaggs with 20 or 22 good Ships were ordered to return, and to lye off Brest for the coming out of the French Squadron: And the rest of the Fleet proceeded to Lisbon. Capt. Cumby left Fyal about 6 Weeks agoe, and in Company with him a Dogger for Boston, and a Briganteen for Philadelphia. A Sloop is Arrived just now from Jamaica, and sayes, That the Guinea Prize, (mentioned in my last) to be taken by Admiral Whetstone, upon the Coast of New-Spain, is worth Two hundred Thousand Pounds. Vessels Outward bound, are Davis & Creago for St. Thomas, Beard for Carolina, Newenhuysen for Curacoa, Joline for Jamaica, and Gravenraedt for Philadelphia. The Philadelphia Post not yet come in.

Salisbury, August 10. On the 3d. Instant Susanna Griffin of this Town, was found dead in a small Pond of Water about a Foot and an half deep, into which 'tis Judged (through the Violence of Satans Temptations) having first Twisted her Neckcloth very hard about her Neck, she cast her self and was drown'd or suffocated: She was esteemed to be a Person of a Pious and Sober Conversation: And we hope the Inserting of such an awful Providence here may not be offensive, but rather a Warning to all others to watch against the Wiles of our Grand Adversary.

Boston, On Monday the 6th Currant, Mr. Ebenazar Wentworth coming here from the Eastward off Casko, he saw a Shallop, who sent a Boat with 8 hands after him, but they seeing half a dozen hands in his Boat at his Stern, they return'd back again, he judged them to be Enemies. On Thursday the 9th Currant, about 12 at night, Mr. Bryan Smith in a Briganteen from New-Bristol, off Cape Cod, fell in betwixt a Ship and a Sloop, the Sloop having on Board about 25 French-men, who fired some hundred shot at him, but being in his ballast & a good Sayler, he out Sailed them; the Sloop had been taken that day by a French Privateer of 8 Guns, and about 130 men, with part of whom the Sloop was mann'd. On Fryday the 10th Currant, Mr. Smith spoke with Capt. Southack in the Province Galley, who was then in Chase of the said Privateer, Smith kept Company with the Galley all that day; there being but little Wind, and left her in the Evening within 4 miles of them, at which time a Gale sprung up at South-East. On Saturday the 11th Instant, arrived here Thomas Barns from Rhode-Island, and Keersteed in a Sloop from New York, who met a Ketch off Cape-Cod that was in Company with him the day before, and by her working supposed there was no body on Board, and sending his Boat on Board found it so, and supposes that being Chased by a Privateer, the men run on shoar in their Boat; the Ketch is Mr. Oburn from Virginia, which Keersteed has brought in to Nantasket. Several persons arrived here to day that belonged to a Bristol Ship, Thomas Taylor Master, bound for Nevis, who was taken on Thursday last by the French Privateer aforesaid: Others of them belonged to James Blin in a Sloop bound for Connecticut taken also the same day; The Privateer belongs to Martinico, came last from Port-Royal and had about 30 men from thence, which they have sent back with Blin's Sloop, and 2 Sloops that they took belonging to Cape-Anne, one of which is sunk, and have sent Taylor and Blin with them: and seeing our Galley in chase of them, they burnt Taylor's Ship.

Coasters Entered Inwards, Hall, Webber, Parker, Smith, and Gillam from Connecticut. [The announcement of the next meeting of the General Assembly is reprinted, as in the issue of June 30.]

Whereas the Holding the Great and General Court at Boston, and the Superiour Court at Bristol, and the Inferiour Court at Cambridge, at one and the same time, proves now very inconvenient, by reason of the Attendance of several Persons necessarily Required at every of the said Courts; The Justices have therefore Adjourned the Superior Court of Judicature, Court of Assize and General Goal Delivery, which should have been held at Bristol, on Tuesday, the Eleventh of September next; unto Tuesday, the Five and Twentieth day of the said September.

[FROM Edinburgh, April 12, is an account of the hanging of the pirates Green, Madder and Sympson, and there is war news of March and April dates from Paris, Vienna, Hamburg, Turin, Moscow, Hague, Warsaw and elsewhere. Domestic news occupies a little more than one column.]

New-York, Sept. 17. On the 13th Instant, arrived here a Sloop from Curacoa, Charles Sleigh Master, by whom we have advice, that 2 Spanish Privateers lay off Bonira, and upon notice thereof at Curacoa they fitted out 3 Sloops and took them both, & brought them in thither without the loss of a man.

On the 14th Instant, arrived here Capt. Penniston's Privateer Sloop, who parted with Penniston in his Ship 15 days before he arrived off South Carolina, they were in the great Storm, & were there separated from 2 Prize Sloops which they had taken, but whether they are in being, or foundered they know not.

By a Sloop arrived yesterday at Amboy from Curacoa, we are acquainted, that on Fryday last there was seen off Barnagatt one of Capt. Penniston's Prize Sloops, and a Ship without Masts, plying for this Port; we imagine the Ship to be one of the Jamaica Fleet. We are assured, That the Prudent Sarah, Perkins Master, and the Oxenden, Smyton Master, being 2 of the Jamaica Fleet were foundered in the Storm; we know not the certainty of any others besides those mentioned in the Publick Print.

Last week arrived here Teller, Adolph, Degroff & Kersteel from Boston. Vessels Outward Bound are 2 ships for Barbadoes, a Briganteen for Surranam, a Sloop for Jamaica, 2 Ships for London, Clay for Rhode Island, and Derrick Adolph for Boston.

the heighth thereof about 8 hours. Capt Coffin spoke with Mr. Perkins in the Flying Horse after the Storm was over, being one of the same Fleet, who told him, that he lost his Boat, his Horses, Fore-Sail and Gibb, yet designed to proceed on his Voyage to Barbadoes, though Coffin was necessitated to return.

Marblehead, Sept. 22. On Thursday the 20th Currant arrived here John Holicom in a Sloop from Barbadoes bound for Piscataqua, who left Barbadoes the 22d of August, and was taken the 8th Instant, by a French Ship of 10 Guns, from Petiguavus bound to St. Malo's, and said to be the Packet-Boat that came from England to Boston, about 3 years ago; Holicom bought his Vessel of the Captain for 400 l Sterling to be paid in St Malo's, one Bates went Hostage till the Money is paid; Holicom sunk all his Letters ere he was taken.

Holicom says, That there was a Turnado in Barbadoes which begun on the 18 of August, and continued 4 days, which caused a most violent Storm, the Wind came up at S. and backed away to the E. S. E. the heighth of the Storm lasted 18 hours, which has caused a great deal of damage among the shipping in the Road 22 vessels were put on Shoar, Holicom & Fyfield being 2 of them were got off again; & an Irish man was getting off as he came away; a Dutch man from Suranam about 500 Tons loaded with Sugar was staved all to pieces: The Countrys Sloop and Briganteen of War both lost: Great damage sustained among those Vessels that rode out the Storm, some whereof cannot be repaired, a great many men were drowned, one of Her Majesties Men of War lost all her Anchors, lash'd her Guns, & got to Sail as the Wind vier'd.

[SLIGHTLY less than one half of this issue of two pages is devoted to foreign news, including accounts of the visit of the body of Cambridge University to the queen, and affairs in Hungary and Poland. The domestic news includes a proclamation by Governour Dudley for a Public Thanksgiving.]

Port-Royal in Jamaica, Aug. 22. Capt. Ingles a Guinea Merchant-man of 14 Guns and 20 men arrived here about 20 days ago, who met with a Privateer Sloop off of Port-Morant of 6 Guns, & full of men, who boarded him 3 times, casting down Fire-works and Stink Pots amongst the Negroes between Decks, burning and disordering them much: The Captain and his men betaking themselves to close Quarters, fired briskly and so successfully upon the Privateer, that he left 9 of his men dead on the Deck, & concludes he kill'd them 50 men by what he see them fling Overboard.

On the 18th Currant, There was a great Storm of Wind & Rain at N. and rounded to S. S. E & blew very hard, striping the Houses, and blowing the water over the Point, so that Boats might have floated: It forced some Vessels Ashoar, whereof a Bark from New-York, one Pasco Master is one forced to Unload. Many in Town removed their Goods into Upper-Chambers. It damnified a great quantity of Sugar.

New-York Sept. 24. On the 18th. Instant Arrived here a small Prize Sloop taken by Capt. Penniston, loaden with Wine and Brandy; She was taken upon the Coast of New-Spain.

On the 19th Instant, about 10 at night, some of the Privateers begun a Riot before the Sheriffs House of this City, assaulted the Sheriff at his door without any provocation, & beat and wounded several persons that came to his assistance, & in a few minutes the Privateers tumultuously met together in great numbers, upon which Forces were sent out of the Fort to suppress them, and the Sheriff, Officers and some men belonging to Her Majesties Ships made a Body to do the same, but before these Forces could meet with them, the Privateers unhappily met Li[e]jut. Wharton Featherstone-Hough, and Ensign Alcock, (two Gentlemen of the Hon. Col. Livesay's Regiment that came in the Jamaica Fleet, who were peaceably going home to their Lodgings) and barbarously murdered the first, and grievously wounded the latter, in several places in the head, and bruised his Body; & after they had knock'd him down several times, and got his Sword, some of them run Lieut. Featherstone-Hough in at the left side thro' his heart (as is supposed with Ensign Alcock's Sword) of which wound he immediately dyed. Just as the Fact was done, the Privateers were attacked by the Sheriff, Officers and Seamen of Her Majesties Ships, and some of the Town, & in a short time were obliged to fly; several of both sides were wounded, some of the Privateers were then taken Prisoners, and several since, who are committed, & do believe will suffer according to Law; the Souldiers killed one of the Privateers that was flying from them. One Erasmus Wilkins was apprehended on Saturday last, & Committed, and by the Evidence 'tis believed he is the man that murdered Li[e]jut. Featherstone-Hough; it would be too tedious to relate the particulars, but their insolence is beyond expression; this Riot was chiefly acted by the Privateers belonging to the Briganteen Dragon, Capt. Gincks, Commander.

One the 21st. Arrived here Capt. Penniston in his Ship (which in our last we supposed to be one of the Jamaica Fleet) he lost his Masts in the Storm, and put into Carolina; his best Prize is yet missing, which is a New Sloop well found, and has on board one hundred & six quarter Casks of French Brandy, Linnens, and other Goods; he hopes she'l be here in a few days, he lost her in the Storm.

We hear this Morning that Capt. Penniston's Prize is Arrived at New Castle disabled by the Storm, and is there fitting to proceed hither.

Capt. Renier Tongrelou and others have bought the Cole and Been Gally, a Ship upwards of 200 Tons, and 18 Guns, and is now fitting of her for a Privateer, and intends to carry 160 Men. Capt. Penniston is also about to fit his Ship, and designs out with her in Consort, they will Sail before Winter.

¹¹⁹ Kalendarium Nov-Anglicanum, or an Almanack For . . . 1706, by Samuel Clough.

THE BOSTON NEWS-LETTER, OCTOBER 22, 1705

Jamaica on Long-Island, Octob. 11 On Fryday the 5th Currant Dyed here the Reverend Mr. John Hubbard, Pastor of a Church in this place. Aged 28 years 9 months wanting 4 days, Buried the 7th.

New-York, Octob. 15. Last week returned hither Her Majesties Ship the Lowstoff, who Sailed out of the Capes of Virginia 2d Instant, in Company with the Homeward bound Fleet for England, consisting of 32 Merchant-men, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Kingston and Faulkland. There are also arrived Mr. Gravenraedt from Philadelphia, and Capt. Penniston's Prize from New-Castle; her Cargo is French Brandy, Paper and dry Goods.

On Saturday last our Assembly was Prorogu'd to the first of May. And the same day His Excellency went to His Government of New-Jersey.

The Pensilvania Post not yet come in.

New-port Rhode Island, October 19. Last Fryday night a fire broke out in a Smith's Shop, which burnt it down, and took hold of another house adjoyning it, where one Borne a Hatter liv'd and burnt it also; the Wind blew hard at N E. But by the great industry of our people, the other Houses near to them were saved, otherways had prov'd fatal to the most part of our Town.

On Monday arrived here one Chamberlin from Antigua bound for Boston, who says that by a Vessel from Barbadoes to Antigua they had intelligence of 25 Sail of Ships lost in the Storm: besides the Countrys Briganteen and Sloop and small craft, and 300 men drowned.

On Wednesday arrived one Godfrey in a Sloop from Surranam to Exuma and so here, who was in the Harbour of Providence those days that the great Storm abovementioned was, but had none of it, the weather being very serene and Calm. He says there is none but a parcel of Women at Providence, that cannot get from thence.

Piscataqua, Octob. 19 On Saturday night last arrived Capt. Tyng at Exeter with his Company, who Travelled a day beyond Penacook, from thence to Winnepiscoag Ponds but no discovery of the Enemy.

The same night Capt. Lane and his Company Returned from Sabagoog Ponds, which lies about 50 miles W. N. W. from Casko, but made no other discovery than a few deserted Wigwaams: This Pond is 20 miles long, and about 7 miles wide, very remarkable for Fishing, where our men were refresh'd with variety of Fish, especially Salmon Trouts, some whereof 2 foot long. In their Return they saw 2 Indians at Black-Point, but being at a distance and they near a Swamp, made their escape; one thing remarkable is, That in their march they did not discover any wild creature excepting a Squirrel or the like, by which means the Enemy cannot get any manner of Sustenance in the woods near to us, which we hope will starve them.

This week arrived Mr Pepperil from Madera, who had about five weeks passage.

Boston, By His Excellency's Direction, Capt. Tyng with about 50 men marched from Dunstable, and Capt Lane with upwards of 60 men from York, to Search the Woods if could discover any of the Enemy.

Barbadoes, Mr. Moses in a Sloop blown away 7 or 8 days but got in again.

Besides Shallops and other Boats lost.

The Storm lasted about 16 Hours.

On the 28th of August, Her Majesty's Ship the Weymouth, Capt. Mitchell Commander, brought in a French Merchant Ship of 20 Guns, 6 Patararo's, 70 men, Laden with a considerable quantity of fine Goods, Claret and Brandy. She was met with in the Latitude 19 in Company with another Ship of 16 Guns, who left her to Engage with the Weymouth; the Engagement lasted 3 hours, with the loss of 14 of her men, and 4 of the Weymouth's. These French-men lost their Convoy of 60 Guns, with 3 other Merchant-men but the night before: This Prize is said to be worth 20 Thousand Pounds.

There is arrived here from Boston in New-England, Andrew Wilson, who lost his Mast in the Storm, as also 3 or 4 more Vessels; and the Enemy took Everton, Breed, Henderson, Shearburn and Moore, who Sailed from Boston in Company with said Wilson, bound for this place.

Upon Capt. Everton's being taken, His Excellency ordered the Advice Prize, a small Frigot, to go in pursuit of Everton's Vessel. The Advice Prize conducted in Capt. Bullard from Madera, and Leview from New-York was taken by a Sloop the 13th Currant, Several Vessels from Boston, that came out with Wilson are yet missing.

We want two Packets from England, so that we have no News, only a Report we hear of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough's second Defeating the French, to the Enemy's loss of about 20000 men.

New-York, October 22d. On the 19th. Instant arrived here a Sloop from Jamaica, Nathanael Vial Master, had 38 dayes passage; he came out with several Ships bound for England, and says that several Vessels were to sail for Boston about 14 days after him.

Erasmus Wilkins (formerly mentioned to be committed for being in the Riot with the Privateers here) being Legally Tryed and Convicted for Murdering of Lieutenant Wharton Featherstone-Hough (A Gentleman of the Honourable Col. Livesay's Regiment, that came in the Jamaica Fleet) is Sentenced to be Executed on Friday next the 26. Currant: He has Confessed that he was one of the Privateers where that Gentleman was kill'd, and that he knock'd down one Gentleman and got his Sword, and with it run another into the side, which must be the same Gentleman that was Murdered.

Vessels Outward bound are Cebra for Jamaica, Sleigh and Van-brugh for Curacoa, Perkins for Barbadoes, Hicks for Rhode-Island.

Capt. Cumby and Pain Sailed this day for Barbadoes.

On Saturday last Alexander Duncan Arrived here from Pensil- vania in a Sloop bound for Boston, and Sailes from hence on Wednesday.

Piscataqua, Octob. 26. On Saturday the 20th Currant, about 20 Indians appeared at Cape Nidduck, and Carried away 4 Sons of John Stover, who were at a little distance from the Garison, several others that were out of the Garison, retired to it with all speed; on which the Enemy fired about an hour, then drew up the Children in sight of the Garison, and marched off. At York 4 or 5 Indians were also discovered. Major Walton with a Company of men is gone in pursuit of the Enemy.

Capt. Browne at Wells hearing of the Enemy's unhappy Enterprize in Carrying away the 4 children from 3 to 12 years of Age, went with his Company in pursuit of the Enemy with utmost Expedition; but there being 2 places over a little River lying near Sacho, about 2 miles distant which they usually pass, and not knowing which of the two they would take, Capt. Browne very prudently divided his Company into 2 parts, whereof one half went with Lieut. James March, who happened to discover the Enemy (without the least observation) as they were passing over a little Bridge, being within 15 rod of them; some few with the poor Captives were got over a minute or 2 before; and our men discovering several behind & on the Bridge, fir'd several Shot upon them, which being an unexpected surprisal, caus'd a most dismal Consternation among them, inso-much that some fell forwards, others backwards, and some into the River which was 10 foot deep, some throwing away their Plunder, others their Blankets & Snapsacks, till at last some few of the Enemy on the other side of the River fired at our men, killed one & wounded another: By this time Capt. Browne (hearing the Guns) came up to the rest of his Company, who drove the Enemy off, and pursued them; but they scattering among the Thickets, our men were made incapable of making any further discovery of what damage we did them, but most probably several of them were slain and wounded.

On the 21st Arrived here the Rebecka Hagboat, John Ja[r?]uin Master, from Lisbon, five weeks passage, Henry Shearburn from Barbadoes, and John Kennard from Antigua arrived the said Day.

Boston, On Tuesday the 23d Currant, Complaint being made to Edward Bromfield Esqr. One of Her Majesty's Council, and Justice of the Peace; of John Rogers & Son, of New-London in Connecticut-Colony for Profanation of the Sabbath, in Driving of Cattle through the Town of Dedham to Boston for a Market on the 21st Instant, being the Lords-Day; And opprobiously answering those who dissuaded him there-from; for which being brought before the said

Justice, and legally Convicted, he was Sentenced according to the Direction of the Law in that case, to pay the Fine of Twenty Shillings: He Appealed to the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, but obstinately refused to give Security to prosecute his Appeal, and therefore is Committed to Prison.

It was thought meet at the Desire of several persons to Publish this as a Caveat to others, to let People know, That Open Profanation of the LORDS-DAY, will not pass Unpunished. As also, Because the man thus Fined, pretends himself to be a Sufferer for his Conscience, and has therefore even courted the Inconveniences that are come upon him. And whereas the Quakers have a while since endeavoured by their False Addresses at home in England, to misrepresent the Government of this Province, for Making and Executing Several severe Laws, against their Friends, only for their Conscientious Dissent from the National Way, and not for any Evil Fact done by them: The Publick may be informed what kind of Severe Laws those are, and what kind of Profanity may pass for a Conscientious Dissent, among those that Clamour against the country for Persecution, in Executing the Laws of God and man, of our Nation of England and this Province.¹²²

There Arrived here on Saturday the 27th. Currant Nathanael Balston and Harbert from Barbadoes, Richard Thomas from Antigua, and Joseph Bailer from St. Christophers, and yesterday the 28th. Anthony Hayward from Barbadoes. James Blin in a Sloop from Connecticut, coming over Nantucket Shoals, is fear'd to be lost on them.

Capt. Huntington Commander of Her Majesties Ship the Guernsey and Commadore of the Jamaica Fleet, holds his resolution (Wind and Weather permitting) to Sail from hence to England the 5th. or 6th. of the next Month, with the Vessels under his Convoy.

GOD Save the QUEEN

Boston, On Monday the 22d. of October, early in the morning, Mr. Honewell in the Sloop Olive-Branch from Augvilla about 6 weeks passage, having little Wind at S. S. E. standing afore it for Brewsters, being within three Leagues of it, on a sudden a flaw at N. N. W. came down upon him, which tore his Main Sail all flitters, broke his Sternn in 3 pieces, and having no Sail, they lay to the mercy of the Sea and Winds, which drove them out of the Bay within 8 Leagues of Casko, Where he & his men were taken on Board of Mr. John Sharpe's Vessel from Barbadoes, and now brought in here; Honewell, and especially his men being overcome with Tugging so long at the Pump, were almost past any hopes of escaping being lost, when Providence so ordered it that Mr. Sharp came to their relief: The Sloop was seen sinking in a little time after they were taken out.

Last week came here from New-York, one Mr. Henry Burch a Quaker, Aged about 21 years, the only Son of Mr. John Burch of St. Martins-Lane, London, formerly a Minister of the Church of England, but now a Quaker & a Preacher; this Henry was bound an apprentice about 9 years ago to one Mr. Henry Burch of London, his Uncle, a Doctor of Physick; and going in a Ship, whereof Capt. Marcy was Commander, from England to Barbadoes the last War with his said Uncle, they were taken by a French Privateer near Barbadoes, and one of the Privateers took a dagger and run thorow the young Lads Cheek and Jawbone, and struck out two of his Teeth, cut his Left hand thorow 3 fingers, the prints whereof are still to be seen, his Uncle took no care to Cure him: but he being young soon learn'd the French Tongue, and they Cur'd him; the Privateer carried them first to Calice in France, his Uncle was sent to Amsterdam, and when his Nephew was Cured, he was sent after him; where he met him; and a Sweedish Ship coming in with French Prisoners to release the Swedes, there not being French enough, took his Uncle & him and carried them back to Calice, from whence they went to Sweedland; & one Capt. Philips being bound from thence in a Ship for Virginia, they embarked on board him, and in the year 1700 they arrived, and going up Myles's River in the County of Chester, his Uncle sold him a Servant unto one Richard Skinner a Planter for 6 years, & gives him a large Sum of Money to murder him when he was gone. His Uncle took an Indenture, and put a clean Sheet of Paper over it, and made his Nephew sign it at the bottom, not knowing there was an Indenture beneath it.

And as soon as his cruel Uncle was gone, his Master Richard Skinner sent him out to the Hooe, where he continued 3 years, along with his Negro's and Indian Overseers, at length this Young man wrote to Mr Samuel Carpenter, and other Quakers of Philadelphia, and acquainted them of his Circumstances and the whole Tragedy, who came forthwith to Virginia and bought his time & brought him to Philadelphia last year, and wrote home to his Father in London the whole matter of Fact, who sent over Money largely to recompence and pay them for what they had done; who ordered his Son to return home.

And the said Henry Burch Imbarking on board the Ship Batchellour Endeavour in & of Philadelphia in June last, Cap. Dykes Commander, bound for London, meeting with the Jamaica Fleet bound home for England about the latter end of July, they joined said Fleet in order to keep them Company; but meeting with the great Storm on the 18th of August last, which foundered several of said Fleet: The Ship wherein he was sunk under them, wherein were lost 35 persons, but the Quarter Deck was broke from the Ship ere she sunk; upon which this Henry Burch, 2 Seamen, Henry Taylor and Jacob Grackston, & Hannah Hancock (and a Child in her arms which was drowned) got upon and were taken up by the Ship Sweet William, one of the Fleet, & carried into New-York, from whence the said Burch came hither, who now intends by the way of Barbadoes to England, hoping to meet his Father there.

This Henry Burch's Uncle when went to London, put himself into Mourning for his Nephew, & told his Parents that he dyed of the Bloody Flux in Virginia. This young man had a Rich Grand-mother, to whom he was to be Heir, & failing of him, his Uncle was to enjoy the said Estate: And after the Uncle and Nephew left England, the old Gentlewoman dyed, and by Will bequeathed 3000l to her Grand son Henry Burch, and in case of his Death, to his Uncle Henry Burch; for Lucre of which, his Uncle contrived his Nephew's ruin; And hitherto Providence has disappointed him.

This whole information was taken from Mr. Henry Burch's own mouth.¹²³

Capt. Southack¹²⁴ in the Province Galley is returned from his Cruise.

Captain Huntington Commander of Her Majesties Ship the Guernsey, and Commadore of the Jamaica Fleet, receiving Letters from New-York, that the other part of said Fleet there, not being ready to Sail the 10th Currant as was intended, The said Commadore, Wind and Weather permitting, designs to Sail from hence on the 15th Currant, with what Vessels will be ready under his Convoy.

From Monday November 5. to Monday November 12. 1705.

NY—AS (m)

[A LITTLE more than a column on the first page of this issue is filled with foreign news, principally an account of the death of the Austrian emperor, and a list of members-elect of Parliament. Features of the domestic news are: the story of the conviction of Thomas Odell, the counterfeiter; a proclamation for the apprehension of deserters, and "further Continuation of a Remarkable Relation" begun in the previous issue.]

Isaac Addington Secr.

A further Continuation of a Remarkable Relation, begun in the Last News Letter.

THE Reader knows, That in some of our News-Letters, for want of Room, we have broke off in the middle of a Matter. In our Last we gave you a very punctual Relation, of a matter that appear'd very remarkable, concerning one Henry Burch, a Quaker; who was well pleased to have his own Story Published. According to Good Manners, we have let him tell his Story first. We will take leave now to tell ours: For plainly, the most Remarkable part of it, is yet behind.

It may be some will not count it remarkable, that there should be Bad people among the Quakers, as well as among the People of other Professions, who do not pretend unto their Spirit of discerning: But I tell ye Friends nay pritty Remarkable, That a Blade should be so desirous to have such a formal Story Printed about himself, and yet that in less than 2 days time, he should be detected for an horrid CHEAT, and it be palpably found, that probably, There is not one word of Truth in all the Story.

Did ye ever hear of such a piece of Impudence! The former part of our Account came out on Monday, but before Tuesday-night he was march'd off, or in other terms Step'd aside. Only the ungrateful Varlet, had first exercised a faculty of his (which ye shall presently hear of) on the Money and other purloinables, of such Friends as had civilly Entertained him. His very Shirt (being Stolen, you must note) had the Courage to take a Thief by the Throat. It is well, that the Charitable Gentlemen, who treat all Strangers with the Civilities at their Houses, were no more spunged upon: But some of them, at the first interview, found him in such inconsistencies, that they could not tell, what in the world to make of him.

It now Remains, that we go on with our Story; And do our Spark, the Honour of an Hue and Cry. He has, as we told ye a wound in his Cheek (near his upper Lip) But certainly it was not a French Privateer (as he said with a three squar'd Dagger) that gave it him. It was probably an Officer call'd, Un Boureau, in plain English, An Hangman. A Remarkable Person Truly! One marked with a Brand in the Cheek.

He has, as we also told ye, three fingers cut a thwart his Left Hand, ever since which, they have been so light, that they Steal all that comes in their way. Wherefore, if ye happen to shake hands with such a Fellow, pray hold him fast, and bring him before Authority.

Possibly, he has changed his Outward Name. But he is fled with a New, (not True) Blue Cloak, lined with a Knave. His Under Garments were of the well-known Quaker Cut.

He is a Fellow of Little Stature, tho' of great Roguary, and of a Young Aspect, But in a fair way never to be Old.

To oblige, the Undertaker of this Print, to Correct a certain gross mistake about his Uncle in his Published Story; whereof he was presently convicted, he offered a Gold Ring which (it since appears) he had Stolen from a Quaker Gold-Smith, with whom he Lodged. If any man or person, in Town or Country, will take up this Imposter, and bring him in, he shall be Rewarded, either with that Ring, if my Goldsmith pleases, or with the value of it, and a better Reward besides.

And now, I hope, this is become such an useful Story, That the Gentlemen, my Subscribers, will not complaint either of the Introduction to it in our former, or of the procedure of it, in our present, News-Letter. Our News Letter also, will, I hope sufficiently preserve its Reputation, if any Paragraph of it, not setting a thing in all its true light, shall in one weeks time supply all that is defective, and perhaps there are few Readers, but what have themselves now & then told a Story that needed a further Elucidation.

And whereas, our Will-with-a-Wisp (as I am told) should this week have Held forth, among his abused Friends, I think, I must now so far do it for him, as to say:

"Plainly Friends, our Harry Burch is a sad Fellow, and if he should 'assay to lye hid among any of ye, I make no doubt, ye will bring 'him out, that he may undergo the desperate thing which some call 'Condign Punishment, tho' others call it Persecution:"

Only, that he may have his Name a little stick to him (and because he told us, you know, that he had been at Amsterdam!) we will Humbly move, that if the Authority see meet, it may be Laid on after the Dutch-fashion; that is with good Burchen Rods, Tho' such dealing may be too easy for such a Skellum to meet withal.

Coasters Entered Inwards, Carteret Gillam from Connecticut and John Jackson from Piscataqua. Outwards, Amazeen, Lyford & Jackson for Piscataqua, and Lothrop for Nantucket. Foreign Inwards from Corratuck, Samuel Edwards in the Briganteen William & Mary. St. Christophers, Fortune Redduck, St. Christophers Sloop. Monserrat Francis Norris Seaflower Sloop. Pensilvania Alexander Duncan Sloop Friendship. Virginia Thomas Pope Sloop Endeavour. Cleared Outwards for Madera, John Rainer in Ketch Freek, Daniel Noyes Briganteen Hannover, Surranam, Richard Hengeson sloop Seaflower, Roanock, William Clark Sloop Endeavour, Virginia, William Cleeves Ship William & Mary, and Isaac Harvey Ship Ann. Outward bound for Barbadoes, John Ely Briganteen Dove, James Bridgham Ship Hampton, John Raynsford Frigate Dwaal. Virginia, Moses Abbot, John & Mary, Madera, Noah G[re?]ville Sloop Adventure.

Captains, Gillam and Mason are arrived from England at Cape Anne, and said to have seven Weeks passage from Plimouth.

New-York, Nov. 12. On the 7th arrived here a Briganteen from Bermuda, one Joyner, Master, says, that the last great Storm that the Jamaica fleet met with, has done a great deal of damage on that Island. Wessels from Antigua, & Benj. Hill from Curacoa, which last brought us the bad news of Depue, Joline & Thinhoven being taken by the French bound from hence to Jamaica; The French have made Privateers of their Vessels, being 2 Sloops & a Briganteen. This day arrived Daniel Robert from Jamaica, came from thence the 4th of October, with 2 Briganteens for Boston & a Sloop for Philadelphia.

Her Majesty's Ships of War, the Nonsuch, Maremaid and Deal Castle, with the Vessels under their Convoy Sails from hence for England the latter end of this week, or the beginning of the next.

Marble-head, Nov 17 On the 11th Currant arrived here Capt. Bevis from England, who took up Mr. Blin (formerly mentioned No. 80 feared to be lost) in his Sloop 8 or 9 Leagues off Cape Anne, without Mast, Bolspit, Rudder, Boat, Sail, Anchor or Cable, his side broke down, 3 foot & an half water in his Hold, 3 men but no bread, nor useful pump; and brought said Sloop and men in here.

Boston, On Tuesday the 13th Currant, arrived here Captains, Benjamin Gilman, David Mason, John Corney and William Bevis from England, who left Plimouth the 22d of September, in Company of a Fleet of about 25 Sail, under Convoy of 4 Men of War, viz. The Experiment Galley, Capt. Pudner Commander, and a Fireship bound for Jamaica; with other Vessels whom they parted with about 10 days after they left Plimouth; The Tritton Prize, Capt. Myles Commander, bound for New York, who bore away with those for Jamaica; The Litchfield Prize, Capt. Chandler Commander, and the Angelsey, Capt [blank] Commander, with 2 Store Ships and 2 Merchantmen for Newfoundland, who has on board them Major Loyd the Governour, with some Land Forces, whom they parted with 50 Leagues to the Westward of Fyall, in the Lat. of 35. Capt. Gillam sprung his Main Mast in the Voyage. Capt. John Wild for Boston, and Capt. Jeffries for New-York were in the Downs when these left England, waiting to come out with the Virginia Fleet and Convoy: When these above left Plimouth, it was said, that part of the Home-ward bound Virginia Fleet were arrived in Kingsale in Ireland.

On Thursday the 15th Currant, John Price Mariner, belonging to Benjamin Stone, bound for London, not being willing to proceed the Voyage, went to the Carpenter's Block, and with his Ax cut off his own Left hand, and is now under Cure.

Her Majesties Ship the Guernsey Capt. Huntington Commander, and Commodore of the Jamaica Home-ward bound Fleet, with Vessels under his Convoy, bound for England have been Wind-bound at Nantasket three days, and Sailed from thence the 18th Currant, the Wind at N. W.

Our Number 81. Gave you an Account of a formal Story given us by one Henry Burch a Quaker: and our Number 82 gave you a further Relation of said Burch, to which we shall still refer you, only here add, That from N York we are well informed, That what we told of his escaping drowning is a Fals-hood, for he was there ere the Jamaica Fleet Arrived, and is a Runaway from his Master of Philadelphia or Burlington, who was apprehended by his Master in order to return home, and just as they were going away he pickt his Masters Pocket of Forty Shillings, and made his escape, who never was heard of till our Print discovered him; and therefore we hope that all good People will endeavour (where he comes) to apprehend him, in order to return him to his Master, after he has received a due Compensation for his Gratuity to his Friends here.

Coasters Entered Outwards, Drick Adolph for New York, Foreign Inwards, from London, Benjamin Gillman, Ship Reward, David Mason, William & Hannah, John Corney Dorothy Briganteen, S, Christophers, Thomas Porter, New-London, Sloop William Kelley Hopewell. Instant, being his Birthday, unto Mrs. Mary Partridge Daughter to William Partridge Esq. late Lieutenant Governour of this Province; But at the motion of the Gentlemen that accompanied him, they were Married the same night as he came off his Journey in his Boots: The Wedding was Celebrated on the Tuesday following, where there was a Noble and Splendid Entertainment for the Guests, and honoured with a Discharge of the Great Guns of the Fort, &c.¹²⁷

'Twill be three Weeks ere Capt. Chamberlin for Lisbone will be ready to Sail, being hindered by the severity of the Weather.

Marblehead, Jan 12: On Saturday the 5th Currant, arrived here the Ship Sarah Galley of Boston of 12 Guns, 22 men, Capt. Andrew Wilson Commander, from Bonira, about 7 weeks Passage, who left Barbadoes the 23d of October last, bound for Saltertuda, and in his Passage met with a French Privateer Sloop, about 80 men, and a Loaden Ship with her, which they supposed to be her Prize: And Capt. Wilson judging he could not run from the Privateer, stood away for him, and soon came up with each other; whereupon Capt. Wilson halled up his Sails, he and his men retiring to their close Quarters, prepared to Fight; The Privateer presently boarded him, & clapt a considerable number of his men on board; Wilson and he were Lashed board and board about an hour. The Privateers finding it to hot for them on his Deck, their Gratings being all secured that they could not penetrate into his close Quarters, most of them went on board their own Sloop again, and from thence ply'd their small Arms on Wilson, and Wilson on them, till at last the Privateer was glad to cut his Lashings and get clear of him; and left 3 Fuzees,

3 Swords, and some Axes and Pistols behind them on Wilson's Deck and one of their men dead in his Chains; and they judge that they kill'd many of the Privateer's men, because they saw several fall and thrown down into their Hold, and the blood running very plentifully out of their Scuppers; Capt. Wilson had no men kill'd, only himself and Son received several Wounds; at parting Capt. Wilson discharged two Great Guns loaden with small Shot, which he supposes did great execution among the Privateers men.¹²⁸

LAST year the Undertaker of this Publick Print of Intelligence for both Foreign and Domestick Occurrences in Numb 51. gave you an Account of his Motive to Print, viz. To give a True Relation of Affairs, Remarkable Providences that occur'd, and to prevent a great many false Reports of the same; As also a Specimen of the Trouble and Charge attending it, to which he still refers you: And now acquaints you, That notwithstanding at the Generous desire of several Gentlemen, Merchants and others who were willing to promote such a Publick Good, by Contributing this Second Year for its support, yet the Undertaker has not had a sufficient number to defray the Necessary Charge of it, by reason of a great many, as well, nay better able than some who do Contribute, that are so backward to promote so good a Publick Work; Whereas did every Town in this and the Neighbouring Provinces take but One a Week per. Annum, the Charge to some of them would not amount to 2d. a man, and to the most not above 4d. or 6d. where it goes by the Post, which if they did, would be a good Motive to carry it on: And were there a Competent number to take it, the Undertaker would be enabled to Print a Sheet instead of half a Sheet, and to settle Correspondents everywhere so as to have the Occurrences some Months sooner than Now they are, and to Polish the Print better which would make it far more acceptable than now it is; for want whereof the Undertaker cannot now do, as he would. Therefore all persons in Town and Country in this and the Neighbouring Provinces, who have not already paid according to Agreement for this Currant year for said Intelligence, are now desired to do it: And such who have a mind to encourage the supporting and carrying it on for a third year, are hereby Advertised by Word or Writting to Agree with John Campbell Post-master of Boston for the same, that before this second year (which ends the last of April next) is elapsed, it may be known, If it can be undertaken for the third year, which if encouraged to be continued that it drop not for 4 or 5 Weeks as it did in the beginning of this year, by reason of several Encouragers Postponing to take it at the beginning that afterwards did.¹³⁴

A PROCLAMATION for a GENERAL FAST.

HAVING lately rendred all Humble Thanks and Praises to Almighty GOD for the Publick Blessings to Her Majesty, The Confederate Princes, and these Provinces, in Obedience to Her Majesties Especial command: And having yet the Consideration of the Great Troubles of Europe, by the continuance of the War with the common Enemy of the Repose of the Christian Nations; as well as our Own and our Neighbours Troubles with the French and Indians; and the Just Reason we have therefore to Implore the Divine Favour, for the Remission of our Great and manifold Sins, that have justly displeased GOD.

I Have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Her Majesties Council, to Appoint and Order, That Thursday the Eighteenth day of April Currant, be Solemnized as a day of Publick FASTING and PRAYER throughout these Provinces, Exhorting both Ministers and People in their several Assemblies, Religiously to attend the Solemn Services of the said Day; That by a sincere Repentance and steady Affiance in the Divine Mercy in their most humble Adresses, They may Obtain from GOD, That our Sovereign Lady the QUEEN, with the Nations and Territories under Her Happy Government, may always be under the Protection of Heaven, Her Majesties Life and Government long continued, Her Counsels and Just Arms prospered; the Designs of the barbarous Salvages against Us, defeated; Our Exposed Plantations preserved; And the poor Christian Captives in their Hands, returned;

That the Government of these Provinces may have the Divine Direction in all their Administrations; That Health may be continued, and the Ensuing Year Crowned with the Fruits of Divine Bounty; That Deliverance may speedily arise to the Church of God oppressed with the Tyranny of Antichrist; That every kind of Peace and Prosperity may be given and secured to Us and our Posterity, upon the firm and lasting foundations of the Divine Blessing & Favour.

And all Servile Labour upon the said Day is Inhibited.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

Madera, January 20. We are acquainted by a Vessel 12 days Passage from England, that the Leuwe Man of War, Convoy to the Homeward Bound Newfoundland Fleet, was Lost going thorow the Needles, and 40 Men drowned.

Jamaica, Febr. 1. Our last Packet from England advise us, that the Queen Ann, the Anna Frigot, the Happy Return, and 2 more Ships, being part of the Homeward bound Fleet from hence to England, (that were separated in the violent Storm on the 18th of August last, that the said Fleet met with in Lat. 38.) were Arrived in Ireland and Plimouth.

New-York, April 1. There are 4 Sloops and A Brig. bound for Jamaica, Duncan and Adolph for Boston, and Hicks for Rhode-Island, Gravenraet Sailed for Boston on Thursday last; We have no certain Account when the Fleet for Engl. will Sail from Virginia.

Rhode-Island, April 5. This day arrived here Benj Cranston 6 weeks passage from Suranam, who sprung his Mast, & was forced to St. Christophers, where he arrived 7 days after the French Fleet had left it; They consisted of 4 Men of War, some of them 70 Gun Ships, and 28 Sail of Privateers, the Enemy Landed 3000 men; there was but 500 English to resist them, who did the best they could, and kept to their Forts; but sent several Parties out, who kill'd several of the Enemy, and the English lost but one man; the Enemy stayed there 4 days, who took the whole place, except the Forts, which they never Attacked: They did all the Damage they could, by burning the Towns, Mills and Canes, kill'd Horse and Cattle, and carried away several Negroes. Before the Enemy went to St Christophers, they lay two days at Nevis Battering there, but durst not Land; they never Attacked Antigua, only came in sight of it, and so went by Montserrat to St. Christophers. The Privateers quarrelled with the Men of War, because they did not Batter the Forts: It is supposed that the Enemy design next for Curacoa. They daily expect from England a Fleet of 18 Sail at the Leward Islands to Attack Martinico. As Mr. Cranston left St. Christophers he saw a Vessel which he judged to be a Packet from England. ¹⁴¹

There is also an extract from a letter of Sir Cloudsly Shovel, on board the man-of-war Britannia, October 22, relating to the capture of Barcelona, and a letter from Prince Charles on the same subject. On the third page are communications from the junta of the military camp of Catalonia, and from the city of Vich thanking the queen of England for the assistance given to the Spanish cause by the English forces. On the same page is the letter of the earl of Peterborough to the queen, dated Barcelona, reporting the capture of that city. From Hague, September 29, is a report of the consideration of plans for settling the differences between the States of the Dutch Republic and the Pope of Rome. Domestic news and advertisements fill the two columns of the last page.]

St. Christophers, March 8. Having had Intelligence of a French Fleet designing to attack some of the Leward Islands, 13 Sail of Vessels appearing in sight of Antigua the 29th of January last, caused an Alarm, but the next day 30 Sail appearing, gave assurance 'twas the French, and by their actions were designed to Land on that Island; two Sloops were sent out to discover the strength and designs of the Enemy, one of which exchanged several Shot with one of the French Privateers, most of the small Vessels came within a League of Five-Island Harbour, and some within the outwardmost Island, the Wind blowing strong Northerly, the great Ships could not come to Windward; in this posture they lay till the 3d day at noon, during which time the Commander in Chief (Col. John Johnson) had in Arms about 1000 of the Inhabitants, 2 Companies of the Queen's Soldiers, about 300 Marines, & 250 Negroes, in all about 2000 men, with which he designed to meet the Enemy at Landing: The Grayhound Man of War lay then on the Careen, and her Guns ashore, and the Captain brought his men ashore to joyn the Forces there.

The Wind still blowing very hard, about noon the 3d day the Enemy's Commadore fired a Gun, & their whole Fleet went before the Wind to Nevis, where they arrived the 5th of February, & presumed to Land, but the Wind blowing hard caused a great Sea, which hindered their designs, the English lying in their Trenches ready to receive them in case of their Landing, sundry shot from the Fleet were sent on shore, some of which 24 Pounders; they Landed in the night a French man and a Negro, who were to burn the Canes, thinking we should leave our Trenches to extinguish the Fire, that they might have an opportunity to Land without any repulse, and accordingly they burnt about 80 Acres of Canes, but our men would not hazard the loss of the Island by deserting the Trenches for any sinister end; a small party was detached to look for the two men aforesaid, which were both found, & after Examination and Tryal were hang'd.

The Enemy finding it impossible for them to Land at Nevis, they went for St. Christophers, where they arrived the 10th of February at night, and Landed at three several places of the Island, and ranged from end to end, most of the Houses, Canes and Mills on the South-side are burnt, the North-side escaped, all but 5 or 6 Plantations ruin'd. The Enemy carried away some Negroes, the Loss sustained is considerable; our two Garisons of Charles Fort, and Brimstone-Hill were never attacked.

The General being in Antigua sent several Expresses to Barbadoes for Assistance; accordingly two Men of War came down to our relief, the French having notice of it on the 16th by an Express from Martinico, and supposing greater strength would follow, went away in great confusion. The Enemy's strength consisted of three 66 Gun Ships, 1 of 60, 1 of 58, 1 of 36, and 1 of 24 Guns, 4 Briganteens, and 21 Sloops, and near 3500 Men. From St. Christophers the 6 Men of War went for Tobago, and the rest for Guardilope. During these Alarms our Flag of Truce for Exchange of Prisoners was detained at Martinico, who gave an Account at her arrival in Antigua, that a Sloop from France to Martinico arrived some time before they Sailed, who said, that 8 Sail of Men of War Sailed from Brest two days before him, who were daily expected, and that their design was if possible, to take all the English Islands in the West-Indies.

The last Pacquet gave us an Account of Admiral Wishart's designing to stop at these Islands with 15 Sail of English and Dutch Men of War from England in their way to Jamaica, of whose arrival we are much desirous, being at present under seeming dangerous Circumstances. An Embargo hath continued since the 29th of January, and Masters and men in case of any Alarm are to leave their Vessels, and joyn the Land Forces, Strangers to be fitted with Arms and Ammunition by the Publick, and to have 18 d. per day during their Service, and in case of loss of any Limb, to have Eighteen Pound 15 s. per Annum during Life.¹⁴²

The New-England Fleet under Convoy of Her Majestys Ship the Deptford were arrived in Barbadoes, Antigua, and the rest of the Leward-Islands, except Barnes in a Sloop, who was taken and carried into Martinico. The Embargo on said Fleet (it's thought) will hinder most of them from going to Saltertuda.

A Sloop from Virginia to Antigua, in Lat. of said Island, found a Ship overset, with all her Masts, Sailes and Yards standing; (he being short of Provisions, his men were unwilling to go on Board her) & it's thought to be a New-England Vessel Loaden with Lumber.

Several Vessels now at Nevis and St. Christophers, will Sail in 14 days to the Northward, most for New-England.

New-York, April 8. We are advised from Philadelphia, that if the Men of War expected in Virginia do not arrive, the Homeward bound 143 The critical reader will not fail to observe in this paragraph the occasional use of capitals in Roman text for words that are otherwise italicized. The capital M is here most used in this manner, but on page 314 post the capitals C and E similarly appear. This is one of the many peculiarities of the News-Letter typography, and special attention is called to it for reason of its comparative inconspicuousness in a hasty reading. The errors were probably due to careless proofreading.

[FOUR folio pages. Six and a half columns are filled with foreign news, most space being given to an address of Queen Anne to the house of lords, to an account of the investment of the town of Badajos in the preceding October, and to a report of the coronation of King Stanislaus at Warsaw in October. The issue opens with an editorial note prefacing the queen's speech.]

In our Numb. 102 We gave you the QUEENS Speech to the Parliament, and Numb. 103 The House of Commons Address to Her Majesty: The House of Lords Address tho' Prior to the House of Commons not then coming to our hands, we thought it would not be ill taken by the Encouragers of this Print, now to Insert it: Which was presented by Her Majesty on the 31st of October last: And is as follows. [The queen's speech and the other foreign news follows.]

Barbadoes, April 5. Money is grown very scarce here, so that our Assembly have Issued out from the Treasury 7000 Pound in Paper Notes, to run for Six Months, and to Morrow they Sit again, and its said, That they design to Order Bills for 40000 Pound to pass for 7 years.

Her Majesties Ship the Deptford with the Fleet from Boston under her Convoy arrived here the latter end of January, except some that are arrived in the Leward Islands, onely Thomas Barns in Brig-anteen Swan who was taken and carried in to Martinico; The said Fleet being bound for Saltertuda, but (by reason of the rumour that the French Fleet was abroad in the West-Indies, and one of Her Majesties Secretary's of State advising our Governour of a Fleet of 21 Sail with Transports, &c. fitting out of Brest under Conduct of Monsier DeCasse, to attack this place.) Here is a strict Embargo, so that your Vessels are hindred from proceeding on their Voyage, which will be a great Loss to us and New-England. The reason of the Frenches Effort thus, is said to be, That the French King at the beginning of this War borrowed a considerable Sum from New-Spain, with Engagement in 5 years to furnish them with 50,000 Negros for their Mines, which time of Contract being out, and his necessity requiring another Borrow; The Spaniards were Crusty, and would not Lend till the first agreement was answered; so he thought an Attack on these Islands to be the readiest way to accomplish his bargain, and designs, which hitherto in great measure has been frustrated; for in their coming out of Brest 8 of said Ships were lost by Storm, some put back again disabled, others of them, viz. 6 Sail of Men of War and some Transports arrived at Martinico, and were Joyned by some Privateers, who attempted in the Latter end of January, and beginning of February last to land at Antigua and Nevis, the Wind blowing hard and contrary hindred their Attack: Our Forts at Nevis, Maul'd their Ships, and kill'd their Vice Admiral. The Enemy went then for St. Christophers, where they Landed 1600 Regular men from France, and as many Privateers, where they burnt and destroyed the greatest part of their Crop, Houses and Mills, &c. but could not take the Forts: And the Enemy hearing of a Supply going from hence to the Assistance of those Islands, The Enemy in a Confusion left the place, and returned to Martinico.¹⁴⁶

Yesterday in the afternoon arrived a Pacquet from England, and a Sloop Express from Antigua; By the former we are acquainted, That a Fleet from England for this Place put to Sea the last of February, in Company with the Fleet for Lisbone, and other places, and with those for Lisbon Two Mast Ships, of about 600 Ton each, to Load Salt for New-England; The Fleet for this Place we daily expect. Monsieur De Casse is said to have Sailed from Brest with 15 Sail of Men of War, no body knows where, but is not yet arrived in the West-Indies.

The Account we have by the Express from Antigua is, That the Enemy, with Men of War, Transports, and Privateers, make about 50 Sail, having on board about 6000 Men, and on a second Expedition have attacked Nevis; and tis to be feared they have gained their Landing; If so, they are in danger to be lost: At Antigua they are so well provided, that they imagine themselves in no great danger. This Express has occasioned the Embargo on the New-England Fleet, which caused Capt. Stuckley Commander of Her Majesties Ship the Deptford to leave them behind.

Boston, On Thursday the 2d Instant arrived here from Barbadoes, Her Majesties Ship the Deptford, about a Months passage.

[ANOTHER four page folio, three pages filled with foreign news. Prominence is given to the action of Queen Anne and the house of lords in condemning the spreading of reports to the effect that the established church was in danger under her majesty's administration, and especially arraigning one "David Edwards of the Parish of St. Dunstons in the West, London printer" for having published the libel, and offering rewards for the apprehension of the author and the printer. There are two pages of news from Paris, Rome, Turin, Vienna, Madrid, Hague and elsewhere.]

Jamaica, April 1 st. One Fidling bound hither from South Carolina was taken by a French Privateer, and carryed in to Petiguavus, and being ordered to France; he was retaken by Her Majestys Ship the Hector, & brought in here.

We have had an Embargo here for Six Weeks, by reason of the Intelligence brought us of a French Squadron being abroad in the West Indies: The last Packet brought the bad News of the said Squadron having over-run St. Christophers all but the Forts, and that they had left the Leward Islands.

Virginia, April 16. Capt John Wilde in the Ship Dove arrived here from Boston in 10 days, who came hither to imbrace a Convoy for London; and its uncertain when the Fleet from hence will Sail, the Commadore first expecting orders from England, and 'tis well if the Fleet Sail in June.

New-York, April 29. On the 27th instant arrived here a Sloop in 5 days from Barmuda, loaden with Salt; The Master whereof informs, That the Prize Ship bound from thence to this Port, met with a Storm in her Passage, in which they cut away their Main Mast, and had 2 men Drowned, and were returned to Barmuda to repair their Damage.

On the 28th arrived a Sloop from Virginia one Follen Master, who came from thence the 24th Instant, who acquaints us, That three Ships were arrived from England 3 or 4 days before he Sailed, who together with 17 Sail more came out of England the Latter-end of February, in Company of a Fleet upwards of 300 odd Sail, bound for Lisbon, Catalonia, &c. under Convoy of 9 Men of War. And that after they had left the St[r]eights-Fleet, and were Standing for Virginia, they unhappily met with Two French Men of War, who took 5 of them, and what became of the rest they know not: but Mr. Follen met 3 Ships going into the Capes, as he came out, which are supposed to be some of them: He further sayes, That one of the Men of War designed to come to Virginia for Convoy was in the Dock at Portsmouth, when these Ships came from England; so that its uncertain when the Fleet will Sail for England, having orders not to stir till the other Convoys do arrive.

Most of the Jamaica Fleet that went from hence for England the first of December last, were arrived in Ireland.

Just now arrived a Sloop in 30 days from Curacoa, Lucas Steven Master; Three other Sloops for this Port came out in Company with him; but are not yet arrived: He brings no News, but that Monsieur De Casse was taken by an English Squadron coming out of the Channel: Which News they had at Curacoa by a Ship lately arrived there from Holland, that came out in Company with Six other Merchant-men under Convoy of Two Dutch men of War, the other Ships were daily expected in there. There was Two Sloops for Rhode-Island, Bernon and another that came out in Company with this Sloop: And there was 4 or 5 for Boston, who were to Sail the same day or the day after.

Rhode-Island, May 3d. On the 26th last arrived at New-Port a Ketch from Montserrat, Samuel Hooper Master, who came from thence the 21 March last, and in his Passage met with a violent Storm, which had like to have Founder'd him; wherein he lost his Masts, Spoyl'd most of his Suggar in his hould.

On Wednesday last was our Election; all our Officers are continued as they were, except one Assistant left out, and Major William Wanton Elected in his Room.

New-Haven, May 1st. On the 27th. last, William Nick of Marblehead, firing from a Sloop in our Harbour at some Fowl, the piece broke, greatly tore his left hand; and on the 29th the Chyrurgeons cut off his fore and middle Finger, and fear they must to Save his Life, cut above the Wrist. Yesterday we had a very great South-east Storm and Rain; Tis said our Small Rivers were never known by the English to be so high; We fear there is much damage in Towns lying on great Streams.

Dover, May 3d. On the 27th last, Some Sculking Indians about 10 or 12, came on part of Oyster River, and suddenly Kill'd and Captivated 8 Persons, who had been Stragling abroad out of Garison.

Montserat, April 5. We have had no News from Nevis these 12 days, only we are informed from St. Christophers, that the French Landed there the 22d of March, and that there was two French Flags seen flying upon the Fort; We are daily Fortifying here for defence.

Hartford, May 3. Of late we have had much Rain, which has caus'd a very great Flood, and but one like unto it this 40 years, it rose near 5 fathom above its usual height in our River, has done considerable damage, sundry Mills and Damns ruined, Houses floated, others drove away, 3 or 4 Vessels floated off their Blocks, great quantity of Corn spoyled.

New-York, May 6. Yesterday arrived 2 Sloops, Bill & Peniston from Curacoa, who 8 or 10 days ago met with a Sloop from Antigua bound to Pensilvania, the Master whereof gave him the unwelcome News that Nevis was entirely taken by the French, he also says, that after the French had taken the Leeward Islands, they designed an Attack upon Jamaica. Two Sloops are bound for St. Thomas.

Rhode-Island, May 10th. On the 6th Currant arrived here John Wanton in Sloop Brothers Adventure, 22 days passage from Antigua, who says, That the French were possesst of Nevis three Weeks, ere he left the Island, but had no News from thence, how the Enemy took it. They have made all imaginable preparations at Antigua for defence.

Letters from Barmuda acquaint us, That they are informed there from St. Thomas, That Monsieur De Casse coming out of France with 11. Sail of men of War, was intercepted in the Channel by an English Squadron, who took him and 4 or 5 more Men of War, ruined the rest, & carried De Casse to Bristol.

Boston, On the 5th Currant arrived here a Sloop from St. Thomas, Daniel Wyborn Master, 18 days passage; And by Passengers on board her that made their escape from Nevis, We are acquainted, That a French Fleet consisting of 12 Capital Ships, and 40 other Vessels on the 22d of March last, did Attack said Island, where the Enemy Landed 6000 Men, who had over-run the Island, and carryed away all that was Valuable; only they left the Inhabitants with their Houses Standing: There was several of the Enemy killed by the Negros. [ANOTHER four page folio, more than three pages filled with foreign news of preceding October and November dates from Lisbon, Rome, Milan, Vienna, Hamburgh, Cologne, Hague and elsewhere. There are accounts of the capture of Barcelona, October 21, 1705, and of the progress of the siege of Badajos.]

Antigua, April 21st. On the 20th of March, we were Alarm'd by a French Squadron just under the Land; but in the afternoon they bore away for Nevis; they consisted of 64 Sail, whereof were 12 Ships from 50 to 72 Guns, Monsieur Debervell was their Commadore.

On the 22d in the Night, Monsieur Debervell Landed 4000 Men about 8 Miles from Nevis Town, at a Place where our People thought it impossible for them to Land, where, had there been but 50 men, 'twould broke the French's designs: The Commodore was the first man that went on Shore in a Canoe, and about two a clock in the Morning he Marched at the Head of his Forces undiscovered, till they came within half a Mile of the Town, where two Companies of about 50 men discover'd and engag'd them some time, but no Assistance coming were forced to give way: The Enemy immediately got possession of the Town and several Platforms of Guns; The People fled to the Dodan, except about 30 Men, that fought them some time, and beat the Enemy out of one of the Platforms, Turn'd the Guns on the Town which did the Enemy considerable damage. Major Parris with 15 Men in the Fort fought the Enemy till 3 a clock in the afternoon of next day, & then Surrendered on honourable Terms.

The same day the Enemy Marched to the Dodan with all their Forces: It is a Fort on the Top of a high Mountain wall'd in with a dry Stone Wall breast high, where we had 500 Men, with the Queen's Souldiers and Seamen, Commanded by Col. Abbot, who was resolved to Fight the Enemy and keep the Fort: but contrary to his own reason, being over-perswaded by some other Gentlemen, and Cryes of the Women and Children, he yielded to a Parly, and agreed on Articles to Surrender.

That they should March out with their Arms, Drums beating and Collours flying; but so soon as they were out, The French broke their Articles, disarmed the English and barbarously used them: The Enemy burnt about half of the Country, and have taken all that was valuable; they took also 3200 Negros; Half of the Town of Nevis was burnt by Accident after the Capitulation; The Inhabitants have also agreed with the French (to Save the remaining part of their Houses Standing, and themselves from being carryed off Captives,) in Six Months time to deliver at Martinico 1400 Negros, or to pay 42000 l. for which they took the Gentlemens Bonds, and carryed 4 young Gentlemen with them as Hostages for the performance.

Some of the Negros they had taken, after they were on board to be sent away, understanding that they were to be Sold to the Spaniards 80 of them Jumpt overboard, and some of them got on Shore, who possest the Negros that were in the Mountains of the Frenches design of getting them also by vertue of the Articles of Capitulation, and to carry them to New-Spain to work in the Mines, which made about 600 of them, who were well armed come down on the French, kill'd several of them, and used them so as to give no quarter, that the French durst not move half a Mile out of Town for fear of the Negros.

The Enemy lost about 500 Men at Nevis, 130 men were blown up and kill'd at blowing up the Forts, and splitting the great Guns:

when the Enemy went away the 10th Instant, they carried with them 25 Sail of Vessels that lay Embargo'd in the Harbour.

The Negroes are still in Arms; there are 1400 of them who say, That they will not lay down their Arms till the General goes down and Commands them: They are afraid if they should that their Masters must and will comply with the Articles to send them off, and so be carried to New-Spain.

Col. Johnson has sent down to Nevis 150 small Arms, & 26 barrels of Powder, and some Provisions; the English having nothing to Eat since the French left them but Potatoes.

The French left the Island suddenly in 3 hours time, by reason of 14 Sail of Tall Ships seen by their Spy, to the Windward of Barbados, whom they took to be English men of War, but since are informed, they were Dutch, bound home from Surranam. Most of the French went to the Leeward, their design is said to be for some other place.

Three Privateers went again to St. Christopher's, and took off 400 Negro's.

New-York, May 13. On the 6th Currant arrived Stillwell from Curacoa, and last week arrived Joel from Barmuda. His Excellency the Lord Cornbury our Governour has Issued forth Two Proclamations: One Commanding all persons to appear in Arms, &c. upon the first Alarm; and the other to discover what quantity of Powder is in this Province, prohibiting the Sale and Exportation thereof till further Order. Two Sloops Outward bound for Curacoa, one for Barbadoes, and one for Barmuda.

Just now arrived 2 Sloops from St. Thomas in 16 days, by whom we have advice, That the French have taken Nevis, that Monsieur Debervill was arrived at St. Thomas in a Ship of 67 Guns, he lay there 3 days, with 12 Sail more, supposed to be a part of his Squadron; 'tis not known whither they are bound, but belived to be for New-Spain: It was talk't at St. Thomas's, that the French Fleet were to Rendezvous at St. de Crux, and that their Design was to attack Curacoa, The Privateers were returned to Martinico.

Two Sloops are just arrived in 30 days from Jamaica; they left Mr. Vial bound for Boston 6 days ago. A Sloop bound from Jamaica for England, but last from Virginia; John Vanbrugh Master is just now come in here.

Boston, On Tuesday the 14th Currant Dyed here Capt. Benjamin Gilliam, and was interr'd on Thursday the 17th. Aged 43 years.

On Wednesday the 15th Curreant, It was Resolved by His Excellency & Council, That Capt. Redknap Her Majesties Engineer for the Continent of America be forthwith supplied with Materials for Mounting 20 Pieces of Cannon at Castle William, and to repair the Works, and raise more as shall be judged necessary for the Defence of this Place.

His Excellency, JOSEPH DUDLEY Esqr. Captain General and GOVERNOUR in Chief, in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England, &c. His SPEECH to the Honourable the COUNCIL and Representatives, in General Court Assembled at Boston, May the 30th. 1706.

Gentlemen,

BY the favour of Almighty GOD, we have been last year preserved from any inroad of the Enemy by Land, or any considerable Depredation upon our Coast; and the Forces in the several Parts have done their Duty towards our Preservation.

I am to acquaint you, That by our Advice from the West Indies, The French have a more powerful Fleet than at any time heretofore; and having done what Spoil they can in the Islands; may be reasonably expected to visit the Continent, and every Body will agree that it is Our Duty to be in all possible Preparation to receive them, to defend this Province from their Insults, and therein to do the Just Honour we owe to the Crown of England, to Her Majesty the best of Princes, and to all Her Majesties good Subjects that depend upon US.

I have lately reviewed the several Regiments upon the Sea Coast, and put them into the best Readiness for a March, to the Assistance of any oppressed Part, and by the Advice of Her Majesties Council, have doubled the Garrison at the Castle, and laid in Provisions and Stores there.

There is something further necessary to be done towards the Security of this Town, at the Battery's and else where, as well as at Salem, Marblehead and Cape Anne, which I shall desire you forthwith to enter upon: the Season of the year being far advanced, and proper for the Enemy to look this way.

Gentlemen of the Representatives,

I have always found your Readiness to Assist in the Affairs of the War; and as the Circumstances are more pressing, I doubt not of your further Resolutions, you will properly consider the Method of such growing Charges of the Fortifications, and other Necessarys, and how to lay them equally, and thereby more easy to the People.

Mr. Treasurer's Accounts will acquaint you what is wanting there.

I have used all Methods this last year to make the Charge as easy as possible, that I might Encourage your Readiness in the Supply, and shall at all times depend upon your Advice for the Security of this Province, and am well Assured of your Assistance.

I shall be glad you will make this the first business, and proceed early in it, because all things that we shall judge necessary will demand time.

I Trust Almighty GOD will Inspire us with that Courage and Resolution which is needful for our Defence: and that we may proceed Unanimously and Vigorously in what is before us, which I shall always justly represent to the Honour of the Government.

On Thursday the 30th of May, An Express came to His Excellency from Albany, giving an Account, That Mr. Shelden (who went from hence to Canada with Letters from our Governour, to the Governour of Quebeck, in order to the Exchange of Prisoners) was safe arrived there, and had got all our Captives together (except 9 or 10) in readiness to come away from thence.

This day came here by Land from Martha's-Vineyard, Jeremiah Snow, Master of the Ship Hopewel, who came from Hundoras about 5 weeks ago laden with Logwood bound for Curacoa; But on the 3d of May coming thro' the Gulph of Florida was taken by a French Man of War of 26 Guns, bound from St. Domingo to Burdeaux in France: The French having pillaged her of Water, Provisions, Beds and Cloathing, Sold the Ship and Loading to the Master for an 100 l. Sterling; for the payment of which he sent a Man in Hostage. And on Thursday the 23d of May, Mr. Snow being off Block-Island, and very short of Water and Provisions, seeing two Sloops, he drew up his Sails designing to speak with them to get a supply; but they were afraid, and run away from him, he being unacquainted at Rhode-Island, and not having time that night to run in, he made the best of his way to the Eastward, and on the 26th. got in to Martha's-Vineyard. Mr. Snow see the People of Block-Island fire the Beacon, and doubtless his Ship was the Vessel mentioned in our last supposed to be an Enemy.

By a Vessel from Carolina, We are acquainted, That Capt. Baylie in a Ship from Barmuda bound to Pensilvania, having 41 Persons on board was cast away the beginning of April last, a little to the Northward of Ruanok Barr, and had 33 Persons drowned, 15 whereof were Negros. As also that Capt. Josiah Flint in the Stephen and Samuel of Boston, laden with Pitch, Tar, Ryce &c. bound from South Carolina to Virginia, in order to imbrace the Convoy from thence to England, was cast away upon Cape Hatteras, about the middle of April last; the men all Saved.

His Excellency has been pleased to Commissionate Mr. Samuel Keeling Merchant, to be one of the Captains of the Regiment of Militia of this Town.

New-York, May 27. On the 21st Instant arrived here Capt. Morrison from Jamaica, and Cox from Turks Island. And on the 24th a Prize Ship (formerly mentioned) from Bermuda, but neither bring any News.

Her Majesty's Ship Lowstaffe Sails this week on a Cruise towards Virginia.

We have above 200 at work every day on the Fortifications, and a great number cutting and fetching of Timber, Stockadoes, &c. for making of Batteries, Platforms, &c. The Northside of this City from Hudsons River to the East River will be inclosed with Stockadoes, and a very good Breast-work, with several Block-Houses at convenient places. One half whereof is already done, and we hope to have finished that Line this week. A breast-work is carrying on all along Hudsons River, and several Batteries will be made fronting the Harbour, there being Carriages ready for Mounting 40 or 50 heavy Cannon, & more making.

Most persons in case of any Attack from the Enemy have provided Retreats in the Country, for their Wives and Children, &c. And a Computation has been made, that in less than 24 hours, we can have 4000 Men well Armed in this City; So that if the French should come, they are like to get little more than hard blows & Brick Walls, which will do them no extraordinary Service.

We are acquainted from Virginia, that Capt. Bond for this place has Souldiers on Board to Recruit the Forces here; who comes from England under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Greenwich & Hazardous for Virginia, whom we daily expect.

Vessels Outward bound are Budge for London, Bradduck for Boston, Bill, Pasco, Stilwell and Dupuy for Curacoa, and Martin for St Thomas.

Boston, Coasters Entered Inwards, Elisha Hedge, Nathanael Loring, Richard Christophers and William Rodes from Connecticut. Outward, Jacob Cornwall for Connecticut. Foreign Inwards, from Ruanoak, William Clarke Sloop Endeavour, John Ford Sloop Speedwell, David Northy Brig. Speedwell-friend, and John Webster Brig. Endeavour: from Turks Island, Solomon Pitman Brig. Content: from Montserrat, Samuel Hooper Ketch Endeavour: from Bonavist, James Loring Brig. Industry: from Nevis Ebenezer Breed Ketch Goodwill: from South-Carolina, Joseph Elicot Sloop Nonsuch. Cleared Outward, for Newfoundland, Jeremiah Vail Sloop Mary: for South Carolina, John Pitts Ketch Exchange. Outward bound, for Fyall Samuel Edward Brig. William and Mary.

T*Hese are to give Notice, That in our Numb. 79 We gave you an Account, That Her Majesty, for the better maintaining of Correspondence between England and Her Plantation Islands in the West-Indies, and for the further Improvement and Benefit of Trade, had settled Packet-Boats, to go from Plimouth every Month in the year, and being arrived at Barbadoes to stay no longer than 3 days and nights, at Antigua 2 days and nights, Monserat, Nevis and St. Christophers at each 36 hours, at Jamaica 10 days and nights, and thence to Return to England, and not to be stay'd or delay'd on any pretence whatsoever.*

And whereas in the said Account by an Error of the Press, it is said every Vessel hath performed her Voyage in the space of 150 days or thereabouts: These are to give Notice, that it should be but 100 days, which according to the first Proposition laid down by the Honourable Edmund Dummer Esqr. is de facto found practicable to accomplish the same.

These are also to give Notice, That the Agents of the Packets in each Island, and the Post-masters on the Continent, are ordered to Correspond with each other in order to promote and carry on this Publick Good. As also the Post-masters of the several Provinces on the Continent are hereby desired to acquaint each other from time to time of all Vessels Outward bound from their Precincts to any Port of the West-Indies or Beyond Sea, as well as those that do arrive from any Foreign Port; whereby all Persons may know how and when to send Letters by said Vessels for Conveyance by the Monthly Packets to England, or any other Ports.

BY last Years Bill of Mortality for the Town of Boston in Numb 100 News-Letter, we are furnished with a list of 44 Negroes dead last year, which being computed one with another at 30 l. per Head, amounts to the Sum of One Thousand three hundred and Twenty Pounds, of which we would make this Remark; That the Importing of Negroes into this or the Neighbouring Provinces is not so beneficial either to the Crown or Country, as White Servants would be.

For Negroes do not carry Arms to defend the Countrey, as Whites do.

Negroes are generally Eye-Servants, great Thieves, much addicted to Stealing, Lying and Purloining.

They do not People our Country as Whites would do whereby we should be strengthened against an Enemy.

By Encouraging the importing of White Men Servants, allowing somewhat to the Importer, most Husbandmen in the Country might be furnished with Servants for 8, 9, or 10 l. a Head, who are not able to Launch out 40 or 50 l. for a Negro the now common price.

A Man then might buy a White Man Servant we suppose for 10 l. to Serve 4 years, and Boys for the same price to Serve 6, 8 or 10 years: If a White Servant die, the Loss exceeds not 10 l. but if a Negro dies, 'tis a very great loss to the Husbandman; Three years Interest of the price of the Negro, will near upon if not altogether purchase a White Man Servant.

If Necessity call for it, that the Husbandman must fit out a man against the Enemy; if he has a Negro he cannot send him, but if he has a White Servant, 'twill answer the end, and perhaps save his Son at home.

Were Merchants and Masters Encouraged as already said to bring in Men Servants, there needed not be such Complaint against Superiours Impressing our Children to the War, there would then be Men enough to be had without Impressing.

The bringing in of such Servants would much enrich this Province, because Husbandmen would not only be able far better to manure what Lands are already under Improvement, but would also improve a great deal more that now lyes waste under Woods, and enable this Province to set about raising of Naval Stores, which would be greatly advantageous to the Crown of England, and this Province.

For the raising of Hemp here, so as to make Sail-cloth and Cordage to furnish but our own Shipping, would hinder the Importing it, & save a considerable sum in a year to make Returns for which we now do, and in time might be capacitated to furnish England not only with Sail-cloth and Cordage, but likewise with Pitch, Tar, Hemp and other Stores which they are now obliged to purchase in Foreign Nations.

Suppose the Government here should allow Forty Shillings per head for five years, to such as should Import every of these years 100 White Men Servants, and each to Serve 4 years, the cost would be but 200 l. a year, and a 1000 ls for the 5 years: The first 100 Servants being free the 4th year, they serve the 5th for Wages, and the 6th there is 100 that goes out into the Woods, and settles a 100 families to Strengthen and Baracado us from the Indians, and so a 100 Families more every year successively.

And here you see that in one year the Town of Boston has lost 1320 l. by 44 Negroes, which is also a Loss to the Country in general, and for a less Loss, (if it may improperly be so called) for a 1000 l. the Country may have 500 Men in 5 years time for the 44 Negroes dead in one year.

A certain person within these 6 years had two Negroes dead computed both at 60 l. which would have procured him six white Servants at 10 l. per head to have Served 24 years, at 4 years apiece, without running such a great risque, and the Whites would have strengthened the Country; that Negroes do not.

'Twould do well that none of those Servants be liable to be Impressed during their Service of Agreement at their first Landing.

That such Servants being Sold or Transported out of this Province during the time of their Service, the Person that buys them be liable to pay 3 l. into the Treasury.¹⁵¹

New-Haven, May 29. To Morrow is a Publick day of Fasting & Prayer appointed throughout our Colony, much on the same grounds of that kept in the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay & N. Hampshire in April last.

On the 23d Currant, We had here a Storm of Thunder & Hail, whereby two men working on a Vessel upon the Stocks were smitten, the one down to the ground who lay near half an hour without any appearance of Life, the other smitten so as to fall against the side of the Vessel, both since well in Body and Mind, but do declare, that they neither heard the Thunder nor saw the Lightning that did them this harm. We have had several great Rains of late besides that I formerly wrote you of, which has caused great Floods in our small Rivers.

Piscataqua, June 7th. On Wednesday last was Launched here the Lusitania Galley, burthen about 500 Tuns, whereof Capt. John Wentworth is Commander. And yesterday Mr. John Shaplie and his Son being Riding on the Road near Kittery, their Horses were found all bloody without their Riders; a Party of the Garison that went out in Quest of the Sculking Enemy, found Mr. Shaplies Body, and his head cut off, but cannot tell what is become of the Son.

New-port Rhode-Island, June 7. On the 2d. Instant, at 8 a Clock in the morning, there came to our Governour one John Walker (Master of a Sloop bound to Boston from Connecticut, loaden with 78 barrels of Pork, 7 of Beef, 700 bushels of Wheat and Indian Corn) who gave his Honour this Account, That on Saturday last in the afternoon he had been Chased in the Sound by a French Privateer Sloop, and to avoid being taken, he & his men got into their small boat, and left their Sloop to the mercy of the Privateer who took her, and they getting on shore at Watch-Hill, Alarmed the people all along Narraganset shore and Stonington, where it was Lined with near 1000 men in Arms. Mr. Walker himself made the best of his way hither; and upon his Arrival, our Governour immediately issued forth a Proclamation for Voluntiers, and in less than 2 hours time, we had 2 Sloops fitted out with 100 and odd men well armed, under Command of Major William Wanton and Capt. Thomas Payne, who Sailed from hence about 10 a Clock in the morning, and about 2 a Clock in the afternoon made themselves Masters of the Privateer and her Prize about 3 Leagues to the Southward of Block-Island, and brought her on Monday last in here about 10 a Clock in the morning. The Privateer seeing 2 Sloops after him did not fight. The Sloop is of about 30 Tons, 37 men, sails well, the Captains name is Charles Ferret has his Commission from Petitguavus, she was bound for Port-Royal, in order to Cruise this Summer on the New-England Coast.

Yesterday was held here a Court of Admiralty by the Hon. Nathaniel Byfield Esq. Judge thereof, where the said Privateer was Condemned by his Honour gratis, to Encourage so noble and valorous an Action.

New-York, June 3.

His Excellency Edward Viscount Cornbury, Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New-York and Territories depending thereon, &c. His SPEECH to the Honourable the Council and Representatives in General Assembly now Sitting in the City of New York, upon Wednesday the 29th. of May 1706.

Gentlemen,

THE Service of Her most Sacred Majesty the Queen, in the Neighbouring Colony, having Obliged me to Prorogue this Assembly to the Month of September next, I should not have given you the trouble of meeting till that time, were I not forced to it by an indispensable necessity, the repeated Advices our Merchants here have received from their Correspondents in the West-Indies, of the design the French have of attempting this Colony, has made me think it of absolute necessity to call you together at this time, that all proper measures may be taken, for the defence of this Place, which as yet lies very open, naked and defenceless.

There are two things therefore which I shall chiefly recommend to your care, one is the providing a Fund for the Fortifying this City; the other is, the providing a Fund for the Repairing this Her Majesties Fort, which is extreamly out of Order, and for mounting the Guns, most of the Carriages being rotten and unserviceable. These two things are of absolute necessity, and without which, it is to be feared this place may become a prey to a powerful enemy, who can design no less, than to lay it waste, and destroy it, as they have done the Islands of Nevis and St. Christophers, whose misfortunes I hope will be an inducement to you to make effectual provision for the defence of this Colony: And you may be sure, that whatever you shall think fit to give, shall be applied to the Uses for which you give it, and to no other.

Gentlemen,

I must take notice to you, that the last Assembly did pass an Act for the Raising the Sum of 1500 l. towards the erecting Batteries at the Narrows, which would have been of very great use at this time had that Money been collected, but it has not: I am sensible that some malicious ill minded people have reported, That I had taken that Money into my hands; that the truth therefore may be known, and I justified, I recommend it to you Gentlemen of the House of Representatives, to make a strict enquiry into that Tax I think it proper to recommend to you, the Reviving the Militia Act, which expired by its own Limitation in the year 1704. And I am the rather Induced to do it at this time, because in this time of danger, if there is not some Law past to keep the people to their Duty, I shall be forced to put Martial Law in practice, which I am sure will fall heavier, than any Act of Assembly will do. I cannot conclude without putting you in mind of the necessity of making provision for Out-scouts this next Winter, to be sent from Albany. These are the things I thought proper to recommend to you, and which I hope you will provide for with all possible dispatch, because I think the nature of the thing requires it. If you can think of any thing else that may require the Aid of an Act of Assembly at this time, you shall always find me ready to do anything that shall be proposed to me, for the QUEENS Service and the good of the Country.

The House being met on Thursday the 30th of May, and a Debate arising concerning the Legality of the present meeting of the General Assembly, which stands Prorogued till the 12th of September next.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That in regard of the indispensable Necessity mentioned in his Lordships Speech, of which this House is deeply sensible, they will sit and proceed to give their best Assistance towards the necessary Defence of this Colony.

Resolved, That the City of New-York be immediately fortified.

Resolved, That this House will raise a Fund towards the defraying the Charge of the Fortifications of the City of New-York.

Resolved, That this House will to Morrow Morning resolve into a Committee of the whole House to consider of ways and means for the raising a Fund for defraying the Charge of Fortifying the City of New-York.

Ordered, That ————— be a Committee of this House to inspect and examine what Sum of Money has been raised and paid in, by virtue of a late Act of General Assembly for raising 1500 l. towards erecting Batteries at the Narrows, and make their Report thereof to this House.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in to revive the Militia Act, lately expired by its own Limitation.

Resolved, That a Fund be raised for the payment of Scouts for the Fronteers at Albany for the year ensuing.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in accordingly.

Ordered, That his Excellencys Speech and the Votes of this House be forthwith Printed.¹⁵²

Our Fortifications are briskly carried on, we having some days 400 men at work, & seldom less than 200. The Country are very ready in their Assistance, and have sent us 150 men at a time to work, & we hope in a short time to be in a good posture of defence.

Her Majesty's Ship Lowstaffe, Capt. Jeffers and a Brig. Sailed out of Sandyhook yesterday morning for Virginia, the Merchant-men are bound with the Fleet for London.

On Saturday last His Excellency my Lord Cornbury went to his Government of New-Jersey, and is expected back to morrow.

Outward bound are 4 Sloops, one for London, Via Virginia, the rest for Madera, Barbadoes, and St. Thomas.

Plimouth[Eng.], Decemb 28 This day arrived here Her Majesty's Ship the Deal Castle from New York.

Falmouth, Decemb. 29. The 26th Her Majesty's Ship the Nonsuch put into this port from New-York, whence she Sailed the first Instant, in company of the Mermaid and Deal Castle, with about 19 Sail of Merchant men under their Convoy; but was separated from them the 6th by bad Weather.

Upon notice had of this mischief on the 7th Instant being the Lords Day; several Parties of our Forces went in pursuit of the skulking Enemy, and as some of the Indians sat in a Swamp with three of the Captives, a Company of Souldiers coming very near them, the Enemy started up, ran, and left their Captives, Plunder and Blankets, &c. And when the Indians were gone, the Children went to a deserted House that was near, where the English found them.

The other Captive was discovered by some men at a Block-House in Chelmsford, as he was wandring in a Meadow alone, the Indian that carry'd him away had (it's most probable) lost him in the night, some Soldiers discovered one of these Indians, shot at, & wounded him, the Indian fell, but as they were going to him, he arose, cast away his Blanket and Pack, ran to Concord-River that was near, and was seen sink in the River, and suppose he was drowned.

Piscataqua, July 25th. On Tuesday the 23d. Currant eleven men about a Mile from Mr. Hilton's Garison at Exeter mowing in a Field, were insulted by about 40 Indians, One of the two that stood Centinal fired at them, but the other 9 being hard at work, were intercepted from their Guns, of which 2 in the whole were slain, one desperately wounded, two more made their escape, and six wanting, which are supposed to be either kill'd or taken Captive.

Several Companies of our Forces went in pursuit of the Enemy, who about a Mile from the place where they did the mischief, gave a great Shout, and separated themselves, so that none of them could be found.

On the 24th. arrived Her Majesties Ship the Deptford from Boston Captain Stuckley Commander, with whom came his Excellency our Governour, who is now Sitting here in General Assembly.

Boston, At Groton on the Lords-Day the 21st Currant, 3 Souldiers going to the place of Publick Worship, passing over a Fence through a Field of Corn, some of the Sculking Indian Enemy being hid in the Field, shot at them, kill'd two and Captivated the third.

On Monday the 22d Currant, His Excellency our Governour Embarkt on board Her Majesty's Ship the Deptford, for his other Goveru[n]ment of New-Hampshire.

On the said Day there was a Lad Mowing in a Field at Sudbury toward Sun-set, espied an Indian near to him, and he having a Pistol hanging at his Girdle, fired at the Indian whom he saw fall, the Lad made the best of his way home; the next morning Major Brown with a party of men went out in search of him and view'd the place, where they saw a considerable quantity of Blood on the ground, and 'tis supposed the Indian was mortally wounded, but that his Mates, as they usually do, carried him off.

In regard that Labourers at this time of the year are very difficult to be got even for wages: The Inhabitants of the Town of Milton as is their usual Custom every year freely offered their Service to their Reverend Minister, Mr. Peter Thacher, to cut down his Grass, make his Hay, and carry it into his Barn, and to their praise and commendation be it spoken: On Monday last there was no less in his Field than 26 Men Mowers in a Breast, and on Wednesday there was 14 others that were Rakers; and on Thursday 16 more, and no doubt there was a competent number on Fryday and Saturday (though not come to our knowledge) to carry it into the Barn.

[THIS issue of two pages is remarkable for the predominance of domestic news. Foreign news is confined to two short paragraphs under London date of April 2, and two paragraphs under Fayal date of July 5, concerning affairs in Spain and Portugal.]

Jamaica, June 24. Upon Advice brought here by the Packet of the mischief done by the French Squadron upon Her Majesty's Subjects at St. Christophers and Nevis, and of their design to make an Attack upon Jamaica;¹⁶¹ His Excellency our Governour laid on an Embargo, Arm'd and Disciplin'd a Regiment of Negroes, rais'd several Batteries, and mounted them with Guns; and made all necessary preparations to receive the French, having laid several Mines in the way to the principal places, thro' which the Enemy must pass (if they had Landed) to blow them up: And intended to give them a Field Battel, and ordered his Son to lead the Van-Guard, declaring that whosoever should flinch back should immediately be shot down.

Three Trading Sloops arriving at Carthageen from Jamaica, the Governour acquainted them, that the French designed to attack Jamaica, and advised them to make haste home to help defend their Island, fearing the French might be there before they got home; and accordingly dispatched them in two dayes with Eighty Thousand pieces of Eight.

A Runagado English man running from one of these Trading Sloops, offered his Service to the Governour of Carthageen to Pilot him to take the Island of Jamaica, and particularly Col. Handisyde our Governour in his House; which the Governour resenting as a villanous action, took the said Runagado and sent him with a Guard on board one of the Sloops, ordering the Master to secure and carry him unto the Governour of Jamaica, with whom he sent a Letter to His Excellency our Governour, acquainting him of the same, and that he hated Traitors. And upon the arrival of the said Runagado in one of the Sloops, a Court Martial was call'd, where the said Runagado being Tryed, was found guilty, Condemned to Dye, and Executed accordingly.

161 See News-Letter Nos. 96, 103, 104, 107, 108 ante.

Four days ago the Embargo was taken off, and 2 days since the Colours were lodged and the Law Martial ceased upon advice brought here of the French Squadron's being separated and gone to several Ports to the Leeward. Monsieur Deberville the French Admiral beat up for Volunteers at Petitguavus and Hispaniola, in order to make a descent upon Jamaica, but the Inhabitants declined it, and he offered to force some Spaniards away, which caused a considerable Tumult among the people.

They are still Fortifying at Jamaica. Our Squadron under the Command of Admiral Whetstone consists of 6 Capital Ships, a Fire-ship and Tenders. The Fleet bound for England was Embargo'd, being about 40 Sail waiting for a Convoy, which was supposed to be Admiral Whetstone, when the other Fleet from England did arrive, whom we daily expect.

Taunton, July 19. About midnight the Thunder and Lightning split the wooden button on the top of the Vane Spindle of the Meeting-House, and split into shivers the post it stood in; but the Vane Spindle is not hurt, and carryed it off; and destroyed the biggest part of the Covering of the Terret boards, shingles and timber, and so descended on the proper roof of the Meeting-House, which is almost flat, and ript up the board and shingle for about 10 foot, and the two ends of the Rupture descended into the Meeting House two ways on the Fore-side of the Meeting House, and also two ways on the back-side of it, and split a principal long brace on the fore-side of the Meeting-House from end to end, and made it quite unserviceable, and came down on two of the middle of the Fore-side of the Meeting House, and ript off a considerable quantity of the Clapboards and boards on the outside, and also of the plaistering and Laths on the inside, and grazed and hurt the timber all along as it came down. It has drove two of the Windows a little outward (one of the fore-side windows, and one of the back-side windows) it has taken off two great splinters (one on the upper side, another on the lower) of one of the Main braces that support the roof on the back-side of the house, the said splinters are about 4 inches square, and about 7 foot long; some of the wooden Frames of 4 windows are split off on the outside, the white Lime plaistering in 4 or 5 places is blown off as with Gunpowder in considerable pieces. It took off a loose Seat from the East Gallery, and carried it above twenty foot, & left it on the Table without any harm: The ends of 2 or 3 boards of the Floor are blown up & the Nails of them drawn as if blown up with Gunpowder. Several paynes of Glass are considerably shattered;

The post of one of the Seats in the upper Gallery which the Rayls went into is split to pieces and the Seats fallen down. No harm is done to the Bell only the Wheel is somewhat shattered. Several Posts and pieces of Timber are grazed as if they were gouged, Lime and Splinters are scattered over the Meeting-House, scarce any place free, and bits of Clapboard and Shingles are scattered round about the middle of the House.

The same night Ensign Thomas Gilbert's old House was struck with Lightning, there was such a smoke and light and smell of Brimstone after the stroke, that they thought the House was on fire. It made holes in the Tunnel and sides of the Chimney, and so shatter'd it, that it is not safe making a fire in it; one of his Grand Children that lay in the same Room, was stunn'd a while, but recovered again.

New-York, August 5. On the 30th of July arrived here a Privateer Sloop of 6 Guns and 27 men, Nath. Burchet Commander, being the Tender of Capt. Tongrelou, which about [blank] weeks ago met with a Spanish Ship (bound from Canaries to New-Spain) of 600 Tuns, 24 Guns, and 250 men, near to Cuba, this Sloop fired 6 shot at her, two whereof hull'd her, one blew up the Round House, killed the Captain and 5 men, and another disabled, her Main Mast which afterwards fell over board, the Sloop finding the Ship too strong for her left her, and carried notice of her to Capt. Tongrelou, who immediately there-upon went in search of her, but could not find her; the Sloop soon after she parted with Cap. Tongrelou found the Spanish Ship ashore about a league from Barricoe upon Cuba, the Spaniards defended her from the shore, and at last capitulated with the Sloop for her Lading of Wines and Brandy, provided they would not burn the rest, nor the Ship; and accordingly she has brought hither 50 pipes of Canary and Brandy which they took out of her, but have not seen Tongrelou for seven, nor his Consort for 9 weeks past: The Spanish Ship was obliged to run ashore, having 8 foot water in the Hould before they knew of it, and upon her striking Ground, her Main Mast tumbled over board being wounded by a shot from the Sloop, but the Sloop knew not what execution they had done, till they found her ashore.

The same day arrived Capt. Basset in a month from Jamaica, who says Capt. Pennistone (a Privateer of this Port) boarded two Ships together, one of 18, and the other of 24 Guns, but was beat off with the loss of his Arm, and 9 men kill'd, and as many wounded, and obliged to bear away to Jamaica.

A Dutch Brig. of 110 men, Consort to Cap. Tongrelou has taken a French Privateer of 14 Guns and 130 men belonging to Petitguavus, Commanded by the Chevalier Courtney, and carried her into Jamaica, she was designed for this Coast.

We have advice by these Vessels, that 7 Fr. Ships were gone down to the Havanna, and that Monsieur Deverville with 5 men of War were still lying on the Northside of Hispaniola, but were sickly with the bloody Flux, and that at Jamaica they are not under any apprehension of being attack'd by them.

The Fleet from England was not arrived at Jamaica, the same day arrived here a Sloop from Curacoa, brings not any News.

Capt. Basset off Cape May was Chased by a Ship [blank] hours which gained upon him and got within half Gun shot of him, which obliged him to pull down his Round House, cut his Beam, and throw all upon Deck over board except his Guns; after which the Ship fell a Stern show'd her broad side and Stern, and fired a Gun to Leeward under English Colours, upon which Basset answered with a Gun to Leeward, but made the best of his way, tho' he took the Ship for the Triton's Prize, but it proved otherwise.

On the 3d. Instant Her Majesties Ship Tritons Prize arrived at Sandy-hooke from Her Cruise, She has been at Virginia, and about 10 days since met the Hazardous with the Ships under her Convoy going into the Capes; they were dog'd 4 dayes off Nantucket by a Ship of about 20 Guns, which the Hazardous at last chased away; tis thought to be the same Ship that chased Basset. One of our Outward bound Sloops met the Tritons Prize at Sea, and told them, a small Briganteen had taken a Sloop upon this Coast, in his sight, the Triton immediately went in search of her, but could not meet with her on her Cruise.

[A GAIN, in this two page issue, the foreign news is subordinated, more than half the contents being of domestic affairs. Mainly, the foreign news is from Hague and Paris, concerning the siege of Barcelona.]

Hartford, August 5, The Towns in the County of Hampshire being greatly infested by the Sculking Indian Enemy: We are just sending out 50 Men with Dogs, who are to divide into small parties, and range the Woods on both sides the River, if possible to discover and annoy, the Enemy.

New-York, August 12. Last week we heard that two or three Sloops were seen Cruise off the East-end of Long Island. From Philadelphia we are advised, that Her Majesty's Ships the Greenwich and Hazardous are arrived in Virginia, and that it's said the Fleet from thence to England will Sail the middle of next Month: We daily expect more certain Intelligence by Gentlemen from thence.

Last night the Rt. Hon. the Lady CORNBURY departed this Life.¹⁶²

162 Lady Cornbury (Katherine Hyde) was the daughter of Lord O'Brien—son of the earl of Richmond of Ireland—by his wife, Lady Katherine Stuart, daughter of the duke of Richmond and Lenox. Her obsequies were conducted with much pomp and ceremony in Trinity Church by the Reverend John Sharp, chaplain of the fort, and she was buried in Trinity churchyard. The great expense incurred for her funeral was one of the counts against Lord Cornbury for official extravagance. Several months later one Boudinot of Long Island was paid £300 from the sale of crown lands “as due for part of Lady Cornbury’s funeral.” See official papers in Documents Relative to the Colonial History of New York, Vol. V, p. 406 and p. 511.

This morning arrived a Sloop from St. Thomas, one Martin Master brings no News. Her Majesties Ship the Lowstaffe will Sail this day on a Cruise.

Rhode-Island, August 16. Upon the Report that a French Squadron from the West Indies, under the Command of Monsieur Deberville is designed to come upon our Coast; His Honour our Governour call'd a General Council, & Council of War, in order to Consult what was proper to be done for Fortifying of this Place, and especially the Town of New-port, in case of an Attack from the Enemy. Where-upon the Inhabitants of the Town and Island are daily at work, making all necessary preparations to Fortify the same, several Breast-works and Half Moons near and about the Town are already cast up, and a Breast-work and Trenches from the Point before the Town to Coasters Harbour, & likewise at the South End of the Town, to prevent an Enemy's Landing near the Town; And if they should Land at a distance from it, we shall have the greater advantage against them, by reason of the many Stone Walls and Ditches they must pass thorow to come at the Town, where they may be Ambuscado'd.

Capt. Cranston from Curacoa arrived here in 18 days, by whom we are acquainted, that they had the same News there that we have had in the Boston News-Letter. [Here follow a few lines of foreign news.]

Moses Butterworth and Robert Wrightington for Barbadoes, and John Chapman bound for Antigua.

Piscataqua, Aug. 15. On Saturday last, the Sculking Indian Enemy kill'd a man at Dover. And this day arrived here from Boston Capt. Martin in the Thenet Mast Ship.

Salem, August 17. On Wednesday the 14th. Currant, arrived here Eleazar Moses from Newfoundland 22 days passage, who informs, That there is one Man of War at St. Johns, & about 40 Merchantmen. That Sir W. Jumper was dailiy expected from Engl. with a Squadron of Men of War, in order to Attack Placentia. That an English Prisoner retaken out of a French Boat informed that in May last, there was about 36 Sail of French Merchantmen in Placentia. That two Letter of Marque Men from Bristol, the one of 14 and the other of 16 Guns, and one of London of 24 Guns has Cruised on Newfoundland Coast, and had taken 20 Prizes, some whereof were Bankers, and others that were bound in to Placentia. Mr. Moses saw 4 or 5 Vessels going in to St. Johns as he came out, but knows not what they were.

[IN this issue of four pages, nearly five and a half columns are filled with foreign news. At the top of the first column, on the first page, is the editorial note about the contents of the issue. Immediately following are the letters from the burgomasters of Brussels and the States of Brabant to the duke of Marlborough. From London, under June and July dates, are reports of the campaigns in Flanders and Spain, and there is other news of like character from Turin, Rome, Lisbon and Perpignan. In the domestic news, prominence is given to a Thanksgiving proclamation of Governor Dudley, and an account of the murder of Simeon Stoddard.]

In our Last we promised you the Copies of some Letters written to his Grace the Duke of Marlborough immediately upon his obtaining of the Signal Victory in Flanders, over the French Army, under the Command of the Duke of Bavaria; which follow. We also promised you in this a more full Account of the Publick Occurrences of Europe, brought in the Ships from England: The chief whereof you have had in our Publick Prints for these 8 weeks past. The more particular Account whereof you shall (God willing) have in our succeeding Prints, with the other Occurrences that came not to our hands till now, by reason of several Publick Prints coming from England to the Undertaker that miscarried, by the Vessel they were in being taken: And to compleat our Print with the Publick News of Europe (as well as those of the West-Indies, besides those of this and the Neighbouring Provinces;) we must return where we left off to carry on the same. So that any one having our Prints for the Year, will be furnished, not only with all that is material in the Publick Prints of England, but also with the Occurrences of the West-Indies, and of this and the Neighbouring Provinces.

Antigua, August 22d. [This letter begins with a report of the victories of the duke of Marlborough in Flanders and then continues as follows:] Monsieur du Casse is came out of France with a Squadron for the West-Indies, and we fear another attack upon some of Her Majesties Plantations. We speedily expect 16 Sail of Men of War with 6000 Land Forces, to make a descent some where upon the Enemy. . . . We are afraid by reason of some flying Reports from St. Thomas's, that Jamaica is attacked by the Enemy.

By His Excellency JOSEPH DUDLEY Esqr. Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesties Provinces of the Massachusetts-Bay, and New-Hampshire in New-England A

for a General THANKSGIVING.

UPON due Consideration of the late Extraordinary and Eminent Appearances of Divine Providence, demanding Publick Acknowledgments, with Solemn Praise and Thanksgiving unto Almighty God; In Special, For His Gracious Protection and Assistance of Her Sacred Majesty, in the just War, in which Her Majesty is now Engaged; and for the Good Conduct and Courage wherewith Her Majesty's Armes, in Conjunction with Her Allies, have been Inspired, to the obtaining of so many Wonderful and Glorious Victories over their Proud Insulting Enemies; thereby disappointing their boundless Ambition.

As also, for the Defence Vouchsafed to these Her Majesties Plantations, Against the Attacks of the French, who, this present Summer, have made their Impressions upon some of Her Majesties Islands; For defeating the Designs and Attempts of the barbarous Indian Enemy and Rebels, and so for preventing of their Outrages; For the plentiful Harvest, after the immoderate Rains and Excessive Floods, in the beginning of the Summer; For the great Measure of Health; The Return of many of our Prisoners from the French and Indian hands; And for other Great and Publick Blessings.

I Have therefore thought fit, with the Advice of Her Majesties Council, to Order and Appoint Thursday the Seventeenth of October next, to be Religiously Observed as a Day for General Thanksgiving throughout both the Provinces: Exhorting both Ministers and People in their Publick Assembly's, thereon, to Offer up most Sincere and Hearty Praises to Almighty God, for His so Great and Admirable Favours and Benefits. Hereby forbidding all Servile Labour upon the said Day.

Given at the Council Chamber in Boston the Nineteenth Day of September, 1706. In the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of GGD, [sic] of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

By Order of His Excellency, the Governour and Council,
Isaac Addington, Secr.

J. DUDLEY.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

Boston. We have by the Ships from England, the Melancholy News of the Death of Mr. Simeon Stoddard Merchant; [Son to Simeon Stoddard Esqr.] a Young Gentleman of an unblemish't Character, belonging to this Place; who was barbarously Murder'd.

And Whereas some false Reports have been raised concerning the manner of his Death, much to his Injury: It is thought proper by several Gentlemen, to give an Account of the Matters of Fact relating hereto, as far as is come to our Hands; that so his Honour and Reputation, who was known to be a Person of Indisputable Vertue, and uncommon Piety, might not be Wounded thro' Ignorance, or from any worse Principle.

He was found the 14th of last May in a Pond or Gravel Pit in Chelsea Fields, with his Throat Cutt: His Corps was view'd, and his Wounds Examined by two Eminent Surgeons, who jointly declared, That it was evident to a Demonstration that he was barbarously Murther'd; being Cut from Jugalar to Jugalar one way; and a second Incision made round his Neck to the very Spondyls of the Neck-bone; and a third Incision under that, in which his Neckcloth was Cut, and he Cut near to the Shoulder: which they determin'd could never have been done but by a Murderers hand: and that it was absolutely impossible to have done this himself, had he attempted it; inasmuch as the smallest of these great Incisions would have determin'd all manner of power to make a second, much less a third. This judgment of the Surgeons was Confirm'd by the judgment of the Honourable Col. Mordant, Brother to the Earl of Peterborough, who was a Spectator; and his known Skill in Anatomy rendred him a proper judge.

A Jury of Sixteen Persons sat upon him, and made their Return, That he was Murthered; And all this passed while it was unknown who the Person was, and so could not be thro' favour. His Body lay several days exposed to view in the Church-yard at St. Martins in the Fields, that it might be known who he was: And not being known by any of the Spectators, the Vestry Clerk of the Parish of St. Martins, Prints an Advertisement in the Post-Man of May 30th, in which he is accurately described, in order to find out who he was; which Advertisement begins thus: Whereas a Person unknown was found barbarously Murder'd &c. By which Advertisement some Gentlemen of Mr. Stoddards Acquaintance, were put upon, to make Enquiry after him, and finding he had been absent for some time, and the Characters given of the Murder'd Person Suiting him; they obtained Liberty to take him up in the Church-Yard, where he had been Buried and found it to be their Friend.

Upon this, There were Advertisements Published in several GAZETTS for the discovery of the Murtherers; with the proposal of a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Discoverer. In the GAZETT of July the 4th. A Proclamation from Her Majesty under the Hand of One of Her Majesties Principal Secretarys of State, to Encourage such a discovery. In these Words, Whereas Mr. Simeon Stoddard Merchant, was, about the 14th of May last found most barbarously Murther'd, in or near Chelsea-Fields: Her Majesty is pleased to Promise Her most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons concerned in the said Murther, (Except the immediate Murtherer, or Murtherers of the said Mr. Stoddard) who shall discover the Person or Persons that committed the same, so that he or they, or any of them, may be Convicted thereof.

By the pains taken for the discovery. A Man and a Woman have, upon Suspicion, been taken up, and Committed to New-gate. The Grand Jury have found the Bill against them. There being Three Witnesses, who made Oath, That they heard the Woman Say to the Man (upon a Quarrel between them,) Will you Murther me, as you did the Gentleman in Chelsea-Fields; adding, That he came home with his hands bloody; and that he repented only that he had left the Gentleman so much Money in his Pocket. Their Tryal is put off to the next Sessions, that there might be time to gain further Evidence, which is probable will be to their Conviction.¹⁶⁵

*The S P E E C H of His Excellency Edward Viscount Cornbury, Captain General and Governour in Chief of the Province of NEW YORK, To the General Assembly, the 27th day of September, 1706.*¹⁶⁸

Gentlemen;

WHEN I dismiss you at the end of the last Sessions, in June last, I acquainted you, that tho' I could not assent to the Bill you tender'd to me, for the raising the Sum of Three Thousand Pounds towards the fortifying of this City, yet I could not reject it, hoping that I might receive such directions from England as might make that matter more easie; I am very glad I can now acquaint you that my expectations are answered: I have received Letters from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, containing Her Most gracious Majesties Commands to Me, to permit the General Assembly of this Province to Name their own Treasurer when they raise extraordinary Supplys for particular Uses, and which are no part of Her Majesties standing and constant Revenue; but the Treasurer so nominated must be accountable to the Governour, Council and Assembly: Warrants may be issued by the Colonels, Captains, or other Persons, as the Act shall direct, but the Governour must always be inform'd of the occasion of issuing of such Warrants; and all Persons concern'd in the issuing and disposing of such Moneys, 166 The speech does not follow here but appears as placed below on this page.

167 Captain Tongrelow was one of the most active and most successful privateers operating at this time off the coast between New York and the West Indies. His captures were frequently recorded in the columns of the News-Letter. In the Mss. New York Council Minutes preserved in the office of the Secretary of State in Albany is this entry concerning one of his adventures: "July 4 1706 Captain Tongrelou, commander Privateer New York Galley took French ship off Petit Guavas in Oct 1705."

168 This speech of Lord Cornbury is printed in the Journal of the Votes and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Colony of New York, Vol. I, pp. 213-214, Gaine Edition. A previous speech of Lord Cornbury, June 27, 1706, is in the same volume, pp. 212-213: in the latter he reproaches the members of the Assembly for not having passed the money bills as he had desired without amending clauses.

must be made accountable to the Governour, Council and Assembly.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have acquainted you with Her Majesties Pleasure relating to the passing of Bills for the raising Moneys for extraordinary Supplies.

Gentlemen, I am commanded by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, to acquaint you, That Her Majestys Council for this Province have undoubtedly as much to do in forming of Bills for the granting and raising of Money, as the Assembly and consequently have a right to alter or mend any such Money Bills, as well as the Assembly.

Their Lordships likewise observe, That in the Preamble of the 1700 l. Bill, there is an Error in not granting the Money, thereby intended to be raised, to the QUEEN, which need not hinder the Assembly from appropriating the Money to be granted, to such Uses as are found requisite.

Their Lordships further observe, That the Penalty in the last Clause in the 1700 l. Bill, is of an extraordinary nature, such as no Assembly any where else ever attempted before; and they say, it is highly presumptuous in the Assembly to pretend to propose or pass any Clause whereby Her Majesty is restrained in Her Royal Prerogative of pardoning or reprieving Her Subjects whenever She sees it reasonable & convenient; and they Command Me to acquaint the Assembly with these Matters, that the like Errors may be avoided for the future.

I am further to acquaint you, That their Lordships are of Opinion, that Province of New-York ought to provide towards its own security, by giving such necessary Funds (as is done in other Plantations) for furnishing the Inhabitants with Arms, as there may be occasion; and this their Lordships command Me likewise to represent to you.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have acquainted you with those things I had in charge from England. I shall now mention to you those things, which in My opinion ought now to be provided for; and first, I desire you to observe, That by the directions I have now received, it is impossible for Me to pass the 3000 l. Bill in the terms it is now conceived, therefore I entreat you to prepare another Bill for that Service, according to the Methods above mentioned.

I must likewise recommend to your consideration the providing a Fund for the paying the Detachment sent up under Capt. Higby's command, for the defence of the Fronteers, in the year 1704. and the out-Scouts under the command of Capt. Brat, and since that time; and likewise for defraying the charge of Col. Schuylers Journey to the Onondags Country, at a time when we were in great danger of having the five Nations debauched from their Allegiance to the Crown of England, which was prevented by his going; this was so good a Service that I hope you will think it reasonable that charge should be answered.

I must likewise acquaint you, That by accident, very lately, the Guard Room in the Fort at Schenectady was burnt down, with a great quantity of Fire-Wood, which had been provided for this Winter now coming on, I should be glad that might be repaired before the cold Weather comes, else it will be impossible for the men to keep guard in that place, which lies the most exposed of all our Fronteers; I will direct an estimate to be laid before you for that purpose.

I must again recommend to you the providing a Fund for the repairing and maintaining Her Majesties Fort in this City, which yet wants several things to put it into a posture fit to resist an Enemy, if we should be attackt, which we very narrowly escaped this Summer. Whether you will think fit to fortify the Narrows to prevent any attempt of the like nature for the future, I leave to your considerations; but, in my judgment, I look upon that to be the best Way to cover this City from any attempt the French may intend to make upon us; and I chuse to mention it to you at this time, the rather because Capt. Redknap whom the QUEEN has been pleased to appoint to be Her Engineer in these parts,¹⁶⁹ is now here, and will, if you desire it, give you an account what he thinks proper to be done, to answer that end.

The last thing I shall trouble you with at this time, is the providing a Fund for the defence of the Fronteers at and about Albany this Winter, one hundred men, and five and twenty out-Scouts will, in my opinion, be sufficient to answer that Service.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have offered to you what I think necessary to be provided for, if any other things occur to your thoughts, which may be necessary to be provided for by a Law, you shall always find Me ready to consent to any thing that may conduce to the Service of Her most Sacred Majesty the QUEEN, and the Good and Well-fare of the Country.

Rhode Island, Octob. 4 Yesterday arrived here Captain Nathaniel Balston from Jamaica, he brings no News, but that our Fleet is gone over on the Spanish Coast to bring the Spaniards to declare for their King Charles the 3d, which they are all inclinable to do.

Her Majesties Ship the Triton's Prize from New-York has lain here a Fortnight. There came a Briganteen from Antigua, which had 6 pieces of small Canvas on Board her, which was to make her small sails and mend her other as the Master declares on Oath, but the Man of War sent his Boat out to her, found that and se[i]zed her, and carried her to New-York.

Tillinghust from Connecticut, Gillam from Connecticut bound to Boston, Jonas Green from Connecticut, & bound there again: Rodman for New-York. Outward Bound Ellery for Barbadoes, Cranston for Curacao, and Cuquit for St. Christophers.

Boston, On the 4th Currant arrived here the Ship Batchelours Adventure, Mathew Wilson Master, about five weeks passage from Fyall, who about 5 weeks before came from Lisbon, by whom we are advised; [several items of foreign news.] That three days before his Arrival at Fyall there was a great Storm there wherein were lost three Vesse[ls] from New England, viz. Welsh and Jarvies from Boston, and the other from Salem.

On Saturday a Sad and awful Providence fell out; There was 14 Men on Board the Pinnacle of Her Majesty's Ship the Province Galley coming from Nantasket to Boston, who about 2 aClock in the afternoon, with little or no Wind off Long-Island Head by a Jeeb of the Sail, over-set the Pinnacle, eight of the men were saved, & the other six were drowned, viz Mr. Nicholas Thomas Jones, Christopher Hunlock, Samuel Payne, John Mayhew, John Johnson, & Deras Denison a Frenchman & Chyrurgion.

Capt. Charnock from Jamaica is arrived at Plymouth.

[FOUR pages folio. The queen's thanksgiving proclamation is prominent on the first page, with an editorial introduction. Miscellaneous foreign news of April dates is from Hague, Vienna, Frankfort and London. An account of the attack upon Charleston, South Carolina, by French and Spanish ships of war, in the preceding August, fills three columns.]

In regard that the Day of Publick Thanksgiving (appointed by the Governour, to be Solemnized in this and the Province of New Hampshire; as by His Excellency's Proclamation to be seen in our Numb. 127. for the several Clauses therein mentioned, and in special for the Great and Signal Victories obtained by Her Majesty's Arms in Conjunction with Her Allies, over the Enemy) falls to be in the Currant Week. We thought it not amiss here to entertain our Encouragers with her Majesty's Proclamation for the said Thanksgiving; though afterwards we must return to carry on the Foreign Occurrences where we left off. [The proclamation follows.]

Charlstown, South-Carolina, Septemb. 13.

CAROLINA being a Frontier to the English Settlements on the Continent of America; We long expected an Attack from our Enemies the French & Spaniards, and accordingly we took care to fortify Charlstown, and make all other necessary preparation for our defence.

Monsieur Le Feboure, Commander of a Private Man of War being at the Havanna with 4 more French Privateer Ships, being encouraged by the Governour of the Havanna, and reinforced by several Spaniards put on board the French Ships, he undertook to Invade Carolina, having direction first to touch at St. Augustine, there to take in more men, and then to make for this place.

The Enemy were the more encouraged to Invade us (as the Prisoners informed us) because they heard that the Sickness raged in Charlstown, and had swept away a great many of our Men, and that the Country Planters would be unwilling to come to Town to defend it.

Our first discovery of the Enemy was by means of Capt. Stool in a Dutch Privateer Sloop belonging to New-York, who lately refitted here and Sailed from hence to the Bar of St. Augustine there to Cruise for a Ship expected from the Havanna with mony to pay the Souldiers of that Garrison.

On Saturday, Aug. 24. Capt. Stool returned again to this Port, who informed us, that on Wednesday last he Engaged a French Ship off of St. Augustine Bar, where he lost two men, and had 5 wounded; and that the day before he was Chased by four Ships upon this Coast. He had not been here above an hour before 4 or 5 Smoaks were made on Sulivans Island, which signified to us that so many Vessels were seen.

Lieutenant Col. William Rhett being then in Town about 5 a Clock at night, he caused an Alarm to be made, and dispatched a Messenger with a Letter to the Governour, giving an Account of the same, and other Messengers and Letters to the several Captains in the Country, to order them to make the Alarm, and forthwith to march their Companies to the Town, and at night caused the Alarm Guns at Town to be fired.

That Evening the Enemy came up with our Bar, but would not venture to come over, but stood off again, it being near night.

On Sunday the 25th Our Look-outs discovered the Enemy to the Southward of the Bar, Maning all their Galleys, Periaugers and Boats, upon which we expected them to Land upon us that night. In the Afternoon Major-General Broughton came to Town with 2 Companies: And most of the Gentlemen belonging to the Troop, Commanded by Col. George Logan came also in; all which kept a diligent Watch that night.

The next Morning Monday the 26th. The Country Companies marched out of the Lines of the Town, and had their Quarters within half a quarter of a mile of the same, it being thought convenient not to expose them to the Sickness of the Town but in case of necessity. All that day the Enemies Ships continued at Anchor at Folly Island, and their Boats were sounding the South Bar. The same day Sir Nathaniel Johnson our Governour came to Town and gave the necessary Orders: his Presence gave great encouragement to the People, who had great Confidence in his Conduct, he having been bred abroad a Souldier from his Youth. In the Evening the Forces were again ordered into the Town.

On Tuesday Morning early Capt. Johnson Linches, & Capt. George Hearnies Company marched within a quarter of a mile of the Town, ready to march in when ordered. And Capt. Jonathan Drake's Company from James Island came over to the Town. The same Morning the Enemy with 4 Ships and a Galley with Small Craft to Land their Men came over the South Bar, and stood directly for the Town with fair Wind and Tide: When they came so near the Town as to have a sight of our Fortifications being out of the reach of our Guns, they bore up and came to an Anchor under Sulivans Island. The same morning the Governour drew up all the Forces that were Quartered near the Lines of the Town, and marched them into the Town in order to receive the Enemy. And a Sloop was sent over from Charlstown to a Neck of Land lying between Wando River and the Sea, and took on board Capt. John Fenwick and his Company, & brought them safe to Charlstown, notwithstanding one of the Enemys, Gallies endeavoured to intercept them. In the Evening Martial Law was Proclaimed.

Wednesday morning the 28th. Capt. Longbois with the Santee Company marched into the Town, as also did Capt. Seabrooks Company from the Southward. That morning a Council of War was held, and the Vessels that lay in the Harbour were fitted, viz Three Ships, one Briganteen, two Sloops and a Fireship in order to annoy the Enemy, the said Ships and Vessels to be under the Command of Lieut. Col. William Rhett, who had a Commission from the Governour to be Vice-Admiral, and hoisted the Union Flag on board the Crown Galley. The same day a Flag of Truce came on Shore from the Enemy with a Message to the Governour. The Messenger being brought into Granvile Bastion, then Commanded by Capt. George Evans, who had the Command of one of the Town Companies which was posted there, the Messenger waited till the Governour was made acquainted with his Message. And being Introduced to the Governour, he told him he was ordered by Monsieur De Feboure who was Admiral of the French Ships, in the Name of the French King, to demand that we should Surrender to him the Town and Country, and our Persons to be Prisoners of War; and he said his Orders was to give but one hours time for an answer. The Governour told him that it needed not a quarter of an hour or a minutes time to give an answer to that demand, for that he might see he was not in such a Condition to be obliged to Surrender the Town, but that he kept the same, and would defend it in the Name and by the Authority of the Great Queen of England, and that he valued not any Force he had, and bid him go about his Business.

The next day being Thursday the 29th, a party of the Enemy went on Shore on the above-named Neck of Land between Wando River and the Sea, and burnt two Vessels by Col. Dearsleys Creek, and set fire to the said Col. Dearsleys Store-house. And another party of them went on Shore on James-Island and set an House on fire; upon which Capt. Drake with his Company belonging to the said Island, was ordered to it from the Town, but before he could march up where the Enemy were, some Indians that went from the Town with him, marching faster than he, Attacked the Enemy, and drove them into their half Galley.

On Fryday morning about an hour or two before day, notice being brought by a Negro, that the Enemy had been on Shore on the neck all night they having landed about 160 Men, and had killed several Cattle and Fowls and were then feasting of it: The Governour ordered about 100 men to be sent from the Town to the said Neck, viz. Capt. John Fenwick with his Company about 70 men, and a Detachment of about 25 men from Capt. Linches Company, and another Detachment of about the same number from Captain William Cantey's Company; both the said Detachments to be under the Command of Capt. Cantey. The said Capt. Cantey and Capt. Fenwick being with their men Landed on the Neck, they marched in pursuit of the Enemy, when coming up with a party of them, they engaged them and defeated them, killing and wounding above a dozen upon the spot, and six or seven were drowned in trying to swim over a Creek, and took about 33 Prisoners with the Loss only of one man on our side named William Adams (formerly of N. England.) Afterwards the Indians brought in several more Prisoners which made the number about 60 besides what was found kill'd in several places in the pursuit.

On Saturday morning the 31st. Our Fleet consisting of six Vessels and a Fireship, under the Command of Col. Rhett as Vice-Admiral Sailed for the mouth of the Bar where the Enemy lay, who perceiving our Ships to stand towards them, in great haste and confusion Sailed over the Bar and made the best of their way, and they having a favourable Wind and Tide before them, and dirty Weather coming on, our Ships were not able to come up with them, so they returned again to the Harbour before Charlstown.

On Sunday in the afternoon being the 1st of September, Capt. Watson in the Seaflower was ordered to go to the Bar to see if he could discover any of the Ships or Vessels belonging to the Enemy, not being able to discover any of their Ships or Vessels, and returning again to Town from a Point of Land on the Neck, the said Capt. Watson took off 14 more Prisoners, and brought them to Town, and informing the Governour that he could make no discovery of the Enemy, they having made the best of their way: That Evening the Alarm was discharged, and Martial Law declared to cease. At night News being brought to the Governour, that there was a Ship seen in Seway-Bay, and that some of their men were Landed; and it being thought to be the Ship that the Prisoners told us the Enemy expected, in which was Monsieur Arbousset their Land General, and several other of their Officers, and about 180 or 200 men.

The next Morning being Monday the 2d of September a Barmuda Sloop then in the Harbour, together with the Dutch Privateer Sloop, both under the Command of Col. Rhett, was ordered forthwith to Sail for the said Bay to take the said Ship: Col. Rhett went on Board the Barmuda Sloop as Commander in Chief, and Col. Risbee, Capt. Evans and some other Gentlemen went on Board the Dutch Privateer as Volunteers, and that morning both the said Sloops sailed over the Bar, and made the best of their way for Seway-Bay. Capt. John Fenwick and his Company were sent over to the Neck in search of them by Land.

On Tuesday the 3d about Noon Capt. Fenwick and his Company, with some others of the Patrole came up with the Enemy, who though they were more in number than our men, and advantageously posted, yet our men charging of them, and several of the Enemy falling, the rest cryed out for Quarter; so they killed about 12 or 14 of the Enemy, and took about 50 Prisoners, and brought them to Charlstown, amongst which is Capt. John Pacquereau the Commander of the said Ship, with 4 more Officers; and afterwards some few more Prisoners were brought in. In the evening of the same day the two Sloops before-mentioned under the Command of Col. Rhett coming up with the Enemies Ship at Seway, and ready to lay her on Board, the Enemy cryed out for Quarter, and surrendered up their Ship and yielded themselves Prisoners, being between 80 and 90 men then on Board.

On Wednesday the 4th. the Wind being contrary, the two Sloops with their Prize being forced to remain in the Bay, Col. Rhett dispatched away by Land Mr. John Barnwell who was a Volunteer on Board him, with an Express to the Governour, giving an Account of his Success.

On Fryday morning, the 6th Instant, The said two Sloops under the Command of Col. Rhett returned from Seway-Bay in Charlstown Harbour, and brought with them the French Ship their Prize, with their Land-General and several other Officers on Board.

So that now we have in all about 230 Prisoners French and Spaniards.¹⁷⁰

The Mortal Distemper we have had here has been over six weeks ago, only among Children, Strangers and Indians.

Jamaica, Sept. 10. On the 24th last there was brought in here as Prizes 4 large French Merchant-men Loaden with Sugar and Indigo, taken by a Privateer Briganteen belonging to this Place and a Dutch

¹⁷⁰ Upon this report chiefly is based the account of this affair in Rivers's A Sketch of the History of South Carolina to the Close of the Proprietary Government by the Revolution of 1719, pp. 210-213: see note p. 213. [FOUR folio pages, seven columns filled with foreign news. Most space is given to details of the surrender of Alcantara, the siege of Barcelona, the submission of Placentia to King Charles, and the movements of the duke of Marlborough in Holland; these reports are from Whitehall, Paris, Madrid, Lisbon, Vienna, Hague, Mayence and elsewhere, of April and May dates.]

Piscataqua, Octob. 18. On Monday the 14th Instant, His Excellency our Governour arrived here in Her Majesty's Ship the Province-Gally from Boston.

Several Vessels are also arrived here from Boston to Joyn the Mast Convoy, which it's thought will not Sail before the next Post overtakes them.

Boston, On Thursday the 17th Currant, was devoutly Solemnized here the day of Publick Thanksgiving, appointed by His Excellency's Proclamation, (in our Number 127) to be Religiously observed in this and the Province of New-Hampshire, for the many Signal Favours and Blessings conferred upon us in these Provinces, and in a special manner for the Wonderful and Glorious Victories obtained by Her Majesties Arms in Conjunction with the Allies, over the Proud and Insulting Enemies, thereby disappointing their boundless Ambition.

By a Sloop from Cape-Ann we are informed, That two Sloops from thence to the Eastward met a French Shallop from Placentia bound to Port-Royal, who had lost themselves, and being very short of Provisions surrendered themselves Prisoners of War: On Board the Shallop were three French-men and a Boy, Two Casks of Brandy, and a Hogshead of Wine; having taken out of the Shallop what was valuable, they sunk her, and brought their Prisoners and what they took out of her to Cape-Ann.

On Saturday night the 19th Dyed Mr. Elias Heath, of this Town, Merchant.

[IMMEDIATELY following an introductory editorial paragraph at the top of the first column of this issue, and under date, St. James, May 17, 1706, is an account of the defeat of the French army at Ramellies, and also reports of military movements in Spain, Italy, Poland and elsewhere on the continent. Other foreign news, which has been mostly received from Ireland, by vessels lately arrived at Newfoundland, completely fills three of the four pages of the number.]

Notwithstanding that we have already in our preceeding Prints given you from time to time the account of the Great and Signal Victory obtained (by the Blessing of God upon the Arms of Her Majesty and Her Allies) on the 12th of May last, by the English, Dutch and Danish Forces, under the Command of His Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Monsieur D'Auverquerque over the Enemy's Troops in the Netherlands: As is to be seen in our Numb. 120, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126 and 127. As it then came to our hands, to which we still refer you; yet we thought it not amiss having come that length with our Foreign Occurrences, as to Entertain the Encouragers of this Publick Print, with the more particular Relation of the said Victory from the Publick Prints of England, which is as follows. [Here the account as stated in the note above.]

St John's Newfoundland, October 3d There is arrived here a Briganteen from Leverpole, but in 7 Weeks from Dublin; by whom we have the Dublin Gazette of July 27th, & another Print of July 31st. to which I refer you for News. Captain General and GOUVERNOUR in Chief of Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New-England: To the Honourable the Council and Representatives in General Court Assembled at Boston, October the 28th, 1706.

Gentlemen,

I Am now to acquaint you that the Summer is past, and by the favour of Almighty God, we have been happily preserved from the Inroads of the Indian Enemy, (notwithstanding their great distance of Settlement from us, being gone over to the French, has given them advantage to come with the more secrecy upon the Frontiers) which has very much depended upon our good Intelligence of their motions towards the several Parts, and our Readiness to receive them, which nevertheless has greatly aggravated the Summers Charge.

But I should be wanting in my Duty to Her Majesty's Good Subjects, if I did not acknowledge and recommend to you the readiness and chearfulness of the Souldiers in all Parts, both of the standing Forces and of the Militia to march at the shortest warning, as well as of your own Readiness to support the Charge, which I have at all Times, and particularly by the Fleet now gone, Humbly Laid before Her Majesty.

And I must acknowledge that I have always been Assisted, and the Service forwarded by the Officers of the Revenue at home, as well as the Military Officers abroad.

What is wanting in this Session for the benefit of the Province, I shall be glad to be advised of, and desire the Assembly will proceed therein.

Mr. Treasurer will acquaint the House of Representatives with the present state of the Treasury, and experience has Assured me of your Readiness in the Supplies, in which I desire you earnestly to Consider of such Rules for the equal Laying of Taxes, lest the method of the Assessment be more grievous than the Tax it self.

I must further acquaint you, That I am again Commanded to represent to you, that the Different values of the money passing amongst us both contrary to Her Majesty's Proclamation, as well as the Laws of the Province, as they are hurtful to us, so they are very unacceptable at home, which I desire you will Consider.

I have often moved since I have had the Honour to Command here, that you would provide some proper Laws for the benefit of this Town, and other places of Trade, that Measures and Weights may be set of Provisions, Wood and Hay coming to Market, the want whereof is very prejudicial to all honest men, both the Buyer and Seller.

I desire you will proceed in every thing with all freedom and Unanimity, and that we may not burthen the Province with any long and unnecessary Attendance here.

I shall give you the present Rate of the Forces in the several Parts, and desire your Advice therein.

By His Excellency JOSEPH DUDLEY Esqr. Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, &c. in New England: A PROCLAMATION, for the better Regulation of Seamen and Marines.

WHEREAS the Laws of this Province have made good & wholesome Provision against the Entertaining, Hiding or Assisting the Escape of Seamen and Marines, duely Ship't in the Service of the Sea, or Trusting and Crediting them in their Expences, without the Knowledge and Allowance of the Captain or Commander. Notwithstanding which, divers Persons have been so hardy, as to Transgress the Laws in that respect, To the very great Hurt and Injury of Her Majesties Service in Her own Ships, as well as of the Trade of the Province in Merchant Ships,

I Have therefore thought fit, by & with the Advice of Her Majesties Council, to Issue forth this Proclamation for the better preventing of such mischiefs for time to come; And to render the Persons the more inexcusable, That shall be convicted of Shipping, Entertaining, hiding or concealing any Sailour or Marine actually in Her Majesties Service and Pay, or duely Ship'd for Voyages in Merchant Ships; Or that shall be convicted of Trusting or Crediting of any such without Leave as aforesaid; Every person or persons so as aforesaid offending, shall not only Lose their Debts, but also be prosecuted and punished with the utmost severities of Law.

Given at the Council Chamber in Boston, the first day of November, 1706. In the Fifth Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of GOD of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, &c.

By Order of the Governour with the Advice of the Council.

Barbadoes, Octob. 16. The Honourable William Sharp Esqr. President of Her Majesty's Council, made a Speech to the Assembly, the substance whereof is as follows: He layes before them the evil of Divisions, and of Persons seeking their own private Interests, to the destruction of the Publick, which he exhorts them to lay aside. And to use utmost Endeavours to keep the War abroad, by putting the Island in a posture of Defence which may convince the Enemy that the most favourable Entertainment they can expect will be an Ignominious Retreat.

He laments the unhappy Circumstances of the Inferiour sort of Inhabitants, who are disheartened by the fatigue, labour and insupportable expence of Military Duty, which forces them to seek support in other Places, and reduces the Militia very low: To supply which, headvises to Address Her Majesty for Forces to perform that Duty.

He also acquaints them that they cannot be ignorant, That Trade is essential even to the being of a Colony, which tender Plant all wise Governments have Nursed and Cheriished with the fondest care, and the Darling of their hopes, and the only inexhaustable Sourse of Wealth, which they ought to encourage by establishing their Credit on better grounds than now it stands.

And lastly he recommends to them the support of True Religion and Vertue, without which no State or Society ever arrived to any degree of Wealth and Honour, which alone can procure Success in all our Attempts.

Concluding, That they all should sacrifice their private Considerations to the Publick Good.

The Resolution Galley was run down in the night in the channel by the Halifax Galley another Merchant-man bound to the Streights; and 'tis fear'd that the Resolution Gally is lost; The Halifax Galley's Men all but 5 or 6 jumpt out of their own Ship into the Resolution, judging her to be the most likely to be saved: The Halifax Gally being much disabled, was Tow'd in to Plym. by a Man of War.

The Advice we have from England is a further Confirmation of the Raising the Siege of Turin, and the entire Defeat of the French Army in Italy by the Imperialists under the Command of Prince Eugene, in conjunction with the Duke of Savoy's Troops (mentioned in our Numb. 136.) [Details follow.]

[THE foreign news in this issue is comprised in the paragraphs under the Boston heading at the top of the first column of the first page. The domestic news includes reports of hostile movements of Indians.]

Boston, In our Last we promised you a more particular Account of the advice from England, Via St. Christophers, per Ball, to the 3d of October last. [Here follows a column and a half of news items from various parts of Europe, principally relating to the war in Italy, Spain, Saxony and on the upper Rhine.]

(It is to be remarked here that the Substance of the Advice referring to Spain, is to be found in our preceeding Prints, viz Numb. 132, 133, 136, 138, 139, 142, 143, 144, 145. And that the above Advice does not enervate that Paragraph in Numb. 132 from Oporto Septemb. 24 wherein you have an Account of the Confederates Army's obtaining a Signal Victory over the Duke of Anjou's Army; which you have confirmed in our Numb. 143, in that Paragraph of New York, Decem. 31 by the way of St. Christophers from Lisbon. In our Numb 132 and 133, you have a Summary of the most Remarkable Transactions of Europe for the Month of July. In our Numb. 136. you have a Summary of the Principal Transactions of Europe for the Month of August to the middle of September. And this present above Account, with what is in our Numb. 143 and 144. Contains the Summary Account of the State of Affairs in Europe, to the middle of October last.)

We have also the following Advice per Ball, That the Squadron of Her Majesty's Ships from Lisbon that arrived at St. Christophers, under the Command of Sir John Jennings, has brought to the Leeward-Islands about 60 piece of Cannon taken from the French at Barcelona, with Carriages, &c. fit to Mount them, Powder and other Stores. That the Squadron of Her Majesty's Ships waits at St. Christophers for some others that are to joyn them, and then they are to proceed to Porto-Rico, where they are to open their Orders. A Packet arrived at Nevis from Martinico, demanding the Money from that Island which the French when they Insulted it in March last had extorted by a second Agreement in April following, from some of the Inhabitants contrary to the first Articles of Capitulation (which you have in our Numb. 109. and in our Numb. 139 from England) unto which Demand the General told them that they should have none. The said Packet in her return from Nevis to Martinico stopt at Guardelupa, and took in above 20 Bales of English Goods and a considerable quantity of East-India Goods and 30 more hands, and in coming out thence a Dutch Privateer met her, who took her and brought her in to Nevis, and staid there 3 or 4 days, & Sailed thence with his rich Prize to Curacoa. Mr. Ball having touched at Anguila while he was there, a Sloop from Barbadoes came in, who told him that the said Island was alarmed at the sight of a Fleet, which they apprehended to be the Transports that was bound for the Leeward Islands.

On Fryday Night His Excellency received an Express from Groton, that a Party of ours having been sent out several days before to range the Woods, had made a discovery of the Enemy about 40 miles off that place: Whereupon His Excellency forthwith ordered a Reinforcement of those Parts, and other the Frontiers, and expressed the Intelligence thereof to the Chief Military Officers within the several Counties of Middlesex, Essex, the Provinces of New-Hampshire and Main, with Orders to be upon their Guard, and in readiness to repel the Enemy wheresoever they might happen to fall.

Josiah Minot, Commander of the Ship Samuel bound for London having got a good number of his hands, designs to Sail about a fortnight hence.

A Sloop from Holland designing to touch at New-Castle, intends to Sail from hence about 3 weeks time.

Hitherto we have had here an extraordinary moderate Winter, not above 3 or 4 days very cold, only it has been checkered Weather, sometimes freezing then thawing, then Snow and Rain, Thunder and Lightning and Hail, neither of which continued long at a time.

New-York, Jan. 29. The Margret Gally, Joseph Emmons Master, is not yet arrived from New-London. We have not a word of News here, but so mild a Winter was never known, all this Month except a day or two has been more like March or April than January.

New-London, Febr, 3d. Our Frontier Towns on the Western part of this Colony have been lately alarmed, with apprehensions of danger from some of the Indians that are on the back of these Towns; which has caused our Governour to take this day a Journey to Hartford in order to Reinforce the Frontiers to expel the Enemy where they might chance to fall on.¹⁸³ Mr. Emmons in the Margret Gally Sailed from hence for New-York the 18th of the last Month.

Bristol, Feb. 7. One Thomas in a Briganteen designs to Sail in a week for Surranam.

Rhode-Island, Feb. 7. James Coden in a Sloop is arrived here from New-York. The Briganteen bound for England whereof Hatch is Master, will Sail in ten days.

Last Week a Whale about 40 foot long was struck a few miles to the Eastward of this City, and afterwards passed thro' the Harbour and was kill'd in Hudsons-River, and brought down hither, where she is exposed to view. James River Virginia, Feb 28. There was 3 Vessels of our last Fleet for England lost in a Storm they met with a few days after they put to Sea, 6 or 7 more of the said Fleet put in again to refit, who were disabled by the said Storm.

Boston, On Thursday the 6th Currant, By an Express from Col. Hilton, his Excellency received an Account of the Success of the Forces lately sent into the Eastern parts, viz That on Tuesday the 4th Instant, about one a Clock in the morning, the Colonel with a Detachment of the Forces under his Command, fell upon a party of the Indian Rebels, being nineteen in number, at a place call'd Cox's Head within Kennebeck River, whereof nine were men, most of them infamously noted for their bloody Villanies, Mamouson, alias Pemaquid Tom, being one of the Company; The rest were Squaws & smaller Indians.

Eighteen were kill'd on the spot, a Boy about eight years old was saved alive.

Through the Favour of Almighty God, not one of ours was kill'd or wounded; Only in the Action, the Squaw lately taken by Col. Hilton in his former Expedition, unhappily received a Wound from one of our men by mistake.

This Accident is very much Lamented, for that the Squaw had been very serviceable in making known the places of the Indians Residence: She is sent to Piscataqua for Cure; and is in a hopeful way of Recovery.

Col. Hilton was again Embarking the Forces on the Transports to go in further quest of the Enemy, Resolving to range the parts all the Shoar along. Our Forces were all in good health, and animated with their Success further to pursue the Enemy.¹⁸⁵

[TWO editorial notes beginning the first column of the first page of this number are introductory to a column of foreign news items. Then follows the domestic news beginning with the Charlestown, S. C. date.]

IN our Numb. 147. We gave you the last Summary Account of the State of Affairs in Europe, to the middle of October last; And in this we proceed to give you the like Summary Account to the 12th of November last.

ON Tuesday the 18th Currant arrived here the Sloop Two Brothers, Jeffrey Bedgood Master, about 20 days passage from South Carolina, by whom we have the following Advice from London of November the 12th. per the King William Packet Boat Via Barbadoes.

Charlstown, South-Carolina, Febr. 22 On the 14th of November last, the Littleton Galley John Lowther Master, was lost upon this Coast bound from Jamaica to London, all the men were saved and came on Shoar in their Boat, and left the Ship so Leaky and full of water, that they could not clear her.

Kingsail, Decemb. 6. On the 24th of November arrived here the Mast Ship, New-Hampshire, Robert Eason Master, bound for England, who left New-England the 24th of October in Company with several other Vessels under Convoy of Her Majesties Ship the Dover, Capt. Mathews Commander, who met with a great Storm two days after they came out, wherein they lost Company with most of the Fleet, and fell in with the Bay of Fundy. On the 30th of October the Ship Swallow, John Alden Master, struck upon a Whales Back and sprung a Leak, had 8 foot water in his Hold, the Sea running high, the men got on board the Ship William and Hannah, David Mason Master, nothing was saved but the mens Cloathing and Bedding. The 5th of November the Ship Olive Branch, Thomas Letheret Master, and a Pink, one Pitts Master, fell in with a French Privateer of 30 Guns. Letharet was within a Cables length of him, being Chased 8 hours and received several small Shot, and narrowly escapt being taken, he fears Pitts in the Pink was taken by him, the Privateer had a Jury Main and Top-Mast, but Sailed very well. Capt. Eason took a French Banker who had on board 5000 Core Fish and Salt, which was Ransomed for a thousand Livres, and has an Hostage on board for payment. The 19th of November Capt. Eason lost Company of the Thenet, Cawley, Mason, and Letheret in a great Storm they met with, which damnified both Eason and Cawley very much. Letheret in the Olive Branch is arrived at Cork, and Cawly here.

By part of the Virginia Fleet arrived here, we are acquainted, that 14 Sail of them was foundred, and feared many more. Vessels from all parts has suffered much. The Trade to Bilboa is not yet opened.

'Tis feared that Martin in the Thenet, and Pitts in a Briganteen are both taken. The New-York Merchant from New-York arrived at Kingsail the 16th of November. 'Tis said that 22 Sail of the Virginia Fleet bound for England are foundred at Sea.

The 7th Instant arrived here a Packet from England, 3 weeks passage, who say that the French King is endeavouring to make a separate Peace with the Dutch, That 20 Sail of French Men of War from Brest were bound to the West-Indies. That about the Wine Islands he fell in with a French Fleet of 17 Sail, and a Flag standing the same Course that he did. That Sir Bevil Granvill dyed at Sea in going for England. And that Mr. Crow is coming Governour for this island.

A Summary of the Principal Occurrences of Europe, from the 12th of November to the 7th of January last from London per the Packet-Boat Via Barbadoes and Rhoad-Island, is as follows.

[Here follows nearly a column of short items of foreign news, ending with the announcement, "We will give you a further Account in our next."]

Sommerset County Maryland, Febr. 16. An Order is come here from England to Embargo all Vessels bound there till September next.

New-York, March 17. On the 13th Currant arrived Sleigh in a Sloop from Curacoa, who left that Island the first of February, and informs, that Sir John Jennings with the Squadron of Her Majesties Ships were at Jamaica. A Sloop belonging to Boston Sailed from Curacoa about 14 days before Sleigh, for Axuma to Load Salt.

Piscataqua, March 20. Yesterday arrived at York a Fishing Ketch which adviseth that Col. Hilton Commander in Chief of the Forces to the Eastward is returning to Casco, having ranged the Eastern Coast, but could meet with no more of the Indian Enemy.

Rhode-Island, March 21. Codner in a Sloop from Surranam, but last from Barbadoes arrived here, and Gold in a Sloop from Boston bound for Philadelphia. Outward bound are Cranston for Surranam, and Ellery for Barbadoes.

Boston. By a Passenger that came hither from England in a Packet-Boat, Via Barbadoes and Rhode-Island, we are well assured, that the Resolution Gally having Forces and Stores on board for New-York (mentioned in our Numb. 143. and 145. said feared to be lost and run down in the Channel by the Hallifax Gally, which proves to be a mistake, it being another Ship that was run down and not she) was at Plimouth the 12th of January last in good Condition, having several times put out to Sea, and forced back again; of whose Arrival we may daily expect.

On Thursday last there was a Warehouse at Fort-Hill belonging unto the Widow Gibbs, accidentally burnt down; wherein was lost a great deal of Goods.

His Excellency has been pleased on Saturday the 22d Currant to Prorogue the General Assembly of this Province, unto Tuesday the

 THE Undertaker of this Publick Print of Intelligence for both Foreign and Domestick Occurrences has been endeavoring (now near three years time, with the aid and generous assistance of several Gentlemen, Merchants and others, both in this and the Neighbouring Provinces that annually took the same) to promote its continuance as a Publick good, yet notwithstanding that the same was proposed on very moderate Terms, and found to be of publick use, there has not hitherto appeared a competent number to take it by the year, so as to enable the Undertaker to defray the necessary Charge, far less to carry it on for the future, no dependance for its support being to be laid on the Weekly Sale of the said Prints, which if to be continued must either be by a greater number taking it yearly, or by some help from this and Naighbouring Governments, which is left to their consideration.

All Persons that has had it for the current year, who have not already paid according to agreement, are hereby desired to send it to John Campbell Post-master of Boston, with their Resolution whether they'd have it continued or not.

And all others who have a mind to put to their helping hand to promote and carry on the same, may agree with John Campbell Post-master of Boston, either by word or writing that it may be known before the year is elapsed the last of April next, if it can be proceeded on for a fourth year.

UPON due Consideration of the Holy Anger of Almighty GOD, Evidently manifested by Lengthning out the Troubles of Europe, as well as our own, and continuing them and our selves under the sore Calamities of a distressing bloody War; (notwithstanding the many great Victories obtained against the Common Enemy of Europe) which always bespeak our Humble Prostration at the Feet of Divine Sovereignty, with Penitential Confession of our many aggravated Sins and Provocations, and fervent Supplications before the Throne of Grace, for the free Remission of them: That the Just Displeasure of GOD against us may be removed.

I Have therefore thought fit, with the Advice of Her Majesties Council, and at the concurrent desire of the Representatives in their present Session, to Appoint and Order That Wednesday the Sixteenth of April next be set apart, and observed for FASTING and PRAYER throughout these Provinces; Exhorting both Ministers and People in the Publick Assemblies, and in their private Devotions, religiously to Solemnize the said Day; That by a sincere Repentance and steady Affiance in the Divine Mercy in their most humble Addresses to GOD, They may obtain these great Blessings.

[THIS issue opens with an editorial paragraph referring to the "summary of publick occurrences in Europe." Then is given foreign matter filling the first page and a quarter of the second. It includes an instalment of a summary of the articles of the union between England and Scotland, prefaced by an editorial note, and followed by the line, "Here we leave off till our Next." The domestic news in this number, as is usual, consists mainly of shipping intelligence.]

For want of Room in our Last, and due Encouragement to Print, especially a Sheet at a time upon the Arrival of Vessels from England or the West Indies by the Packets: The Undertaker was necessitated to break off with the Summary of the Publick Occurrences of Europe, from the 12th of November, to the 7th of January last, and therefore does now proceed on the same. [The foreign news items here follow.]

I N our Numb. 140 We acquainted you that Her Majestys Commissioners of England and Scotland (appointed by Her Majesty of Great Britain, pursuant to the Acts of Parliament of the Respective Nations, Impowering Her Majesty to Nominate Commissioners to Treat of an Union between the Two Kingdoms,) had agreed and concluded upon the Articles of the said Intended Union, the 22d Day of July last, which were not then made Publick: But are now come to our hands per the Packet via Barbadoes and Carolina, being since Printed in Scotland by order of the Parliament there; which Articles are in number 25. And are too long for this one Print, to be set down at large, unless the Undertaker were better enabled than hitherto he has been; yet for the satisfaction of those that has help't to support and promote the Publick Print, we have given you here a Summary of the said Articles which is as follows. [Here are Articles 1-15 of the Union.]

Jamaica, Febr. 18. Armitage and Noyce of Boston are arrived here from Madera, the former of which acquaints us, That a Ship from Ireland, which touch't at Madera, to take in 20 Pipes of Wine, and came out from thence in Company with him bound for this Place, on the southside of Hispaniola, a French Privateer of 24. AT the perswasion of several Gentlemen, Merchants, and others, both in this and the Neighbouring Provinces, who are sensible of the want of this Publick Letter of Intelligence for both Foreign and Domestick Occurrences; the Undertaker has once more attempted to Print the same in hopes that all Persons who loves a Publick good will one way or other put to their helping hand, to Promote and Support it, that the same may not only be carryed on a fourth year, but also continued for the future.

And all Persons in Town and Country who have a mind to encourage the same, may have the said Letter of Intelligence every Week by the year upon reasonable Terms, agreeing with John Campbell Post-master of Boston.

'Tis taken for granted that all such who had this Letter of Intelligence last year, and have not forbid the same, will be still willing to take it at the Price which others give: If any are of a contrary mind, let them signify it, and we shall forbear sending it to them.

The Undertaker has been also advised to carry on the Occurrences where they were left off, and 'tis hoped that fourteen days will retrieve the lost time.

Barbadoes, May 14. On the 8th Currant arrived here our Fleet from England, consisting of 33 Sail, under Convoy of 3 Men of War, the Guernsey, Childsplay and Winchelsea, ten Sail are bound to Jamaica, the rest for this and the Leeward Islands, on board of said Fleet came Milford Crow Esq. our Governour, who on the 9th Instant came on Shore here: The Regiment being under Arms, and received with all imaginable Respect and Honour.

New-York, June 9. On the 2d Instant early in the Morning Her Majesty's Ship the Triton's Prize Sailed out of Sandy-hook and that night about 10 a Clock she met with a Ship 20 Leagues S & by E off the Hook, and kept her Company all night, and early in the morning engaged her, being a French Privateer of about 150 Tuns, she had 10 Ports aside, and full of men, thought to be no less than 150 or 200 men. The Triton's Prize Out sailed her, and intended to run very close upon her and give her a broadside, but the Privateer prevented her by giving the first Broadside and Volley of small Shot, whereby we had 4 men kill'd, and 5 or 6 wounded, besides Capt. Davies who was shot just behind the Ear, and with the Fall bruis'd himself much upon the edge of a Shot Case, that render'd him unserviceable for some hours, which gave the Enemy a great advantage yet notwithstanding the Fight was bravely maintained, and a great many Broad-sides given, the Privateer made a running Fight, and the Triton's Prize every now and then upon the Chase came up with her, gave her a Broadside of Round and Partridge, several of the French men were seen to fall on his Deck, part of his Gunnel and Sprit-sail Yard found swimming; at last the Gale slacking the Enemy threw some of their Guns Overboard and row'd away, and the Triton's Prize returned to Sandy-hook to repair her damage. And Yesterday morning put to Sea again, being very well Man'd and Capt. Davies well recovered; if that unhappy Shot had not hit Capt. Davies the Privateer had certainly been taken.

We have an Account of a Ship of 18 Guns and 200 men from Martinico bound on this Coast, and believe this was she, some Prestmen lately come Martinico affirm this to be the Ship that they saw there.

Yesterday Her Majesties Ship the Lowstaffe with a Briganteen and 3 Sloops arrived here from Barbadoes, they left that Island the 14th of May.

Boston. On Fryday the 13th Currant His Excellency was pleased to Prorogue the General Assembly of this Province unto Wednesday, the thirteenth day of August next, Having passed the following Acts, Viz.

The Boston News-Letter.

From Monday June 23. to Monday June 30. 1707.

NY

[PROMINENCE is given to the speech of congratulation to the duke of Marlborough by the lord keeper in the house of peers, December 5, 1706, and the reply of the duke; also news from Vienna, Paris, Milan, Hamburgh and Hague, of early December dates.]

London, Decemb 5. . . .

Another Dutch Privateer brought into Plymouth the last of November a very rich Prize of and for Bourdeaux from Martinico of 20 Guns and 200 Tuns. A Dutch Privateer has sent into Falmouth the America Merchant, which he has retaken from the French.

New York, June 23d. On the 19th Instant Cap. Sleigh, and on the 20th Capt. Basset arrived here from Curacoa they had about a Months Passage, and came out in Company with the Homeward Bound Dutch Fleet, under Convoy of two Men of War, but being separated from them 3 or 4 days, the fifth day off of Hispaniola, they saw a Ship which Chased them, and stood after Basset, and in a little time came up with him; which proved to be a French Privateer, or Man of War of about 36 Guns and 200 Men, that fired two Broad sides and a Volley of small Shot at Basset, who had but 12 Guns, upon which Basset struck, afterwards the French fired another Broad side and small Shot at him, which shatter'd his Sails and Rigging, and Commanded him to come on Board (the Sea running high and blowing hard that they could not board him) on a sudden came a Squall of Wind that Overset the French Ship, which in a moment fill'd, after they were overset, they made a lamentable cry both in French and English to Capt. Basset to save them; but after the Ship fill'd she sunk immediately with all her Sails up, and every man perished. It being impossible for Basset to save them, tho' they sunk just by him; (the Wind blowing very hard) She was a very fine Ship, had a woman carved in her head instead of a Lyon, and well painted with green and other colours, but chiefly green; She had an English Pinnace on Board, they said they were from Martinico. Two days after Basset fell in again with the Dutch Fleet, and related to them the way of his Escape.

The Tritons Prize is returned from her Cruise, and 'tis said the Embargo will be taken off to day, and that to morrow or next day the Tritons Prize will put to Sea with our Outward bound Vessels.

Capt. Cockram, will Sail directly for Bristol in about 14 days time.

Vessels Outward Bound (besides those Cleared out & ready to Sail) are a Ship and Brig. for Madera, a Sloop for England and Holland, a Ship for Leverpool, a Brig. for Maryland, several Sloops for Jamaica, Barbadoes, Pensilvania, and Wiggins for Boston.
